Holy Habits: 20 New Year's Resolutions

Goodbye 2021! It has been rough. The year actually incentivized making a good New Year's resolution. And by good, I mean holy. The world has always let us down – more so in 2021 – but we know that God has something better for us. Set goals for self-improvement in this world – such as exercise or quitting smoking – but then, go deeper, down to your soul, and consider ways to grow stronger and closer to God in 2022 Here are some ideas.

1. Give a return on your gifts. When using a gift, say a prayer for the giver. For instance, I say a Hail Mary for the person who gave me a geranium every time I water it. When using clothing or jewelry someone gave to you, say a pray for the giver.
2. Commit random acts of prayer. Pick someone to pray for throughout your day. It could a politician you hear promoting abortion, or someone in a passing car, or a shopper in the grocery line. If someone cuts you off in traffic, pray for them, and your anger will subside – and you will both be blessed.
3. See Jesus more often. Make a weekly appointment to visit Jesus in the tabernacle. The more time you spend with Jesus, the more he can give to you.
4. Bounce-back. As kids we used to say: "I'm rubber, and you're glue; whatever you say bounces off of me and sticks to you." Think of God telling us: "I'm God, and I made you; whatever you do for others comes back to you." Jesus told us: "The measure with which you measure will be measured back to you" (Matthew 7:10).
5. Become invisible. Look for invisible ways to do good. Skip over a parking spot near the door and pray for the one who will park there instead of you. Put away a shopping cart and pray for the one who left it and the next shopper to use it. "Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you" (Matthew 6:6).
6. Read the Word. Put a Bible somewhere convenient, and open it up once a day.
7. Call the manager and praise an employee. When you've been given good service, call the manager and report it. It will make that employee's day. For a bonus, say a prayer for them.
8. Ask God to arrange your seating and conversations. I know people (and myself) who have had amazing experiences asking God to direct who we sit next to at events or on planes and to direct our conversations (even when socially distanced). Try it, and I think you will be surprised.
9. Fast daily. Jesus fasted for 40 days before beginning his ministry. To integrate fasting into a daily sacrifice, take something out at meals. Skip the fries or ketchup, or don't put butter on your bread. I'm not suggesting omitting a more serious fast, but why not tap into the power daily?
10. Enjoy the wait. What do you do while waiting for the microwave or while waiting for someone to answer their phone? Turn inconsequential moments into prayers of consequence.
11. End your purchase with a surprise. "Thank you, and have a good day" is so ordinary that cashiers barely hear it. Try saying, "Thank you, and God bless you" with heartfelt expression. They will hear you, usually smile and sometimes respond: "God bless you, too!"
12. Use sirens and flashing lights as prayer signals. Pray for the person needing the ambulance speeding by and also for whomever is at the end of a police call. For whatever reasons, they could use some extra prayers.
13. Forget about yourself. Humility leads to holiness. Avoid correcting others if it doesn't matter. Be last in line. Thank God for failure, and ask him to lead you to what he wants for you.
14. Talk to people no one can see. Get to know the saint of the day, and ask him or her to pray for you.
15. Give away something you love. It's fine to donate the things you don't use, but occasionally give away a favorite item. It's the difference between Cain and Abel's offerings to God.
16. Wear a crucifix. It's a silent witness to Jesus' love and sacrifice.
17. Fast some more. Take a day to give up something like coffee, wearing jewelry or makeup, going on social media, or whatever.
18. Have a no-complaint day. Dedicate an entire day each week to not complaining. Weather counts.
19. Do a house blessing. Ask a priest to bless your house in 2022.
20. Give unexpected gifts. Release someone from a debt, anonymously give a gift card or money to someone on hard times, or send a pizza or baked goods to a police station or to a nursing home or to hospital employees or to a big family.

Have a happy and holy 2022!

Gospel Meditation

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

Family Movie Nights

Friday, January 14th at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall at Holy Family, Old Town.

We will be showing The Overcomer. This is a faith based sports drama. The central theme is forgiveness. Other themes include compassion, humility, and communication. It is about a student who feels tormented by her parent's poor decisions. With the development of faith and prayer, she finds the faith, courage and strength to persevere and discovers that the Lord is her strength and is with her through it all. Those that help her grow in her faith, (a coach and his family) also grow deeper in their love of the Lord.

The Overcomer is a movie that would be most appreciated by youth from the age of 10 years and older. All ages are invited but it may be a story line that will not engage children younger than 10 years old.

Ladies of St. Ann After-Christmas Party

Are you missing Christmas Parties? Do you still have the joy of the season and no place to share? Come to the Ladies of St. Ann After-Christmas Christmas Party on Tuesday, January 4th at 5:30 pm in the Parish Hall at St. Ann, Bradley. All women (let's be honest we aren't all ladies) of the Parish are welcome for good food, good fun and, especially, good company. Look forward to seeing you there. Merry Christmas. By the way: there is no gift exchange, you do not have to figure out what to get because nobody really needs another scented candle this close to Christmas, however we will be collecting money for the Mercy Focus on Haiti. Look forward to seeing you there. Merry Christmas.

Community Super Update

We are sorry to announce that the Community Suppers will be postponed for a few months because of the upsurge with Covid-19. We will be looking forward to starting them again when things settle down. We wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and blessed New Year.

RCIA

There will be no RCIA discussion on Sunday 1/2 in celebration of New Year's weekend.

Daughters of Isabella

The Daughters of Isabella will be meeting on Wednesday, January 5th at 6 pm in the Parish Hall at Holy Family, Old Town

Hymnal Fundraising Update

We are currently at 501/600 hymnals with dedications! (as of December 23).

This is 84% of our total goal.

Per church we have:

292/300 in Holy Family
82/150 in Our Lady of Wisdom
87/100 in St. Ann's (Bradley)
34/50 in St. Ann's (Penobscot Nation)

Space is filling up, so make sure to get your donations in!

Pray for the New Year

God, thank you for a new year. May everyone in our family be willing to begin anew with a clean slate. We know that you are always ready to forgive us. Help us to be willing to forgive ourselves and to forgive one another.

As we begin a new year, remind us of our truest values and our deepest desires. Help us to live in the goodness that comes from doing what you want us to do. Help us to put aside anxiety about the future and the past, so that we might live in peace with you now, one day at a time.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the Week

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

Everyday Stewardship

The Light of the Moon

If you own a television that has been turned on at any point in the last month or so, chances are you've caught at least a scene or two of the 1946 classic film "It's a Wonderful Life."

If you're not familiar with the movie, it follows the life of George Bailey from childhood through adulthood. A dreamer by nature, George has big plans for himself that involve world exploration and adventure – but family and community obligations keep him tethered to the same spot on the map, leading an altogether ordinary life.

One of the most memorable scenes from that movie is of George dancing with his sweetheart Mary while they sing "Buffalo Gals – Won't you come out tonight/And dance by the light of the moon?"

That lyric always catches my ear. Of course, the moon doesn't have any light of its own. All the moon has is the ability to reflect the light that shines upon it.

The same holds for us, doesn't it? Our stewardship is purely a reflection of the grace granted to us by another. "Upon you the LORD shines," writes Isaiah, "and over you appears his glory." Every good action we will ever take begins in the mind of God. The fact that we have the honor of carrying it out on His behalf is a beautiful gift. It is God that makes our ordinary lives extraordinary.

In the end of the movie, George Bailey realizes that he had a far greater life because, instead of being the hero of his own story, he allowed himself to reflect goodness onto others.

Remember – the magi didn't chart their own course. They merely followed the star.

– Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Questions of the Week for Scripture Reflection

Isaiah 60:1-6

The prophet Isaiah foresaw a time of great joy for Israel when nations and kings would come to Israel praising the Lord. How do you show gratitude to the Lord for the great joys of your life?

Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

It was revealed to Paul that God intended to save all people (Jews and Gentiles) through his Son, Jesus Christ. Paul tried to convey the significance of this revelation to the Ephesians by using the language of "coheirs" and "copartners." What does this language signal to you?

Matthew 2:1-12

The visit of the magi is one of the most well-known stories from the Gospel infancy narratives. It was an event that manifested God's revelation of His newborn Son to the world. It also foreshadowed the threat that some would experience because of Jesus. How does Jesus challenge the status quo even today?

Christian Stewardship

*"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace."
 (1 Peter 4:10)*

According to the 1992 U.S. Bishops' Pastoral Letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, a Christian steward is defined as a disciple of Jesus who "Receives God's gifts gratefully, cultivates them responsibly, shares them lovingly in justice with others and returns them with increase to the Lord." Stewardship is about more than just "supporting the work of the parish," - it is a way of life and is better understood within the context of personal conversion, mission, outreach, and evangelization. Christian disciples are motivated to share their time, talent, treasure, and assets with the Church and other worthy causes from a deep sense of gratitude and in a planned, proportionate and sacrificial manner.

For those actively engaged as Christian stewards in our parish, thank you for sharing your gifts with the people of God.

Want to make a difference in Someone's Life?

We are looking for shared living providers in your area to provide a home and support to an adult with intellectual disabilities.

When you provide someone with an opportunity to become part of your home and family, while providing them care, you will receive a generous tax-free stipend and room and board.
