OUR MISSION STATEMENT

Holy Name Parish is a family of believers aware of the saving power of the Holy Name of Jesus and the protection of the Mother of God. We are guided in our life's journey by the wisdom of the Scriptures, the leadership of the Holy Father, the teachings of the Church, and nourished by the strength of the sacraments. Our concern about the needs of all our family members is deep and sincere, especially about the formation of youth. All this requires the effective cooperation of all members with the blessings of God.

This moment is a crucial turning point in our parish history, as we emerge from the pandemic. For our 5 daily and 4 weekend parish Masses, as well as our many funeral Masses and our devotions, our parish needs lectors, servers, Eucharistic ministers, prayer-leaders and weekday sacristans to help make our liturgical life flow smoothly. Some of you, I earnestly hope, will be taking back your pre-Covid roles. Training will be provided to those who step forward to assist for the first time. A parish is greatly enhanced by its lay participants, and our parish has long had a good record of generous volunteers. Let's keep the tradition going strong. Particular gratitude goes to those who have discerned that it is time to step back from long and steady service.

Our parish is in the midst of a search for a new music director, as we give thanks for the long and expert service of Tom Manguem, recently retired. We have received quite a few applications, and our volunteers on the Search Committee will be considering them over the next week or two. Let's hope that a talented and committed music minister will be joining us fairly soon. We are also hoping to employ a part-time facilities manager, to be focused on supervising the upkeep of our many buildings, grounds, systems, service providers, etc., to keep our property in good shape. With the funds received from the sale of the 12 Church St. parcel, our parish should be in a better position to afford to move forward with that position. Our current parish and school staff, all so hard-working, would benefit from the addition of the new and equally dedicated personnel to join their ranks; our continuing em-

I was thinking... In Mater Dolorosa Church, the parish of my youth, we celebrated. We celebrated sacramental milestones with huge family parties. We celebrated holy days, the big ones like Christmas Eve with Wilia, a family dinner followed by the Pastelka, Midnight Mass; and the smaller ones like Assumption, with the faithful bringing the bounty of their gardens to be blessed. We celebrated holidays with community: Washington's birthday weekend (not Presidents' Day yet) was the time for the parish bazaar held in the school cafeteria (our parish had no hall). And before Labor Day, we celebrated our annual parish picnic in the park across the street; sprawled on the banks of the Connecticut River (we had no parish green space). Planning started shortly after the winter bazaar finished. Every organization had its task. The youth set up and were swift & strong runner; the ladies served the Polish food that the Babcias (grandmothers) cooked for days in advance; the choir and parent group coordinated kids' games, painted faces, and provided entertainment (Polish music, of course!); the men were in charge of the wheel and ran Bingo. Thinking about it now, I'm not sure who didn't work—or rather, who actually came! But the place was mobbed. We ran out of food early—the true sign of success. The entire parish pulled together married and single, widowed and couples, old and young for an exhausting day, filled with faith, food, fun, some revenue, and most importantly, community and connection. The retirees returned; the kids who moved away, like me, came back with our kids; the elders were nodded to and the new babies were blessed. We were like a huge extended family. We knew each other's grandparents; we knew each other's earliest stories. After all, for so many years, we studied and celebrated, we laughed and cried; we welcomed the babies and buried the dead—all the while praying together. Mater Dolorosa, we, were church at its best.

What exactly is church? For many years, I commissioned our Confirmation students to Build a Church. Some teams were careful to color beautiful windows; others created the highest of steeples; more than one had built a huge edifice, needing double the supplies: after all the command was simply: Build a Church. Each year, a team—maybe two—would spend their time cutting out those little connected paper dolls and laboriously gluing them into their church, with the explanation that church, the parish, is the people. They got it!

“A parish is a stable community of faithful within a particular church whose pastoral care is entrusted to a parish priest.” is the Catholic Catechism definition of a parish. Indeed, we at Holy Name are a parish: a stable community of faithful. Leadership may change, new staff replaces old staff; teens leave for college or newer horizons; young families return, bringing their babies for Baptism; and children begin school; through the it all, Holy Name, the Parish continues. We are the church; we are Holy Name Parish; we are the stable community that defines and comprises a parish.

As the pandemic is loosening its frightening grip, our church is returning to normal, opening wide its doors and rolling out the never-hidden welcome mat. We've learned new ways to connect and evangelize, we make more phone calls and we zoom. Now we welcome the opportunity and privilege of fully worshipping in person.

On September 19, our parish will gather for our third (one-year-delayed) Parish Picnic. The festivities will begin with Mass. Plans are still in the making and worker-bees are needed in every category. Mark your calendars; plan to come. Join with our parish family for a day to re-connect and catch up. While we may not offer Polish food, there will be plenty of American fare. Jump in to help; and if you can't do that, offer a ride to a parishioner who might not get here otherwise. Bring your family and invite a friend. It's never the same without you! Let us take a day to pray together, laugh together, renew our connections, and thank God for so many blessings as we break bread together at The Table and at the tables. We are the Church. We are Holy Name. We are parish at its best.

A Prayer for Our Parish Lord, God, we praise you for your goodness. We thank you for all who have served Holy Name Parish and for those continuing to lead us in worship and witness. May the inspiration and dedication of those who built this Church continue in us. May those who rejoice with us, but on another shore and in a greater light, support us and strengthen our resolve to preserve and pass on to others what we so richly enjoy. We ask all of this in the name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.
