Stewardship Is Our Way Of Life

Tithing (Stewardship) is an important way to consecrate ourselves to the Lord. Our gift is made holy because we give thanks and praise to God without strings or conditions.

Stewardship of Treasure

All are asked to prayerfully consider tithing and return 10% of our income to the Lord (5% to the parish, 5% to God's other charities) in gratitude. The spiritual practice of tithing disposes us to place God first in every area of our lives!

Week 20 —November 13, 2022

	2022 - 23	2021 - 22
Actual Sunday Offering	$7,772·	$7,178·
Electronic Giving for the Week	$3,581·	$4,131·
	$11,353·	$11,309·

"Tithing—Putting God First" - Stewardship

"....giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light."

Colossians 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or we spend most of our time trying to acquire more stuff. Instead, try putting God first in all things. We were made for God. Open your heart and let Him in!

Stewardship of Time and Talent

Spending Time with God in Prayer

Take some time this Thanksgiving to express gratitude to God for the people in your life—your family, friends, teachers, mentors.

Talents in Service to God and Other

Finish this sentence—"I am thankful for you because...." about a family member or friend and let them know your answer.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

November 20, 2022

Holy Women of the Week. In the course of last week and the beginning of this week we have an interesting group of women saints from a variety of states of life and times in history.

The earliest is Catherine of Alexandria whose feast in November 25. The history is the fuzziest, in that documents appear in the 9th century detailing her story when she died in the early 4th century. Devotion to her was wide spread- in medieval time she was considered one of the 14 Holy Helpers- saints invoked for intercession- and she is a central figure in the visions that guided St. Joan of Arc. Her story is that she was a young woman of noble birth who had the opportunity to get a truly rigorous education in philosophy, becoming familiar with the great schools of Greek thought- Plato, Aristotle, and the contemporaries of her day the Stoics and the Neo-Platonists. In her intellectual curiosity she runs into Christian thinkers and converts. It was in the time of the last persecutions under the Emperor Maxentius. She begins sharing her faith and succeeds in converting the Empress and the head of the palace guard. The wheel they tried to torture and break her with breaks itself, she is beheaded. She is the patron of philosophers God used her intellectual potency to seek Him before she knew Him in developing her mind. He moved her from a great thinker to an instrument of evangelization.

The second in historical time is St. Margaret of Scotland- Queen of Scotland from the 11th century whose feast day is November 16th. She comes from English royal line but raised in Hungary. She returned with her family just as the Danes were being pushed out by the Angles and Saxons and the Normans were about to sweep in. Her time in Hungary formed her in a deep piety shaped by the clarity of Roman teaching. Her return at just the wrong time lead her to go north and meet her future husband Malcom III of Scotland. He was unlettered and a rough character- she would read him the Bible to slow Him down get him to reflect. She supported the Church in establishing monasteries and to take on the practices of the Universal Church- keeping the Sunday as Sabbath, starting lent on Ash Wednesday. She manifested a deep care for the poor- washing the feet of poor persons everyday. She raised her 8 children to be conscious of the life of faith and the demands of justice as well as charity.

The third in time is St. Agnes of Assisi, the sister of St Clare who lived in the 13th century whose feast day is November 16th. St. Clare snuck out of Assisi on Palm Sunday night it caused a great deal of agitation in her family- her uncles attempted to drag her back but were caught short when they saw she had already had her head shaved. Sixteen days later her younger sister has joined her in the Benedictine Monastery where she was staying. This time the men of the family came armed and determined. They drag her by her hair from the monastery struggling the whole way. Outside something happens and they give up pulling her and she returns to the monastery. Later Agnes and Clare's mother joins them as well as they establish the community of Poor Women of Assisi. Clearly Clare was an inspiration and guide, a great comfort for Agnes. But she is not destined to stay with Clare in Assisi. Agnes is sent to establish convents in Florence, Mantua, Padua and Venice. The correspondence between the sisters has been preserved. You can tell how much they mean to each other. There is Clare the great interpreter of the Franciscan vision and Agnes the "little sister" being sent from home to plant and build it far and wide. She returns to Assisi to be at Clare's side as she died. She was to die herself fairly shortly thereafter.

The fourth is Elizabeth of Hungary also from the 13th century whose feast day is November 17th. Elizabeth was born the noble family of Hungary. Shortly after her birth she was promised in marriage to prince Ludwig of Thuringia, a German state. The political jockeying between German and Hungarian nobles leads to the assassination of her mother when Elizabeth is 6 years old. It is said that Elizabeth perspective on life would be changed forever by that loss. She developed an intense appetite for prayer and the things of faith and a tender heart for the weak and needy. She married Ludwig at age 14 and the marriage is said to have been joyous. He supported her in the intensity of zeal she had for promoting convents, joining in the prayers of religious. He gave her free reign to spend the kingdom's riches on building churches but also home to care for the sick and regular distribution of food for the poor. They say he even agreed to have the sick use their royal bed when no other beds were available. The Franciscans made their way to Hungary and Elizabeth embraced and supported their work enthusiastically. She began to shape her life according to Franciscan ideals. When her husband Ludwig died she mourned intensely. Her family and in-laws encouraged her to remarry- she was only 21. She gave her rights and became a 3rd Order Franciscan living in a hospice for the poor she had founded. She is patron of the Secular Franciscans. I think she is also a model of young adults married and zealous
