Dear brothers and Sisters,

This weekend we find evidence of Jesus' fame in the sizable crowd that accompanies him as he journeys to Jerusalem. His reputation as a healer has preceded him. When the blind man, Bartimaeus, hears that Jesus of Nazareth is passing by, he calls out to him, asking for his pity. While he's calling Jesus' attention, the crowd around him tries to silence him. Yet Bartimaeus persists, calling out more loudly and with greater urgency. He will not be silenced or deterred from getting Jesus' attention. We notice how quickly the crowd's reaction changes when Jesus calls for Bartimaeus. Those who sought to quiet him now encourage him. (so often the same happens in our daily lives...).

When Jesus restores Bartimaeus's sight, no elaborate action is required. In this instance, Jesus simply says that Bartimaeus's faith has saved him. Throughout Mark's Gospel, the success of Jesus' healing power has often been correlated with the faith of the person requesting Jesus' help. For example, it is because of her faith that the woman with the hemorrhage is healed. When faith is absent, Jesus is unable to heal; we see this after his rejection in Nazareth.

Once his sight has been restored, Bartimaeus follows Jesus on his way to Jerusalem. In fact, Bartimaeus calls out to Jesus using words of faith—"Son of David." This is the title used for the Jewish Messiah: he must be a descendent of King David. As Mark has shown us in our readings over the past few Sundays, Jesus will be the Messiah in a way that will be difficult for many to accept and understand. Jesus will show himself to be the Messiah through his suffering and death, not by his power and glory, these will be manifested later, at the end of times. It is by surrendering to Him that we will see a power that transcends death itself. May He give us a blessed week.

Desde el escritorio del Pastor

Hermanos y Hermanas,

Este fin de semana encontramos evidencia de la fama de Jesús en la multitud que lo acompaña en su viaje a Jerusalén. Su reputación como sanador lo ha precedido. Cuando el ciego Bartimeo oye que pasa Jesús de Nazaret, lo llama y le pide compasión. Mientras llama la atención de Jesús, la multitud a su alrededor trata de silenciarlo. Sin embargo, Bartimeo persiste, gritando más fuerte y con mayor urgencia. No será silenciado ni disuadido de llamar la atención de Jesús. Notamos lo rápido que cambia la reacción de la multitud cuando Jesús llama a Bartimeo. Aquellos que buscaban calmarlo ahora lo animan. (tantas veces ocurre lo mismo en nuestra vida diaria...).

Cuando Jesús restaura la vista de Bartimeo no se requiere más nada. El milagro ya se ha hecho. En este caso, Jesús simplemente dice que la fe de Bartimeo lo ha salvado. A lo largo del Evangelio de Marcos, el éxito del poder sanador de Jesús a menudo se relaciona con la fe de la persona que solicita la ayuda de Jesús. Por ejemplo, es por su fe que la mujer con hemorragia se cura. Cuando falta la fe, Jesús no puede curar; lo vemos después de su rechazo en Nazaret.

Una vez que ha recuperado la vista, Bartimeo sigue a Jesús en su camino a Jerusalén. Es importante notar que Bartimeo llama a Jesús usando palabras de fe: "Hijo de David". Este es el título usado para el Mesías judío: este debe ser un descendiente del rey David. Como Marcos nos ha mostrado en los últimos domingos, Jesús será el Mesías de una manera que será difícil de aceptar y comprender para muchos. Jesús se mostrará a sí mismo como el Mesías a través de su sufrimiento y muerte, no por su poder y gloria, estos se manifestarán más tarde, al final de los tiempos. Es a través de la entrega a Él que podemos ser capaces de ver un poder que trasciende la muerte misma.

¡Que Él nos dé una semana bendecida!

Our last week Collection was $6,633.00 for St. Gabriel and $3,00.00 for St. Joseph, which gives a total of $9,633.00 for the entire parish. Thank you very much for your generosity.

The Cardinal's Appeal is to support the Cardinal's pastoral care at the Archdiocesan level. Whereas Renew and Rebuild is to help the Parish to carry out its own projects. We count on your generosity and thank you Recordemos que la Campana del Cardenal es para apoyar la pastoral del Cardenal a nivel de la Arquidiócesis. Mientras que Renovar y Reconstruir es para ayudar la Parroquia a realizar sus propios proyectos. Contamos con su generosidad.
