From the Pastor's Desk . . .

This past week, we were blessed to have Fr. John Eudes Brohl. ORC with us for our Parish Advent Mission. Fr. John Eudes spoke to us in the hope of increasing our awareness of the powerful role, help, and presence of the Holy Angels, in particular our Guardian Angel, in our spiritual lives. He spoke of the assistance the Holy Angels provide us in seeking spiritual freedom. He reminded us that our Guardian Angel accompanies us on our journey to God. Finally, he led us in a discussion on how the Holy Angels assist us in discerning and correctly ordering our emotions. Tuesday evening some children of the parish made their personal consecration to their Guardian Angel. On Wednesday, fifteen adults from the parish made their consecrations to their Guardian Angel. Thank you Fr. John Eudes for your conferences and how we can prepare worthily for the birth of Christ.

Yours in Christ,
 Fr. Wayne

ADVENT SONGS AND HYMNS

We find ourselves now in the very last week of Advent! This is always a busy time full of anticipation, preparation, and hope. Recently I came across a blog post entitled The Top Ten Advent Songs compiled by AcquinasandMore.com. The post points out that admittedly Advent songs are harder to find than Christmas carols, but there are some hidden gems that are worth the listen. During these final few days before Christmas, perhaps you might check out one or all of the following Advent Songs.

(Note that the blog post listed the songs along with the album/artist who may be most well known for the recording, but there are other recordings available for each song as well.)

- O Come, O Come Emmanuel – The ultimate Advent Song! This can be found on the album O Night Divine by L’Angelus.
- Holy is His Name – this can be found on Pathways of the Shepherd by John Michael Talbot.
- O Come, Divine Messiah – can be found on the popular recording Advent at Ephesus.
- On Jordan’s Bank – look for this on More Sublime Chant by The Cathedral Singers with Richard Proulx as conductor.
- The Coming of Our God – this is a beautiful hymn you might find only in traditional hymnals or performed by religious orders.
- The Angel Gabriel from Heaven Came can be found on Christmas Carols from Wells and Salsburg, sung by Steve Green.
- Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus – from The Spirit of Christmas, sung by Steve Green.
- Hark! A Thrilling Voice is Sounding – this can be found on Abide With Me: 50 Favorite Hymns, performed by the King’s College.
- Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence – look for this on Images of Christ, by the Cambridge Singers.
- Emmanuel – this is a Gospel song from the album God He Reigns by the Hillsong Christian Community.

Enjoy this final week of Advent!

Elizabeth Healy,

Chaplet of Divine Mercy is prayed daily (Monday-Friday) at 3:00 p.m. in St. Joseph’s Chapel.

Wisdom of God in the Lives of the Saints
by Fr. Dominic

“My spirit has become dry because it forgets to feed on You.”
-Saint John of the Cross

When you lack proper nutrition for the nourishment of your body, a deficiency will most likely manifest itself in the physical appearance. For instance, a lack of sleep might result in bags under your eyes and dryness of the lips could be attributed to dehydration or malnutrition. Just as the physical body needs proper nutrients in order to be healthy, so does the soul.

There are various signs that might indicate a soul is unhealthy like a lack of virtues and graces. Whenever vicious and sinful actions are willfully committed, with sufficient knowledge of the acts, the soul is said to be lacking in virtues and graces. Saint John succinctly told us this when he said, “little children, let no man deceive you. He that does justice is just, even as he is just. He that committed sin is of the devil... Whosoever is not just, is not of God, nor he that loves not his brother” (1 Jn 3:7-8, 10). The graces of God enable us to thrive and do good works, including prayers.

When a soul finds it dreadful to engage in good works and prayers, then it is a sign the soul needs to run to Jesus. It is only in and through Christ that a “[soul] can do all [good] things who strengthens [it]” (Phil 4:13). May the hungry and thirsty soul hasten to the altar of God so that it may feast on the Body and Blood of Jesus, Who alone provides the nutrients necessary for a healthy soul.

Prayer to Christ Unborn

Dear Lord Jesus in the womb of Blessed Virgin Mary, before your birth You filled the unborn Baptist with the joy of the Holy Spirit. Inspire us to see You in every unborn child. Grant us the perseverance to defend vulnerable human life from abortion, abandonment, experimentation, and all violations. Fill us with reverence for the moment of Your Incarnation in Nazareth when the Word became flesh.

Amen

“Oh, Blessed Virgin Mary, look upon us with mercy and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.”

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

ST. MARY'S
LIFE TEEN DEDHAM

“...for now salvation is nearer to us than when we first believed.” (Romans 13:11). We have entered into the final week of Advent and the fourth candle has been lit! This candle is often referred to as the Angel's candle because it reminds us of the message of the angel: “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.” (Luke 2:14). Peace! Is that not what we ultimately want in our own lives? Jesus tells us,

“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.” (John 14: 27). Who else said not to be afraid?

The angel to the shepherds! There seems to be a common theme here and that is to not be afraid!

We all have fears but the one fear we should never have is loving God “with all [our] heart and with all [our] soul and with all [our] strength and with all [our] mind” (Luke 10:27). Hopefully, during this Advent season you have begun to see the beauty and freedom that comes from complete and total trust in God. Our Blessed Mother, Mary, is the perfect example of this! She is the most beautiful and holy creature ever to be created by God who said “Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to thy word.” (Luke 1:38) after the angel appeared to Her saying She was going to become the Mother of God. She allowed the Word of God to transform Her because She was not afraid. We have the fullness of the truth and should imitate Mary in allowing God's Word to transform us! There should be no fear because perfect love casts out fear! (1 John 4: 18). If there is fear, we must go to Jesus in order to cast it out. How blessed are we though that He comes to us! In this final week of Advent, I encourage you all to continue preparing your hearts to receive Him on Christmas. Ask Our Blessed Mother to intercede for you and to give you the grace necessary to grow closer to Her Son. Teens... please join us tonight after Mass! Following Supper for the Soul, we will have our Christmas Party and Yankee swap! I hope to see you all there!
