“Love God. Love others. The rest are details.”
Jesus (Matthew 22:37-40)
The rich and the poor have equal dignity, for “the Lord is the maker of them all” (Prov22:2). “He himself made both small and great” (Wis 6:7), and “he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good” (Mt 5:45). This has practical consequences, such as those pointed out by the bishops of Paraguay: “Every campesino has a natural right to possess a reasonable allotment of land where he can establish his home, work for subsistence of his family and a secure life. This right must be guaranteed so that its exercise is not illusory but real. That means that apart from the ownership of property, rural people must have access to means of technical education, credit, insurance, and markets”. [77]

To our current registered families in the Faith Formation Process, as well as any new family at All Saints Church, our registration forms are now available to access from our website, www.somersallsaints.org. Please take your time in filling them out as it’s a new endeavor for all of us. If you have any difficulties, please contact the Faith Formation office at 860-763-0348. If your child/ren were not baptized in this parish, we will need a copy of your child’s Baptismal certificate and if they received their First Eucharist in another parish, we will also need a copy of their certificate.

First Eucharist families 2020—We are getting close to putting a program together that will assure everyone that our children and their families are prepared for the reception of their First Holy Eucharist. Once this has taken place, dates will be announced. As always, check your email and our website for updates.

Thank you for caring and sharing.

You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Matthew 22:37-39
