Mastering Love and Relationships

Who doesn't want to have more constructive conversations in their close relationships? In this video, Fr. Mike Schmitz explains how achieving this may be simpler than you think. So many times, we just don't give the people we love the attention they deserve. Fr. Mike shows us how to fix that and master our love relationships.

Father Mike Schmitz is the chaplain for Newman Catholic Campus Ministries at the University of Minnesota Duluth. He also serves as the Director of the Office of Youth Ministry for the Diocese of Duluth. His ministry is for all but especially focused on young men & women .

January 16 ~ 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time “Do whatever he tells you.” These are the words of Mary at the end of today’s gospel! Mary is saying these words to us – to each and every one. What is Jesus telling you to do? The psalm gives us one way – ‘proclaim God’s marvelous deeds.’ St. Paul also reminds us that each one of us has special gifts, gifts that are different in each person. As you take time this week in prayer, humbly acknowledge the gifts that are uniquely yours from God. Then, like Mary, do whatever Jesus tells you, putting your gifts at the service of others.

A New Year's Resolution that Actually Has a Prayer

Adapted from Our Sunday Visitor. They offer 8 ways to kickstart your prayer life this year. Here are the five other resolutions focused on prayer.

4. PRAY THE LITURGY OF THE HOURS– The Liturgy of the Hours can seem daunting. The Liturgy of the Hours also known as the Divine Office or Work of God is the daily prayer of the Church marking the hours of each day and sanctifying the day with prayer. The Hours are a meditative dialogue on the mystery of Christ using Scripture and prayer. These collection of prayers, primarily the psalms, are structured to be prayed at particular times of the day. It's published in a four volume set tied to liturgical seasons. A short guide is published each year to help you find the right pages and prayer. Amazon or the iPhone app iBreviary can help you pray the Liturgy of the Hours. The Morning and Evening Prayer can be prayed in 15 minutes.

5. READ SPIRITUAL BOOKS– “The Bible in a Year Podcast” with Father Mike Schmitz, a podcast available on your phone, or searching for spiritual books on Google such as biblical study guides are a great resource for prayer. You can read Butler’s Lives of the Saints or check out spiritual classics such as Confessions, The Story of a Soul or Introduction to the Devout Life.

6. PRAY THE WAY OF THE CROSS– The journey to Calvary is not just for Lent. It is for anyone who has walked the difficult road of life, stumbled, fallen, gotten back up, and faced setbacks and pain and suffering. There is a Way of the Cross for Mary, St. Joseph, children and couples. Taking 15 or 20 minutes to follow in the footsteps of Christ and meditate on his suffering and death can give perspective and focus to our lives.

7. BEFRIEND THE SAINTS– At saintsnamegenerator.com, you can find the name of a random saint that could become your spiritual companion for the year. The software gives you the basics of the saint as well as their patronage.

8. PRAY UNCEASINGLY– In order to pray without ceasing, make every task a form of prayer. Give it to God. Any work, offered with love to the Lord, can be a prayer. Answering the phone, tending a garden, in a cubicle can be a prayer. Become aware of God’s presence in the world and in our lives.

These are a few ways to make 2022 a new start.

Inclement Weather Policy:

As a reminder during the winter season, if Boston Public Schools are closed due to weather we will cancel daily Mass on those days. If weekend Masses have to be cancelled due to bad weather, we will post updates on our website at www.bluehillscollaborative.org and on our social media pages. Thank you!
