Stewardship Is Our Way Of Life

Tithing (Stewardship) is an important way to consecrate ourselves to the Lord. Our gift is made holy because we give thanks and praise to God without strings or conditions.

Stewardship of Treasure

All are asked to prayerfully consider tithing and return 10% of our income to the Lord (5% to the parish, 5% to God's other charities) in gratitude. The spiritual practice of tithing disposes us to place God first in every area of our lives!

"Tithing—Putting God First" - Stewardship

"No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth)." Luke 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run "neck and neck" as top priority. Is money a "god" that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

9/18/2022

Paradise Lost by John Milton is a classic work. It isn't easy for us modern types with an intensely poetic style and loads of analogies and old timey language but there is a genius to it. Milton has a way of giving each character their own voice that is familiar. Most folks are familiar with the famous quote Milton attributes to Satan: "Better to reign in Hell than serve in Heaven". People can identify with the attitude- Milton has them, "you just joined the side of the demons- you have their attitude".

The first Chapter deals with the War against heaven and the devils being cast down to Hell. They then build a city for themselves- a headquarter in Hell called Pandemonium. They then have a gathering to discuss what to do next: should they fight God and the angels again, should they apologize and throw themselves on the mercy of God, should they make the best of where they are. Different devils speak representing different perspective- Moloch the Idol who requires human sacrifice is all for fighting even if they can't win as long as they can wound their enemy and make them suffer. Belial the idol associated with sloth argues that war is a lot of work for little gain and better not risk losing. Mammon- the fellow from today's Gospel- has his eyes down looking for anything valuable there might be on the ground. Mammon says there is no profit in war but if we get lesser devils to do the digging there is apt to be gems and precious metals. Last to speak and in the 2nd in command to Lucifer- Beelzebub- he heard a rumor that God is going to create a new world with a new creature to lead it- a human being- not angelic. Corrupting the human and dwelling in the new world is the best plan.

In the Gospel Jesus warns that you can't worship God and Mammon. When we compete economically with our eyes focused in only on profit, when we get caught thinking of cost and gain at the expense of principle, if we choose our relationships based on those who are economic winners and distance ourselves from the poor and the failing, when we do these things Mammon is making us his own. When Jesus has his way with us money becomes the servant to our principles. We will work and get paid, we will buy and sell but with our eyes up- we will see our brothers and sisters. We will take risks when the purpose is powerful enough. We will trust in something more than what we can control ourselves. It is a freer form of life and who wants to go to Hell anyway.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Every year on the third weekend in September we celebrate Catechetical Sunday in our diocese and across the nation. The theme for this year's celebration on, September 18, 2022, is: "This is my body given for you" and those whom the parish community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be recognized and commissioned for their ministry.

On this Catechetical Sunday, I first acknowledge the essential role of parents as the primary educators of their children. Children learn about the faith, as well as the values of dignity and respect for others by watching and imitating the actions and beliefs of their parents. We have all navigated our way through a pandemic and it has called all of us, parents especially, to face many challenges. Through faith and with hope, we have overcome many obstacles and face new challenges that will occur as we move forward together in faith.

In addition, our Catechists share this role of educating our young people in our parishes. May their efforts help enlighten our children to know God's love for them and to appreciate the unique manner in which He created them. Mindful of my role as Chief Catechist of the Diocese of Norwich, I want to express my deep gratitude to those who have been designated by their communities to serve in this important role.

Catechetical Sunday likewise presents a wonderful opportunity for all of us to reflect on the role to which each of us is called by virtue of Baptism, to hand on the faith to the next generation of believers and to be witnesses to the Gospel.

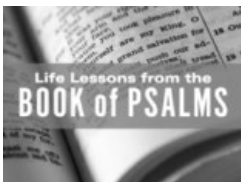

"The privileged place of catechesis is precisely the Eucharistic celebration, where brothers and sisters come together to discover more and more the different ways of God's presence in their lives."

-Pope Francis

In closing, I call on each of us to celebrate this Catechetical Sunday as an opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the mission of preaching and giving witness to the enduring truth of the Gospel to all those we meet through our daily actions.

Sincerely yours in Christ, Michael R. Cote, Bishop of Norwich

Auction Committee Meet & Greet w/Wine and Cheese
Tuesday, September 27 at 6:30 in the Hall

Fellow parishioners, we are looking for your help to take our parish auction to the next level!! Covid has brought on an interesting opportunity for us. Historically the auction was held in person...covid forced us to try a full time virtual model. While this virtual model was very effective, feedback is that people miss the in person experience. Our goal...to do BOTH! But we need YOUR help! If you want to learn more about positions available please come to our information session. Our committee likes to have fun while working on this great endeavor and we'd love to add to our group. Commitment is approximately 2 hours per month from September through December, and 4 hours per month January through March, summers off!! Positions we are looking for...

Future Auction Chairperson – are you interested in leadership development? This would look great potentially on a work resume!
Web Administrator – we are looking for someone to get very familiar with our Aucrtia technology and help us maintain the website for future auction events
Party Planning – we need help with organizing a live event...food planning, beverage planning, setup help etc.
Donation Support – we could use help contacting local businesses to acquire more donations for the upcoming auction
General Committee support – Interested in doing a little bit of everything? Just join our committee and help where you can!

If interested in attending please RSVP directly with Enzo Dastoli at VDastoli1@gmail.com or by phone 860-680-2879. RSVP will help with food and drink quantity. Walk-Ins also encouraged!
