Merry Christmas

On behalf of Bishop Arthur Kennedy, Fr. Dominic, Fr. Eric, Deacon Kelley McCormick, the entire staff, and myself, I'd like to take the opportunity to wish you all a blessed and Merry Christmas.

May the love of the Child in the Manger fill your hearts and your homes with peace, joy, and love this Christmas Season. May the new year also be filled with God's blessings for you and your loved ones. Please be assured of my love and prayers for each of you this day and into the new year. Merry Christmas!

"The angel said, 'Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger'."

(Luke 2:13)

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Wayne

Happy New Year!

As we approach the new year and before we make any resolutions that we hardly intend to keep, let us resolve now to answer the call to holiness. Perhaps this year, we can simply add five minutes in the morning and the evening for prayer. We can even begin the practice of praying before each meal, or we can spend a few minutes reading a few lines from the New Testament or come to the Adoration Chapel. God calls us to be saints, let us respond in this new year.

“Christmas reveals the immense love of God for humanity. From that flows also the enthusiasm, the hope of us Christians, that in our poverty, we know that we are loved, we are visited, accompanied by God.” – Pope Francis

Christmas blessings and best wishes to everyone in the St. Mary’s Parish community! I hope the Christmas season brings you and yours great joy, peace and hope!

Here is a beautiful Christmas poem written by the one and only G.K. Chesterton.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

*The Christ-child lay on Mary’s lap,
His hair was like a light.
(O weary, weary were the world,
But here is all aright.)*

*The Christ-child lay on Mary’s breast
His hair was like a star.
(O stern and cunning are the kings,
But here the true hearts are.)*

*The Christ-child lay on Mary’s heart,
His hair was like a fire.
(O weary, weary is the world,
But here the world’s desire.)*

*The Christ-child stood on Mary’s knee,
His hair was like a crown,
And all the flowers looked up at Him,
And all the stars looked down.*

Merry Christmas and A Happy, Healthy,
Holy new year ahead!

Pastoral Associate

Wisdom of God in the Lives of the Saints
by Fr. Dominic

“God is a dark night to man in this life.”
-Saint John of the Cross

Even though man is gifted with the power of intellect to know truths, that natural power is limited. Natural reason, in its own capacity, can penetrate the breadth and depth of creation at great length and even arrive to a limited knowledge of the Creator. However, it does not have sufficient strength to pierce into the inner life of God. As Saint Paul simply puts it, “We see now through a glass in a dark manner...Now I know in part...” (1 Cor. 13:12). In other words, man comes to the knowledge of God, first and foremost, through created things. Another way man comes to know God is through negations— that is speaking of what God is not. For example, we come to know the immutability of God through changes in creatures. In order to enter into the illustrious life of God, while man is on this earth, he must have the grace of God. The supernatural gifts of Faith, Hope and Charity are necessary to elevate and enable him to know and love God. Even then, man is said to have a quasi-experience until he receives the beatific vision, where he is united to God in a direct, intuitive, and clear knowledge of the Triune God as He is in Himself. It is important to remember that a man’s knowledge of God is in no way lacking on the part of God. Rather it is on the finite capacity of man, as a creature, to receive God. Thus, let us humbly beg God to illuminate our darkened intellect and strengthen our feeble will so that we may see Him as He is and firmly behold Him.

Awareness - Prayer - Action

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph,

At the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God’s humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you.

May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God’s most precious gift of life.

Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen. -USCCB

THE FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

“For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” (Isaiah 9:6). MERRY CHRISTMAS! I hope you all had a blessed Christmas with your family and friends. From Hebrew ‘immānū’ēl means “God is with us” and we have spent these last four weeks, in the Advent season, preparing our hearts for this very moment! Guess what?! Christmas also has a season just like Advent! Of course we celebrate Christmas on December 25th every year, but we should also recognize the beautiful season the Church has given us as a way of continuing a deepening of our spiritual lives. Did you know that throughout Christian history, Christmas lasts for 12 days — all the way through January 6th? (Catholic News Agency). I am sure you have heard of the song “The Twelve Days of Christmas”. Each thing mentioned in the song points us to the teachings of our Faith! Check this out...

- 1 True Love = God
- 2 Turtle Doves = The Old and New Testaments
- 3 French Hens = Faith, Hope and Charity, the Theological Virtues
- 4 Calling Birds = the Four Gospels and/or the Four Evangelists
- 5 Golden Rings = The first Five Books of the Old Testament, the "Pentateuch", which gives the history of man's fall from grace.
- 6 Geese A-laying = the six days of creation
- 7 Swans A-swimming = the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, the seven sacraments
- 8 Maids A-milking = the eight beatitudes
- 9 Ladies Dancing = the nine Fruits of the Holy Spirit
- 10 Lords A-leaping = the ten commandments
- 11 Pipers Piping = the eleven faithful apostles
- 12 Drummers Drumming = the twelve points of doctrine in the Apostle's Creed

Teens, please join us tonight for a Christmas movie as we continue to celebrate this wonderful Christmas season!
