The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

Thank you all for your encouragement, donations, and letters of thanks and praise to Joe. Joe plans to visit St. Ambrose Church to share this good news (the date will be announced soon). St. Patrick's History Museum News

Museum Open House & Historic Church Tours

On Sunday, July 4th, St. Patrick's History Museum will host an open house in the Museum, located in the Parish Center, from 10-11am and after the 11am Mass. Please stop by and see some old and new artifacts that reflect the History of Catholicism in Maine as well as here in the local area. Information will also be available regarding the restoration of our historic Church.

In addition, tours will be given of our historic Church. Come learn about the incredible significance of this amazing "little Church" and how important it is to preserve it for future generations to come.

Beginning on July 3rd & 4th, St. Patrick's History Museum will have on display in the Narthex, a photograph of the interior of our historic Church. With your help it is our goal to create a visual photographic collage illustrating its importance. The photograph was taken during this past year and is titled "The Empty Church." We ask that you take a piece of provided paper and write on it what our Church means to you. Then attach it to the border, thereby filling our empty Church with your words. Examples will illustrate the procedure. Please help us as we continue to illuminate the historic significance of our "little Church."

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

Sharing the Gospel: In today's Gospel reading, Jairus asked Jesus to come to his house. The daughter of Jairus was dying, and he knew Jesus could make her well again. While they were walking to his house, she died. Did Jesus give up? No way! Jesus told Jairus not to be afraid, but to keep believing that Jesus could help her. Jesus was even stronger than death. He walked into the house, held her hand, and told her to get up. Jesus admired the faith Jairus had. Prayer: Dear God, you are even stronger than death. Help me to have faith in you like Jairus had. Amen. Something to Draw: Draw a picture of Jesus and the daughter of Jairus holding hands.

BICYCLES WANTED

Mark Wheeler, parishioner at Grace Church in Bath, is collecting unwanted bicycles for asylum seekers and new Mainers. He tunes them up and delivers them either directly to the folks who need them, in Bath, the Brunswick Landing, or to the Gear Hub in Portland.

The Gear Hub, a non-profit organization, has a very good program in cooperation with the Bicycle Coalition of Maine to get bicycles to asylum seekers.
