St. Michael's Mission Statement

*The Spirit of the Lord has been given to us.
For He has anointed us with His Life.
He has sent us to: Bring Good News to the poor,
To proclaim liberty to captives;
And to the blind bring new sight;
To set the downtrodden free;
and to proclaim the Lord's favor in our lives.*
(Luke 4:18)

Fifth Sunday of Lent

*Give me justice, O God, and plead my cause against a nation that is faithless.
From the deceitful and cunning rescue me, for you, O God, are my strength.*

— cf. Psalm 43 (42):1-2

Prayers for our Christ-Seekers!

Since September, the Christ-Seekers/RCIA catechumens and candidates have been coming together weekly to pray, to study Scripture and to learn what our Catholic Faith is all about. Some have never been baptized; others have been baptized in other Christian denominations and the rest were baptized Catholic but never celebrated Eucharist or Confirmation. They are now in their final period of preparation before they celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil. They are living reminders for all of us to nurture our relationship with Jesus Christ. Please welcome our Christ-Seekers into our parish family and support them through your stories of faith and through your prayers: Alana Almestica, Amanda Evers, Donovan Haynes, Rebecca Healey, Jorge Guzman, Megan Pybus, Utkarsh Shukla, Larry Wiseheart II, and Jeff Young.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday!

Liturgies are:

Saturday: 4:00pm
Sunday: 8:00am, 10:00am, 12noon, & 5:00pm

Holy Week Help is Needed

We anticipate many parishioners “coming home” after 2 years of absence during Holy Week. Will you consider welcoming them by joining the hospitality team? Contact Mary Alice at 978-686-4050 or email her at mary_alice_rock@saintmichael.com.

Offertory Collections

Beginning on the weekend of April 9th and 10th we will be resuming the tradition of passing the basket for the Offertory Collection at the weekend Masses. Thank you to all for your very generous support of our parish during these past challenging months. We still encourage on-line donations as the most efficient way to donate!

Holy Hour Sunday, April 3, 3:00pm

Join us for our monthly Holy Hour.

This month we will be praying for peace in Ukraine and in the world.

Each Easter, parish collections benefit Clergy Trust which cares for the health and well-being of all active and senior diocesan priests in good standing. By supporting this year’s collection, you can show your appreciation for the priests who continue to build stronger communities for all through their ministry. You can support our priests by visiting clergytrust.org, use the QR Code to the right, visit our website, or donate during Mass this Easter Sunday. Thank you for your support.

Thank you to everyone who joined us on Friday or before Mass on Saturday for a listening session. We still have more scheduled on Sunday! If you can, here are the sessions available, all in the Parish Hall:

Sunday, April 3, 9:00am-9:45am, 11:00am-11:45am, 1:00pm-1:45pm and 4:00pm-4:45pm

“Listen to Him.....Act like Him”!

Recently, I had the fortune to be swimming in the warm waters of Maui, even listening to the songs of whales while under water! One day, as I was wading to the shore, a huge wave knocked me down! Has that ever happened to you?!

This week, I feel as if a huge wave of God’s message to me has knocked me down. Everywhere I turn, God is saying to me, “Listen to Him.....Act like Him”!

1. This week’s chapter in the Parish’s book discussion of Seriously, GOD?, highlighted the story of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes (Mark 6: 30-44). The myriad of people are eager to learn from Jesus! They are hungry and thirsty for spiritual nourishment, but as the day is fading, they are physically hungry. The apostles want to call it a day, but Jesus encourages them to get out of their comfort zone and try to help those in need. Look at what happened – the people had more than their fill! When we listen to Jesus and act like Him, miracles can take place! “Listen to Him.....Act like Him”!
2. In reflecting on this week’s Gospel of the woman caught in adultery (John 8: 1-11), there are the people, again, eager to learn from Jesus. Then the scribes and Pharisees break up his lessons of how to be loving, kind, compassionate and merciful and bring forth the sinful woman for judgement by Jesus. I have to put myself in that story. Sometimes I am like the people, eager to listen to Christ and grow in my faith, in my generosity and kindness, my patience and understanding, my compassion and mercy. At other times I am like the scribes and Pharisees, eager to point out other people’s faults and sinfulness while ignoring my own! However, my goal has to be to not only listen to Jesus, but to always act like Him, who shows such unconditional love and mercy, kindness and compassion to all. “Listen to Him.....Act like Him”!
3. This week’s Parish Mission, directed by Fr. Anthony Michalik, C.S.s.R was the culmination of the huge wave for me. During the last evening, he spoke of Mary who carried the Word of God, made flesh, inside of her. She responded to His Presence within her by service, sacrificing her own comfort to travel to assist her older cousin, Elizabeth, in her late pregnancy. He reminded us that we, too, carry the Word of God inside of us, that we are tabernacles of Jesus Christ. Fr. Anthony encouraged us to take the time to be still with Christ who dwells in us, to listen to Him and to allow Him to work through us by humbly serving those around us. “Listen to Him.....Act like Him”!

We have 2 weeks left to prepare for Easter. How are you doing along your Lenten Journey? If you are like me, you still have a lot of spiritual work to do for New Life in Jesus Christ to become a reality on Easter Morning! Let’s work, together, these next 2 weeks by truly listening to Jesus, spending quiet time in prayer, reflecting on the Gospel stories, and other spiritual exercises. Let us act like Jesus by sharing his patience and kindness, compassion, forgiveness, his love and joy with others, giving generously to those in need and even getting out of our comfort zones to serve others. If we stay on target, not only will our lives be transformed, but the world around will be by the authentic Presence of Jesus Christ whom they encounter through us.

Wishing you New Life in Jesus Christ on Easter Morning,

Director of Pastoral Ministries

ST MICHAEL SCHOOL OUR LENTEN JOURNEY

Lord,

Teach me a new freedom, freedom to reject comparison and to embrace uniqueness, freedom to cut ties with greed and embrace love, freedom to abstain from over-indulgence and to embrace self-control, freedom to leave behind selfish thoughts and to focus on the needs of others, freedom to fend off insecurity and to embrace grace.

Lord, at this time of Lent, thank you for the freedom you bring. Lord bless and protect us.

-Amen

On behalf of Communities Together, Inc. we thank everyone who has donated diapers and small children's underwear throughout Lent. Our last collection day here at St. Michael's will be next Sunday, April 10.

The Stations of the Cross are an important part of the prayers and devotions of many Catholics. It is an important Lenten devotion that offers witness to Jesus' passion and death. There are fourteen Stations in which we use our heart and imagination to prayerfully reflect on His suffering, death, and resurrection (15th Station!). We celebrate the Stations of the Cross in the church every Friday during Lent at 7:00pm. We will also pray the Stations on Good Friday at 3:00pm in the church.
