Good Shepherd Church

I should have written this particular note a while ago but it is today that I am reflecting on the topic. The topic is "Social Media" in the life of the parish. Several parishioners have put a good deal of time and planning into the implementation of social media as a means of communicating with parishioners. The parish has used FLOCKNOTE for several years now and we subscribe to FORMED.ORG. The parish also has its own website and a FACEBOOK page and a YOUTUBE site. What we really do not know is: Do these media enhance our ability to serve our parishioners and do they provide worthwhile assistance in your spiritual life? How can we use social media more effectively as a faith-building instrument? What have we not thought about that might be helpful?

We would really like to know. So please, take a piece of paper and write down your thoughts. Obviously, if you never use the internet you may not be very invested in these questions. But maybe if your neighbor knew there was something you would enjoy watching or in which you would enjoy participating you could use their computer. Or -- and yes someday we will not be worried about COVID -- perhaps we could arrange movie nights or nights for other programs in the parish itself. We are open to all possibilities that will strengthen our relationship with the Lord and our ability to do the Lord's will.

So, please, write something down and put it in the collection basket or leave it in the rectory.

Gospel Meditation for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Christmas Season ends with the feast of the Epiphany and the Baptism of the Lord, which is always preceded by Advent. Now, we begin Ordinary Time. There will be seven Sundays of this short period, which ends the day before Ash Wednesday. The second stage of this Time is longer, beginning after Pentecost Sunday and ending until the Saturday before the first Sunday of Advent. What is this Ordinary Time for Christians? What does the Liturgy of this time ask of us? Well, it is very simple, it asks us to meditate on the mystery of Christ. In his invitation to participate in his Kingdom with joy and true commitment. The Church has a diversity of charisms, where we can give ourselves to the service of others.

For example, today's Gospel invites us to participate together with Mary and Jesus in the wedding feast at Cana. And it is at that wedding, where Jesus performs his first miracle at the request of his Mother Mary. The dialogue between them comes due to the lack of wine. Therefore, the bride and groom were in a predicament for this reason. This story is very deep, the fact that Jesus participates in the wedding has the meaning of God's wedding with humanity, which later will be the Blood of Jesus shed for the salvation of humanity. "Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory. For the wedding day of the Lamb has come" (Revelation 19,7). Also, in the first reading the prophet makes it clear: "No more shall you be called 'Forsaken,' nor your land called 'Desolate,' but you shall be called 'My Delight is in her,' and your land 'Espoused.' For the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be espoused" (Isaiah 62,4).

Iglesia del Buen Pastor

Debería haber escrito esta nota en particular hace un tiempo, pero es hoy que estoy reflexionando sobre el tema. El tema es las "Redes Sociales" en la vida de la parroquia. Varios feligreses han dedicado mucho tiempo y planificación a la implementación de las redes sociales como medio de comunicación con los feligreses. La parroquia ha utilizado FLOCK-NOTE ya por varios años y estamos suscritos a FORMED.ORG. La parroquia también tiene su propia página web y una página de FACEBOOK y un sitio de YOUTUBE. Lo que realmente no sabemos es: ¿Estos medios mejoran nuestra habilidad de servir a nuestros feligreses y brindan una asistencia valiosa en su vida espiritual? ¿Cómo podemos usar las redes sociales de manera más efectiva como un instrumento de edificación de fe? ¿En qué no hemos pensado que podría ser útil?

Realmente nos gustaría saber. Así que, por favor, tome una hoja de papel y escriba sus pensamientos. Obviamente, si nunca usa el internet, es posible que no esté muy interesado en estas preguntas. Pero tal vez si su vecino supiera que hay algo que disfrutaría ver o en lo que disfrutaría participar, podría usar su computadora. O, y sí, algún día no estaremos preocupados por COVID, tal vez podríamos organizar noches de cine o noches para otros programas en la parroquia. Estamos abiertos a todas las posibilidades que fortalecerán nuestra relación con el Señor y nuestra capacidad de hacer la voluntad del Señor.

Así que, por favor, escriba algo y póngalo en la canasta de la colecta o déjelo en la rectoría.

Meditación Evangélica del Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Con la fiesta de la Epifanía y el Bautismo del Señor se cierra el Tiempo de Navidad, que siempre es precedido por el Adviento. Ahora, comenzamos el Tiempo Ordinario. Serán siete domingos de este corto periodo, que termina el día anterior al Miércoles de Ceniza. La segunda etapa de este Tiempo es más larga, da comienzo después del domingo de Pentecostés y termina hasta el sábado antes del primer domingo de Adviento. ¿Para qué sirve a los cristianos este Tiempo Ordinario? ¿Qué nos pide la Liturgia de este tiempo? Pues, es muy sencillo, nos pide meditar en el misterio de Cristo. En su invitación de participar en su Reino con alegría y compromiso verdadero. La Iglesia tiene diversidad de carismas, donde podemos entregarnos al servicio de los demás.

Por ejemplo, hoy el Evangelio nos invita a participar junto con María y Jesús en las bodas de Caná. Y es ahí en esa boda, donde Jesús hace su primer milagro a petición de su Madre María. El diálogo de ambos viene a ser a causa de la falta de vino. Por lo tanto, los novios estaban en apuros por esta razón. Este relato es muy profundo, el hecho de que Jesús participa en la boda, tiene como significado la boda de Dios con la humanidad, que más adelante será la Sangre de Jesús derramada para la salvación de la humanidad. “Alegrémonos, regocijémonos démosle honor y gloria, porque han llegado las bodas del Cordero” (Apocalipsis 19,7). También, el profeta en la primera lectura lo pone claro: “No te llamaran más ‘Abandonada’, ni a tu tierra ‘Desolada’, sino que te llamaran ‘Mi Preferida’ y a tu tierra ‘Desposada’. Porque Yavé se complacerá en ti y tu tierra tendrá un esposo” (Isaías 62,4).
