What would Christmas be without the creche, also known as the nativity or manger scene? Yet this tradition did not exist prior to 1223. It was the expressed desire of St. Francis of Assisi to be able to "see" the Christ child, and the Holy Family, to reenact the story of God's great love for mankind in the Incarnation of the Son of God as recorded in St. Luke's gospel. This event was attended not only by his fellow friars but people all throughout the region of the tiny town of Greccio, Italy who arrived by torchlight to witness the wonder of this first living nativity. Recorded by the friars, it has given us the visual focal point for our preparation and celebration of Christmas so deeply tied to all Christian denominations for many hundreds of years.

And did you know - that every year - Franciscans all over the world hold special Creche services whereby music and the spoken words from the records of that time are combined to recreate that moment so desired by St. Francis?

You are warmly invited to the Korban Fraternity's Creche Service to be held at St. Joseph's Church in Rockville at 2 pm on January 16th. When the rest of the world has packed away their nativities, please join this local secular Franciscan chapter in continuing awe and celebration of the mystery of God's great love for us revealed in Bethlehem that holy night.
