Stewardship Is Our Way Of Life

Tithing (Stewardship) is an important way to consecrate ourselves to the Lord. Our gift is made holy because we give thanks and praise to God without strings or conditions.

Stewardship of Treasure

All are asked to prayerfully consider tithing and return 10% of our income to the Lord (5% to the parish, 5% to God's other charities) in gratitude. The spiritual practice of tithing disposes us to place God first in every area of our lives!

"Tithing—Putting God First" - Stewardship

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us."

THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

Stewardship of Time and Talent

Spending Time with God in Prayer

With our busy schedules, we have a tendency of always rushing—slow down—sense God's presence, and simply sit still for a moment and be with Him

Talents in Service to God and Other

Share your faith—personally invite a friend to Church.

November 13, 2022

Last week Tuesday Nov. 8 was the Feast Day of Blessed Duns Scotus. He is one of the foremost Franciscan theologians, Saint Bonaventure is the greatest Franciscan theologian then there is Duns Scotus and in modern times Fr. Don Bosco Duquette. I figure I would drop a little Medieval wisdom on you.

One fascinating theological stance that comes out of our Scottish friar is that God was not incarnate in Christ because of original sin. He argues that God doesn't do it as remedy for our failing. He argues that God always desired to be close to the human race, always planned to have the unity of the divine and the human. He loves us and seeks that union. Sin meant that God incarnate would have to die on a cross, but His plan before time began was that we would become holy as He is holy, dwellings of the Holy Spirit. It is a powerful thought that emphasizes God's desire instead of our guilt.

The second thought is about "quiddity". It comes from the Latin "quid" or "this". Philosophers debated about being- form and matter. Gasp the big picture we often talk about categories of things: birds, water, air – terms that describes things according to type. We can think of God creating a universe in great broad strokes. Blessed Duns Scotus would have us recognize that everything that is created has a "this-ness" "quiddity" about it. Things might be part of large category but everything that God made is individual and has its own dignity. The more we think about how the material world is made up of molecular, atomic, subatomic particles each having a specific existence.

God's creation is awesome in its amazing breadth but also in the detail of the "this-ness" of each being. The old song quoting Christ's parable goes., "His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me." There is a this-ness to me at this moment and all the details that surround me are part of His will. There is a delicacy in the distinctiveness of what God makes. Underneath it all is His plan for us to be drawn into His life as He has plotted from before we were born.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

The celebration of Catholic Schools Week began in 1974. This is a yearly celebration of Catholic Education in the United States. The theme for National Catholic Schools Week for 2022 is: Faith, Excellence and Service.

Catholic school education is an investment. Families work hard to cover the expense of tuition because they value faith-filled and quality academic formation for their children. Many families rely on financial assistance, scholarship opportunities and development support in order to bridge the gap. Donors are essential to their success. Catholic schools benefit all year long from the religious guidance, prayers and support parishes provide.

Catholic school alumni are living examples of your Catholic school product. Whether students have moved on to high school or matriculated into college, a large part of their formation and readiness was established in their prior Catholic school experience instilled in them by dedicated teachers, administrators and religious orders.

Twenty years ago, Saint Pope John Paul II said to an audience of Catholic educators in New Orleans: "Yours is a great gift to the Church, a great gift to your nation." Countless people in our country have been blessed by the many gifts of Catholic schools. However, many adults have lost touch with their local Catholic school community. It is time for those people who have been impacted by your school to reconnect with the community that gave them so much and give back.

With every best wish, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ, Michael R Cote, Bishop of Norwich
