BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Mass Intentions

7:30 a.m. Monday 01/10 Kevin Hannon
7:30 a.m. Tuesday 01/11 Mary Beaton
7:30 a.m. Wednesday 01/12 John Burke
7:30 a.m. Thursday 01/13 Frank P. McCoy and the deceased members of the McCoy family
7:30 a.m. Friday 01/14 Mark Fandrich
7:30 a.m. Saturday 01/15 José Santos

Kindly remember in your prayers those who have died, especially Christopher Costa, Arthur F. LaTulippe, Jr., Barbara Lavallo, David G. McElroy, and all whose anniversaries occur at this time.

Dear Friends,

Today's Feast of the Lord's Baptism signals the official "end" of the Christmas Season. This is the last Sunday we will see the Christmas flowers, Creche, and decorations. Now we plunge back into the "Ordinary Season" - but only until Ash Wednesday on March 2nd. As one of my professor's would say, "There is nothing ordinary about Ordinary Time." We are urged during this period to reflect on all we have lived and celebrated from the beginning of Advent until this Celebration of the Lord's Baptism. How have I rightly celebrated the Lord's birth...How can I insert Christmas into my daily life, now that all the lights are put away? During this time of Winter darkness/storminess/coldness...can I see fit to keep the light of Christmas alive so as to ward off that darkness until Springtime?

We are in the beginning phase of the parish listening sessions as part of the SYNOD PROCESS. Have you filled out your questionnaire pertinent to the make up of our families, etc. The first of the listening sessions will be coming up on Sunday, January 29th. Perhaps your involvement in the SYNOD might help ward off the Winter dreariness and connect with some fellow parishioners to make the dreariness go by?

*Something to think about....?
Father Jim*

NEW LECTORS FOR THE PARISH

As you know we've been inviting new lectors (readers) to serve at mass for the last several months. There will be a training session on TUESDAY, JANUARY 18th at 7pm in the church. We'll discuss methods, delivery of the Word of God, schedules, etc. Veteran lectors are invited also

NEW EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF THE EUCHARISTS

Several parishioners also have come forward and expressed interest in distributing Holy Communion at parish masses, as well as to the homebound. A training session and discussion with questions will take place on TUESDAY, JANUARY 25th at 7pm in the church. New Eucharistic Ministers who signed up...as well as veterans...are welcome to be present. A history of this ministry will be presented as well as the proper way to administer Holy Communion will be offered.

PARISH NECROLOGY

A parish necrology is a listing of the anniversaries of those parish members who have gone before us – so we ask that you keep these folks in your prayers, particularly on the anniversary of their death.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen
