"I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Gospel Summary

In this gospel, Peter named Jesus as the Messiah. Later Jesus named Peter as the foundation of the earthly Church and gave him the keys of power. Peter was to be like the steward of a palace making decisions for the Church community. God promised to stand behind Peter's decisions.

Reflection for Families

Sometimes it seems like an awesome responsibility, but our children look to us as the rock on which they build many things: their trust in other people, their hope, and certainly their faith in God's promises. The way our children see us respond to others, what they hear us say, and what they see us do, will shape who Jesus is in their lives. Taking a moment to pray for guidance and wisdom before we act or react to a situation may be just enough to let Jesus in.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Take this opportunity to learn more about our pope. Find photographs of the Pope, where he lives, who helps him, and information suitable to the ages of all family members. Help each person understand that our pope has followed Peter as leader and decision-maker for the Catholic Church. While all people are human and capable of error, God promises to be with us in our responsibilities.

BISHOP'S APPEAL

Because of the Covid crisis the Bishop's Appeal will be campaigned differently than the way it has been in the last number of years. This year the notices and gift envelopes will be sent to you directly and they will not go through our church office. All donations and gifts to this "Diocesan Appeal" will be credited to St. Joseph's when you submit your gift to the appeal in Albany. We hope that you will give as generously as you have in the past and thank you for supporting this appeal each year.

Parish Poor Box:

Please remember the poor and the needy!

During the postponement of masses, if you have anything you wish to donate to the poor box you may be drop it off at the church office. If you wish to make a monetary gift please make your checks out to the Fort Edward food Pantry. Your gifts are very much needed, especially at this time, to help the less fortunate in our community. You will be truly amazed to know how many people call and stop in for food or shelter or other basic needs. Our help is much needed at this time. Thank You

Memorials are given in memory of loved ones who have died, to remember to keep them in our prayers and help the needs of our church. This week we are asked to remember:
