Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God's mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God's mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God's mercy, allow the wind of God's presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace.

What's life all about?

To find clues as to the meaning of life, we first look at ourselves. Who am I? Is there more to us than meets the eye? Check out our All Saints Parish website and Facebook for information on episodes called THE SEARCH.

Our community changed lives this Lent!
THANK YOU!

EXPLORING A PATH TO PEACE FOR ADULTS

The absence of peace has devastating consequences of escalating inner and/or interpersonal conflict. As Christians, we are called to immerse ourselves in Peace, but HOW do we do that? Are you willing to open your heart and mind to begin to explore a 'Path to Peace'? Are you willing to commit to practices that will strengthen your journey to peace?

The Easter Season (Easter Sunday - Pentecost Sunday) provides an ideal period for acquiring knowledge for honest, personal reflection, and for strengthening or developing new habits to support a personal exploration of a path to peace.

INVITATION: From now until Pentecost, read the daily Gospel and reflect on the Scripture using Lectio Divina or another reflection method (see links on Parish website or Facebook page).

INVITATION: Easter Sunday was the anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Watch a video that reviews and honors Dr. King's own path to peace (see link and reflection questions on Parish website or Facebook page).

INVITATION: Read or watch Dr. King's Nobel Peace Prize acceptance speech (see links and reflection questions on Parish website or Facebook page).

FMI, please email Amy Ford and Debby Carroll: Amy.Ford@portlanddiocese.org.

COMMUNITY

The Salvation Army Bath-Brunswick Prepares to Launch Anti-Trafficking Program

The Salvation Army-Bath Brunswick is excited to announce our new anti-trafficking program that will be launching soon! The program is called CROWNS, and it stands for Cherished, Respected, Original, Worthy, Needed, and Strong. These are qualities that we believe all human beings possess. And we hope that with love and support, survivors of exploitation would know that they embody these qualities too, no matter what situation they are in. Our goal is to be there for all survivors in any way they need, so that they know someone believes in them and will help them through whatever they are going through and hoping to accomplish. We will serve survivors of trafficking and exploitation with long-term case management and immediate assistance through a pantry of non-food items.

We would love to invite our community to join us in the local fight against trafficking and support this initiative! Before we launch our program, we are asking for your support in prayer and in donations to our pantry of non-food items that will be freely given to any survivor of trafficking in our community. More specifically, please pray that the Lord would continue to open doors for us to serve and partner with others in this mission.

Regarding donations, we are looking for new clothing items (such as socks, underwear, and warm clothes/layers), toiletries, backpacks, and gift cards to local grocery and convenience stores. Follow and like our Facebook page (CROWNS- The Salvation Army Bath) to see a complete list of donations we need! We are so grateful to All Saints Parish for partnering with us in the Lord's mission for justice and hope.

BICYCLES WANTED

Mark Wheeler, parishioner at Grace Church in Bath, is collecting unwanted bicycles for asylum seekers and new Mainers. He tunes them up and delivers them either directly to the folks who need them, in Bath, the Brunswick Landing, or to the Gear Hub in Portland.

The Gear Hub, a non-profit organization, has a very good program in cooperation with the Bicycle Coalition of Maine to get bicycles to asylum seekers.
