Cathedral of Saint Joseph, Manchester, New Hampshire

From the Desk of Father Jason

Dear Friends,

Pope Francis released on St. Joseph's feast day his annual message for the World Day of Vocations, which is celebrated this Sunday. As the theme of the message is "Saint Joseph: The Dream of Vocation," the text is a great tool for our prayer on this feast day. The reflection is not only for those discerning a vocation to religious or priestly life, but for everyone trying to hear and accept God's call in their own daily life. Here are a few excerpts from the Pope's full letter which can be found online:

God looks on the heart (cf. 1 Sam 16:7), and in Saint Joseph he recognized the heart of a father, able to give and generate life in the midst of daily routines. Vocations have this same goal: to beget and renew lives every day. The Lord desires to shape the hearts of fathers and mothers: hearts that are open, capable of great initiatives, generous in self-giving, compassionate in comforting anxieties and steadfast in strengthening hopes. The priesthood and the consecrated life greatly need these qualities nowadays, in times marked by fragility but also by the sufferings due to the pandemic, which has spawned uncertainties and fears about the future and the very meaning of life. Saint Joseph comes to meet us in his gentle way, as one of "the saints next door". At the same time, his strong witness can guide us on the journey.

Saint Joseph suggests to us three key words for each individual's vocation. The first is dream. Everyone dreams of finding fulfilment in life. Saint Joseph let himself be guided by his dreams without hesitation. Why? Because his heart was directed to God; it was already inclined towards him. A small indication was enough for his watchful "inner ear" to recognize God's voice. This applies also to our calling: God does not like to reveal himself in a spectacular way, pressuring our freedom. He conveys his plans to us with gentleness. He does not overwhelm us with dazzling visions but quietly speaks in the depths of our heart, drawing near to us and speaking to us through our thoughts and feelings. In this way, as he did with Saint Joseph, he sets before us profound and unexpected horizons.

A second word marks the journey of Saint Joseph and that of vocation: service. The Gospels show how Joseph lived entirely for others and never for himself. For Saint Joseph, service – as a concrete expression of the gift of self – did not remain simply a high ideal, but became a rule for daily life. He strove to find and prepare a place where Jesus could be born; he did his utmost to protect him from Herod's wrath by arranging a hasty journey into Egypt; he immediately returned to Jerusalem when Jesus was lost; he supported his family by his work, even in a foreign land. I like to think, then, of Saint Joseph, the protector of Jesus and of the Church, as the protector of vocations.

The third characteristic of Saint Joseph's daily life and our Christian vocation, is fidelity. Joseph is the "righteous man" (Mt 1:19) who daily perseveres in quietly serving God and his plans. At a particularly difficult moment in his life, he thoughtfully considered what to do (cf. v. 20). He did not let himself be hastily pressured. He did not yield to the temptation to act rashly, simply following his instincts or living for the moment. Instead, he pondered things patiently. For a vocation – like life itself – matures only through daily fidelity. How is such fidelity nurtured? In the light of God's own faithfulness. The first words that Saint Joseph heard in a dream were an invitation not to be afraid, because God remains ever faithful to his promises: "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid" (Mt 1:20). Do not be afraid: these words the Lord also addresses to you, dear sister, and to you, dear brother, whenever you feel that, even amid uncertainty and hesitation, you can no longer delay your desire to give your life to him. He repeats these words when, perhaps amid trials and misunderstandings, you seek to follow his will every day, wherever you find yourself. They are words you will hear anew, at every step of your vocation, as you return to your first love. They are a refrain accompanying all those who – like Saint Joseph – say yes to God with their lives, through their fidelity each day.

May Saint Joseph, protector of vocations, accompany you with his fatherly heart!

Francis

Parish Registration

You may or may not know that St. Joseph Cathedral has a dual role, it serves as our local Bishop's church, and it is also a parish. Having this dual role makes St. Joseph's different than any other Catholic Church in the state. As the Cathedral, we are blessed to host many extra liturgical ceremonies and welcome many guests to our church. As a parish, we are blessed to have many people who call St. Joseph's their home parish, along with visitors who join us for daily or Sunday Masses.

If you have been attending Mass at St. Joseph's as a "visitor" and would like to make this your "Home Parish" we would love to have you as a parishioner. Registering as a parishioner is easy, simply visit our parish website at www.stjosephcathedralnh.org and complete the registration form found under "Newcomers."

Thank you and God Bless you.

Resurrection of the Dead

This Easter Season, we celebrate as Christians have for over 2,000 years the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. After Jesus was taken down from the cross His body was prepared and He was placed in a grave called the Holy Sepulchre. As Catholics we profess each Sunday that we look forward to the resurrection of the dead! But have you ever thought about that place where you will rise?

Since 1848 St. Joseph Cemetery has provided a sacred burial place for those who have died and await the resurrection from the dead. Visit our cemetery on Donald Street and contact us if you have any questions about our cemetery.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Today, April 25, the Church throughout the world prays in a particular way for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- ◆ Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and deceased.
- ◆ Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- ◆ Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- ◆ Pray a rosary for more men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Upcoming Confirmation and First Holy Communion

Please pray for the children of the parish who will celebrate the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion on May 16. They are all continuing in formation with their parents. Please remember in your prayers: Roger, Jax, Robert, Clare, Elizabeth, Claire, Elena, Carter, Wyatt, Preydin, Scovia, Lily, Jackson, Karl, Enzo and Liz-Kenza. You may also pick up a prayer card in the church.

Ever loving God, bless the children of this parish.

Open their hearts and minds to Your love.

Help them to trust in You and walk with Your son, Jesus.

Give them compassion and a desire to serve You.

Help them grow in faith and love, and show them that Your ways give more life than the ways of the world.

Let their words and thoughts be loving gifts to You.

Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide.

May the Gifts of the Holy Spirit sustain them as they navigate the world and learn to make decisions.

Send down your Holy Spirit to make our whole parish bold witnesses, prayerful and joyous in the family, in the Church, and in the world.

Help their families to have open hearts to one another, and may they find within the Church the support necessary for the formation of their children.

We ask all of this through Jesus Christ, Your Son and our Savior. Amen.

St. Joseph: A Working Father

“An aspect of Saint Joseph that has been emphasized from the time of the first social Encyclical, Pope Leo XIII’s Rerum Novarum, is his relation to work. Saint Joseph was a carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family. From him, Jesus learned the value, the dignity and the joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one’s own labour.

In our own day, when employment has once more become a burning social issue, and unemployment at times reaches record levels even in nations that for decades have enjoyed a certain degree of prosperity, there is a renewed need to appreciate the importance of dignified work, of which Saint Joseph is an exemplary patron.

Work is a means of participating in the work of salvation, an opportunity to hasten the coming of the Kingdom, to develop our talents and abilities, and to put them at the service of society and fraternal communion. It becomes an opportunity for the fulfilment not only of oneself, but also of that primary cell of society which is the family. A family without work is particularly vulnerable to difficulties, tensions, estrangement and even break-up. How can we speak of human dignity without working to ensure that everyone is able to earn a decent living?

Working persons, whatever their job may be, are cooperating with God himself, and in some way become creators of the world around us. The crisis of our time, which is economic, social, cultural and spiritual, can serve as a summons for all of us to rediscover the value, the importance and necessity of work for bringing about a new “normal” from which no one is excluded. Saint Joseph’s work reminds us that God himself, in becoming man, did not disdain work. The loss of employment that affects so many of our brothers and sisters, and has increased as a result of the Covid-19 pandemic, should serve as a summons to review our priorities. Let us implore Saint Joseph the Worker to help us find ways to express our firm conviction that no young person, no person at all, no family should be without work!”

~ Pope Francis, Patris Corde (Section 6)

Joseph, Model of Laborers

*Good Saint Joseph, when God wanted a family for his Son,
He looked among the laborers, and chose you along with Mary,
demonstrating His esteem for human work.*

*You put your heart into your work, and share your workshop with Jesus.
Your work, like that of other humans, found new meaning in the presence of God.*

*Sustain us in the hope of finding work when we are confronted with the desolation of unemployment.
Counsel business leaders to create an equitable division of labor that is respectful of individuals, and promotes our growth and happiness.*

*Help us to perform our work joyfully, conscientiously, fairly and honestly.
Prepare our hearts to recognize your Son in our colleagues at work.
Amen.*

Monthly Loyalty Collection Change

The Cathedral Parish has transitioned quite well from the traditional “passing the basket” for collecting the offertory to using the Offering Boxes, Online Giving, and Envelopes. For over a year we have maintained and even surpassed some of our giving patterns as a parish. This is great news as it shows that Cathedral Parishioners are financially committed to supporting the parish, and they are giving prayerfully and intentionally. We have also been blessed with individuals who have generously donated for specific projects and special collections. As we strive to continue to support our parish in these traditional and creative ways, it seems like a good opportunity to revisit how we continue the Monthly Loyalty Collection. The Monthly Loyalty Collection began years ago to help offset many of the maintenance and upkeep costs associated with the Cathedral’s buildings and grounds, which date back to 1869. At the time and for years, parishioners have given to the Monthly Loyalty Collection every first Sunday of the month, in addition to their weekly offering. With the parish offertory sustained through the changes of the past year, now seems like the right time to rethink and expand the way of funding the Cathedral’s continued need for maintenance and upkeep of the buildings and grounds; which include the Cathedral Church, the Blessed Sacrament Chapel, the Rectory, the Library and the entire lot of land stretching from Pine Street to Union Street.

I would like to present the Cathedral’s new Monthly Loyalty Contributors! The name and the concept have changed only slightly, so rather than identifying it by a collection it will now be connected to you, the contributor. The goal is to invite as many parishioners and non-parishioners as possible to commit to being a Contributor to the Cathedral by giving (by envelope or online) every first Sunday of the month. A Monthly Loyalty Contributor to the Cathedral would personally commit to an amount that they determine with thought and prayer. I hope to promote the Monthly Loyalty Contributors effort to people beyond the parish; these individuals might be connected to the Cathedral by our Livestream system, or they may attend Mass at the Cathedral on occasion, or they just want to help to maintain and support the Cathedral.

Please consider becoming a Monthly Loyalty Contributor. Please prayerfully consider your monthly contribution to help the Cathedral Parish maintain and upkeep its buildings and grounds, please commit to making your contribution each first Sunday of the Month, and please pray for the continued spiritual growth and strength of the parish. Thank you for your support as I introduce this renewed effort of supporting the Cathedral Parish.

In Christ,
Fr. Jason

The Wisdom of the Saints

“All of our perfection consists in being conformed, united and consecrated to Jesus Christ; and therefore the most perfect of all devotions is, without any doubt, that which the most perfectly conforms, unites and consecrates us to Jesus Christ. Now, Mary being the most conformed of all creatures to Jesus Christ, it follows that, of all devotions, that which most consecrates and conforms the soul to Our Lord is devotion to His Holy Mother, and that the more a soul is consecrated to Mary, the more it is consecrated to Jesus.”

~ Saint Louis de Montfort

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

The month of April is designated as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the United States.

Did you know? The Diocese of Manchester requires all adults who regularly work with children and youth in our parishes, schools, and camps to complete background checks. Background checks are renewed every 4 years. This is just one of the efforts undertaken by our diocese to protect children! The Diocese also provides child safety articles, parent guides, and other helpful information about child protection on its website. For more information, please visit catholicnh.org/safety and share this information with others.
