Sunday, May 22, 2022 - Sixth Sunday of Easter

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

[Jesus said to his disciples:] "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." - Jn 14:26-27a

MISSION STATEMENT

In communion with the Roman Catholic Church throughout the world, St. Patrick Parish seeks to further the mission of Jesus Christ: that all may know God's love for them, and grow in union with God and one another. With the Sacred Liturgy at the center of our parish life, we are formed by the Word of God and strengthened by the Eucharist. We move from the table of the Lord to proclaim God's presence in our world today through a variety of ministries. Manifesting the life of the Holy Spirit in our midst, we strive to be a welcoming community where faith finds expression in service.

May 22 ~ Sixth Sunday of Easter

In our first reading, we hear more about the growing pains of the early Church. The Apostles were creating something new ~ a community of believers, disciples of Jesus Christ. There was confusion and discussion about who could be a disciple and differing opinions about what was essential to being a follower of Jesus. We hear those same discussions even today. However, first Christian did not let differences stand in their way or create divisions among them. They relied on the Spirit's prompting and on Jesus' words "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." The message today is rely on the Holy Spirit – the Advocate – who is still with us.

The story of the Stained-glass windows at St Patrick Parish

At the entrance of the church from the parking lot is the Saint Benedict Door. It features a stained-glass window of St. Benedict with the Benedictine greeting, “PAX” (peace). This window of St. Benedict, with the Abbey of Monte Cassino in the background, is a commissioned piece by the St. Patrick Parish in recognition of the large number of our parishioners who trace their family roots to the town of Cassino where St. Benedict established his monastery. This window honors our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI.

The windows in the upper section of the St. Benedict Door come from St. Aidan Parish in Brookline. They depict the Baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist, Jesus with the Children, and the Easter Sunday appearance of the Risen Christ to Mary Magdalene.

The plaza in front of the St. Benedict Door features a Shrine for the Unborn Child. The statue of Jesus with the children is a place of solace and remembrance for families who have lost children through miscarriage, stillbirth or abortion. We commend these little ones to the loving embrace of Jesus. The Shrine of the Unborn is a gift of the Stoneham Council, #489 of the Knights of Columbus. The bench at the shrine area honors Father John Mark Hannon for his long-standing commitment to the pro-life cause.

The upper section of the tower on Central Street features four stained-glass windows from St. Aidan Parish in Brookline with depictions of the Annunciation, the Agony in the Garden, St. Joseph and St. Catherine. The focus of these windows in Christian Vocation as Our Blessed Mother, at the Annunciation and Jesus, at Gethsemane challenge us with their total openness to God’s will. St. Joseph and St. Catherine of Siena represent all of the men and women of faith who have sought to discern God’s will in the course of their daily lives. The window of the Agony in the Garden has been designed as our lasting memorial to the men and women who lost their lives on September 11, 2001.

As you look to the back of our sanctuary, the beautiful oak-carved reredos is a gift from the Immaculate Conception Parish in Cambridge. The tabernacle, placed at the center of the reredos is the gift of St. Joseph Parish in Hyde Park. Providentially, the green marble base of the tabernacle coordinates perfectly with the connemara marble of our own base that includes sections of the altar rail from St. Margaret Parish in Brockton. It is possible to peer through the spiral columns of the base to view the altar stone with the relics. The relics in our church altar are those of St. John Bosco, St. Therese of Lisieux and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton.

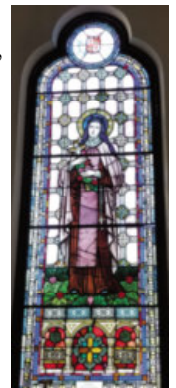

The magnificent stained-glass window in the center of the sanctuary is a ‘glimpse into heaven’ as Christ the King is surrounded by the saints and angels. This extraordinary window comes from St. Aidan Parish in Brookline.

The windows that flank the Christ the King window honor our patron, St. Patrick and St. Brigid of Kildare. There were stained-glass windows of these two saints in the sanctuary of our early church and there were statues of them enshrined in the niches of the gothic altar during a later period of time. These windows are a gift of St. Margaret of Scotland Parish in Brockton, along with the other windows of the saints that line the Pomeworth Street wall of the church. From left to right, the windows depict St. Michael the Archangel, St. James the Apostle, St. Patrick and St. Therese of Lisieux. The window of St. Michael the Archangel honors our architect, Angelo Michael Petrozelli.

Most recently, after the renovation of the lower Church, we utilized some of the stained-glass windows from our Parish Convent which was located on Pomeworth St.

Please take an opportunity to view the beautiful stained-glass windows which have been placed in the hallway to the lower Church as well as on in the altar area.

Dear St. Patrick Community,

For fourteen years I have served St. Patrick School in a multitude of capacities: Reading Teacher, Spanish Teacher, Middle School ELA/Religion and Social Studies Teacher, Assistant Principal, and Principal. The most honored of these roles has been as Principal. In the past four years, enrollment has increased over 40%, a second 4 year old preschool program opened, a summer program was started, a new STEAM program was created, music class was brought back to middle school, Spanish moved to include K-5, a Development Director was hired, Chromebooks were made available for most grades, and we managed to successfully sustain in person instruction during a global pandemic. We have made tremendous progress as a school. I have met my best friends here, been honored to work with some of the most talented and dedicated teachers, and loved every second with the children as if they were my own. I have given my all to St. Patrick School. After much prayer, deep reflection, and many conversations with my family, I have made the difficult decision to leave as Principal for the simple reason to have more time to focus on my health and family. God has called me on a new path. While I do not know what will be next for me, I know that I carry the love and support of the hundreds of families I have met throughout my time here and the amazing school and parish staff that I served. I also would not leave the school unless I felt confident with the next leader's ability to foster and grow all of our accomplishments. I am thrilled that the next principal of the school will be our own Assistant Principal, Dr. Laurie Sullivan. Dr. Sullivan will take over upon my departure at the end of June.

I cannot thank this community enough, especially Father Mario, for all the support and love that I have received. We have endured a lot together. I hope to continue to see many of you at weekly Mass. I ask that you continue to keep me in your prayers as you will be in mine, I will miss you all dearly, and I know that St. Patrick School will continue to Rise Up!

Invites you to join us for

"This story of an impossible healing will not only stay with you for a very long time, but challenge you to be the person God called you to be."

Join us as Artie Boyle shares his inspiring story with us. He was given 6 months to live because of terminal cancer. After his pilgrimage to Medjugorje, he was found to be miraculously healed when he returned home to Boston. Francis James McGovern, M.D., of Massachusetts General Hospital said: "With the severity and progression of Artie's disease, metastatic renal cell carcinoma, it is difficult for medical science to explain why he is alive today. But, every time I see him, I am sure there is a God. This story proves there is always hope. I am a believer."

Hingham resident Arthur P. "Artie Boyle" is a Dorchester native, and has been married to his high school sweetheart, Judy, for 47 years. They have 13 wonderful children and 24 grandchildren. He's been a successful businessman, amateur hockey player and coach.

Perhaps most telling of his character, though, is that he is a man of deep faith – a practicing, devout Catholic.

MISERICORDIA PROJECT Education of the poorest in Kigali, Rwanda

Fr. Marcel Uwineza, S.J. is once again appealing to you all to support Misericordia Project; an initiative he started in 2012 together with a group of seven committed lay Rwandan Catholics to help educate children from the poorest and most vulnerable families (mostly girls), in the outskirts of Kigali in Rwanda. The project contributed to their formal education and professional training by paying their tuition and basic school needs. Misericordia targets mostly post-primary schoolgirls and the youth who find themselves in the streets because of poverty. A second collection will be taken up at all Masses next weekend. Thank you for your generosity!

All Night Eucharistic Vigil Fri., June 3rd ~ Sat., June 4th.

This month, the all-night Eucharistic vigil will be held at St Patrick Church,

The vigil will begin with Mass of the Sacred Heart celebrated by Fr. Joe Keville at 9:00 pm. The intention of this vigil is in gratitude to God and all the Cardinals, Bishops and Priests of this archdiocese and for those attending and supporting this apostolate. During this Mass a relic of the True Cross, and relic of the beatified Carlo Acutis will be offered to the people attending.

During the coffee break, the exhibit of Eucharistic miracles, video of "Veil Removed", and the Carlo Acutis film will be shown.
