From the Desk of Father Jason

Dear Friends,

This weekend, the Catholic Church will once again celebrate “Sunday of the Word of God,” an initiative established by Pope Francis as a day “devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God.” (Apostolic Letter, Aperuit Illis).

Why focus on Sacred Scriptures?

Because, in the words of the Holy Father, “A profound bond links Sacred Scripture and the faith of believers. Since faith comes from hearing, and what is heard is based on the word of Christ (Rom 10:17), believers are bound to listen attentively to the word of the Lord, both in the celebration of the liturgy and in their personal prayer and reflection.”

Pope Francis adds, “devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the Word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world.”

Here are some ways to mark this day:

1. Create a Bible Enthronement in your home.
2. Go through your gift lists for this year, and consider giving the Bible as part of your Christmas, birthday or wedding gifts.
3. Make sure your grandparents or the elderly in your family have a large-print Bible or an audio Bible.
4. Resolve to read one chapter of the New Testament each day; write down what the Holy Spirit says to your heart. This will become your spiritual diary and a treasure for years to come.
5. Create a weekly Zoom or Google Meet group to read, meditate, and discuss the Sunday Gospel with family and friends.
6. Take an online free Catholic Scripture course as a way to study God’s Word more systematically.
7. Take advantage of some of the resources on FORMED.org to explore God’s Word in more depth.
8. Look up artworks that depict passages of Scripture and discuss them with your children.
9. Find a bible podcast that you can listen to and make it part of your daily routine—Bible in a Year with Fr. Mike Schmitz is a popular podcast right now.

Make a vow to make Christ the center of your life and to know, live, and transmit God’s Word in everything you think, say and do.

Pope Francis invites us never to take God’s Word for granted, “but instead to let ourselves be nourished by it, in order to acknowledge and live fully our relationship with Him and with our brothers and sisters.”

In Christ,

Fr. Jason

Welcome

We’re glad you’re here! Whether you are new to the area or have lived here all your life, we look forward to meeting you personally. Please introduce yourself to the celebrant after Mass. We pray that through our worship, you may experience the depth of God’s love for us. If you would like to make St. Joseph your “home” parish and become a parishioner, please visit our website stjosephcathedralnh.org and complete the registration form found under “About Us.” We hope that you will find a home here among friends who pray together, work together and play together.

If you have not been active in the practice of the Catholic Faith, we warmly encourage you to return. If you would like to speak with someone on the parish staff, please do not hesitate to contact any one of us.

If you would like information on baptisms, weddings, RCIA, or any other Sacraments please call the parish office. If a previous marriage has kept you from receiving the Sacraments, we invite you to contact one of the priests. In many cases we can work with you toward a favorable solution so you can again receive the Sacraments in the Catholic Church.

If you would like information on burials, please contact Saint Joseph Cemetery. Since 1848 St. Joseph Cemetery has provided a sacred burial place for those who have died and await the resurrection from the dead. Visit our cemetery on Donald Street and contact us if you have any questions or would like more information. Please visit our website at: saintjosephcathedralcemetery.org.

Pray the Rosary and Chaplet

Many parishioners gather to pray the Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy before and after Mass each day. Consider joining other parishioners at any of these times:

- * Immediately following the daily Mass each morning (Rosary)
- * Saturday afternoon at 3:30 (Rosary)
- * Sunday morning at 7:45 (Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy)
- * Sunday evening at 5:15 (Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy)

All are welcome to join in these prayers together!

Feast of the Holy Spouses

Today marks an old feast that is being revived by religious orders, bishops and lay people around the world.

Little is known about the married life of St. Joseph and the Virgin Mary. Only a few episodes are recorded in the Gospels, and each of those focuses on their son, Jesus. Yet, they are held up by the Church as the prime example of a holy marriage, and remain heavenly patrons for all married couples. Interestingly, for many centuries there existed a particular feast in the Church's calendar that celebrated the marriage of Joseph and Mary. It was called the Espousals of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph. It was a feast that fell into disuse over the years and was eventually eliminated in 1961 with the formulation of the new liturgical calendar. However, the Oblates of St. Joseph made a request to continue celebrating the feast and in 1989 the feast of The Holy Spouses, Mary and Joseph, was reintroduced into the proper calendar of the Oblates of St. Joseph to recognize the holy marriage of Joseph and Mary and to uphold married life as a path to holiness.

A Gift for You

Our parish has subscribed to an online platform called FORMED.org. FORMED is a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 apostolates, including Augustine Institute, Ignatius Press, and the Knights of Columbus, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Best of all, this material is FREE to you.

Our parish will be using the material on FORMED to support our ministries and provide faith formation for parishioners. Much of FORMED's content is available in both English and Spanish and they have a large selection of children's programs as well.

You have easy access to all of the material on FORMED to support your own faith journey and that of your family members. You can enjoy FORMED on your computer or on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. You can even listen on your phone as you commute to work or do chores.

My hope and prayer is that the content on FORMED will enrich, deepen, and inspire your faith.

Winter Relief Collection

Next week is our Annual Winter Relief Collection which helps provide some relief to our operating budget during these winter months. With the cold, the wind, the snow and the ice this past week, we are reminded that we are certainly in the midst of winter! And, as we know, February and March can be two of the most brutal months for cold and snow. Your offering to this collection will help us with the heating and snow removal bills. The heating and snow removal bills are significant given the rising fuel prices and as we heat the cathedral, the chapel and the rectory and maintain 7 entrances and the sidewalks around the entire perimeter of the campus. Parishioners have been very generous over the years and have made a great effort to cover these expenses. Please drop your Winter Relief Envelope in the offering boxes, make your donation online at stjosephcathedralnh.org or text to give at 617-917-9598, code word "WinterRelief." Thank you for your continued generosity!

Saint Joseph, Patron of our Parish, Pray for us!

Seminary Fund Collection

A vocation is more than a job or a career. It is a calling from God. In fact, the word vocation means "a calling." The men in our diocese who have heard the call spend many years in formation in order to one day be ordained to the priesthood and serve the faithful throughout New Hampshire. It is not too late to contribute to the annual collection to benefit the Seminary Fund. Please use the offering boxes in the church, text to give at 617-917-9598 using the text code "Seminararian" or give online at stjosephcathedralnh.org. Thank you in advance for your continued generosity—both financially and through your prayers.

St. Joseph, Protector of the Holy Church, pray for us!

Life on the Streets— Not Always a Choice

Please join the Respect Life Committee and Henry Demers of Harmony Home on Sunday, January 30 as he shares about his ministry at Harmony Home and outreach to the homeless community in Manchester. Learn how Harmony Home is helping people who want "to make a change and get out of homelessness." Hear powerful, personal testimonies about being homeless and the journey and challenges of getting off the streets. Bring your questions and enjoy light refreshments with the Respect Life Committee, Henry and volunteers. We will gather after the 10:30 Mass in Bishop Bradley Hall.

Saint Jerome Book Club

As the reading of bad books fills the mind with worldly and poisonous sentiments; so, on the other hand, the reading of pious works fills the soul with holy thoughts and good desires. The soul that is imbued with holy thoughts in reading is always prepared to banish internal temptations.

The Saint Jerome Book Club is meant to encourage each other in this task. We will read one book each month from catholic authors, doctors and fathers of the church, the lives of the saints (or saints in the making), encyclicals of the popes and other writings that will help our spiritual growth. The book club is open to everyone, with the books chosen generally appropriate for those 16 and over. We will meet once a month in Bishop Bradley Hall on the last Wednesday to discuss the book we have read that month.

A Few "Notes" from Eric Bermani

Whenever we think of the Mass or worship, we must be ever mindful that liturgy is not something we invent but, rather, is a gift given to us by Christ. We are members of the Roman Catholic Church and, as such, our worship has particular characteristics (dare I say "expectations"?) associated with it whenever we gather together for this particular act. One of the central hallmarks of worship is the sacred music we create and participate in. The Church has much to say about this and she safeguards this treasure which is the "source and summit" of who we are as Roman Catholics. This liturgical catechesis, or guidance, must be regarded by us as official church teaching and not mere opinion uttered by various individuals. "Music is of the highest importance, in the celebration of the divine mysteries, and in the Latin Church among musical instruments, the organ has always held a place of honor. Whether as an accompaniment for singing or as a solo instrument, this instrument adds splendor to sacred celebrations, offers praise to God, fosters a sense of prayer in the faithful, and raises their spirits to God." (Book of Blessings, #1325)

Why music in the liturgy? To some, music at Mass is merely frosting on the cake - nice if you have it, but not really necessary. However, the Church teaches that sacred music is "integral" to, or "of the highest importance" in the Liturgy. Although there have always been provisions for the "bare bones" celebrations of Mass under modest circumstances, even then, the preferred celebration would include at least some simple chanted parts of the Mass, if possible.

The goal is not to make our worship more complex, but to make it more authentic: "Liturgical worship is given a more noble form when it is celebrated in song, with the ministers of each degree fulfilling their ministry and the people participating in it. Indeed, through this form, prayer is expressed in a more attractive way, the mystery of the liturgy, with its hierarchical and community nature, is more openly shown, the unity of hearts is more profoundly achieved by the union of voices, minds are more easily raised to heavenly things by the beauty of the sacred rites, and the whole celebration more clearly prefigures that heavenly liturgy which is enacted in the holy city of Jerusalem. Pastors of souls will therefore do all they can to achieve this form of celebration" (Musicam Sacram). Unlike any other art form, sacred music has the capacity to transform the hearts and minds of believers and non-believers. It is evangelization in its truest form.

Prayer to Saint Joseph Before Mass

O Blessed Saint Joseph, to whom it was given not only to see and to hear that God Whom many kings long to see, and saw not, to hear, and heard not; but also to carry Him in your arms, to embrace Him, to clothe Him, and guard and defend Him, pray for me that I may unite myself completely with Him during this Holy Mass, worshipping Him in gratitude and joy.

O God, who have given us a royal priesthood, we beseech You, that as Blessed Joseph was found worthy to touch with his hands, and to bear in his arms, Your only-begotten Son, born of the Virgin Mary, so may we be made fit, by cleanness of heart and blamelessness of life, to approach your holy altar.

May we, this day, with reverent devotion, partake of the Sacred Body and Blood of Your only-begotten Son, and may we be accounted worthy of receiving an everlasting reward in the world to come. Amen.

THE NICENE CREED

I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, MAKER OF HEAVEN AND EARTH, OF ALL THINGS VISIBLE AND INVISIBLE.

I BELIEVE IN ONE LORD JESUS CHRIST, THE ONLY BEGOTTEN SON OF GOD, BORN OF THE FATHER BEFORE ALL AGES. GOD FROM GOD, LIGHT FROM LIGHT, TRUE GOD FROM TRUE GOD, BEGOTTEN, NOT MADE, CONSUBSTANTIAL WITH THE FATHER; THROUGH HIM ALL THINGS WERE MADE. FOR US MEN AND FOR OUR SALVATION HE CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN,

(ALL BOW)

AND BY THE HOLY SPIRIT WAS INCARNATE OF THE VIRGIN MARY, AND BECAME MAN.

FOR OUR SAKE HE WAS CRUCIFIED UNDER PONTIUS PILATE, HE SUFFERED DEATH AND WAS BURIED, AND ROSE AGAIN ON THE THIRD DAY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SCRIPTURES. HE ASCENDED INTO HEAVEN AND IS SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF THE FATHER.

HE WILL COME AGAIN IN GLORY TO JUDGE THE LIVING AND THE DEAD AND HIS KINGDOM WILL HAVE NO END.

I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE LORD, THE GIVER OF LIFE, WHO PROCEEDS FROM THE FATHER AND THE SON, WHO WITH THE FATHER AND THE SON IS ADORED AND GLORIFIED, WHO HAS SPOKEN THROUGH THE PROPHETS.

I BELIEVE IN ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC AND APOSTOLIC CHURCH. I CONFESS ONE BAPTISM FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD AND THE LIFE OF THE WORLD TO COME.

AMEN.

Cathedral Restoration Project

What seemed as a lofty goal only a couple years ago is now being realized beyond expectations in a very tangible way. After spending the past few years planning this project, the Cathedral will be contracting with Swiatek Studios (Rochester, NY) to repair and restore the ceiling and side aisles in the nave of the church beginning in August 2022. As you can see from these renderings, this work will restore the Cathedral to the beauty it deserves as the mother church of the diocese.

The good news, thanks be to God, is that we are able to fund two-thirds of the estimated cost from our savings and Cathedral Restoration Fund, which leaves us needing to raise an additional $250,000. Thanks to year-end generosity, we have raised more than $78,000 towards this remaining balance! Instead of using a typical 'fundraising thermometer', we are calling on our patron saint once again to track our progress. If you are able and would like to contribute to the Restoration Fund, please do so by check, through our online giving at stjosephcathedralnh.org or speak directly with Father Jason. Thank you!

Saint Joseph, patron of our parish, pray for us!
