From the Pastor's Desk . . .

Coming off the heels of our Lady's instructing us to "do whatever He tells you," this week we encounter our Lord in the Synagogue. What is He doing? He is reading from one of the Sacred Scrolls. What is He reading? The most famous prophecy of Isaiah regarding the Messiah. So, let us listen in to what He is saying:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord."

As He is reading this passage, an image of the Messiah must have come to the minds of those listening. Then, He seizes the moment and tells those gathered: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." In other words, I am the One that Isaiah is speaking of in the prophecy. This must have grabbed their attention. The long-awaited Messiah is right before their very eyes. As would be the case, some would embrace the reality and others would reject it.

Each and every time we come to the celebration of the Holy Mass, we hear about the Messiah and we get to see Him in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. How privileged we are to hear and see the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Wayne

EXODUS

The Parish's Exodus 90 Men's Group will have the opportunity to participate in one of the following three weekly fraternity meetings.

Saturday Morning after the 8:00 am Mass
Saturday Evenings at 6:15 pm
Monday Evenings at 6:15 pm

Despite our best intentions and efforts, many people (and I include myself in this group) find themselves at times distracted during time they have set aside for prayer. This is an all too human tendency that occasionally plagues many believers, including some of our most revered saints. Distraction can be discouraging and can lead us to feel that we have failed in our prayer. Recognizing that a wandering mind happens to almost everyone from time to time, perhaps we should go easy on ourselves when we find we have become distracted. Following are some quotes on this subject from some holy men and women; I hope you find their words reassuring, I know I do.

"If the heart wanders or is distracted, bring it back to the point quite gently and replace it tenderly in its Master's presence. And even if you did nothing during the whole of your hour but bring your heart back and place it again in Our Lord's presence, though it went away every time you brought it back, your hour would be very well employed."

St. Francis de Sales

"When you want to pray, it doesn't matter if you can't meditate. Make little acts of love to God, but gently, without forcing yourself."

St. Paul of the Cross

"Distractions are one of the more common difficulties in prayer. They are absolutely normal and should neither surprise nor sadden us. When we realize that we have become distracted from our prayer and our thoughts are wandering, rather than getting discouraged or angry, we should simply, peacefully and gently bring our minds back to God."

Jacques Philippe

"We must not leave off our prayers because of distractions and restlessness of mind, although it seems useless to go on with them. He who perseveres for the whole of his accustomed time, gently recalling his mind to the subject of his prayer, merits greatly."

St. Philip Neri

"Gently recall your mind when it wanders....unceasingly gather up again our scattered spirit. Turn your inward eye once more towards Him...persevere with an unconquered heart."

St. Teresa of Avila

Wisdom of God in the Lives of the Saints

by Fr. Dominic

"The devil is afraid of us when we pray and make sacrifices...He is especially afraid when we love Jesus very much."

-Saint Anthony of the Desert

There is nothing like seeing an underdog victorious over their opponent. One may recall David's triumph over Goliath in the first book of Samuel. David demonstrates a profound love of God by saying he will go against Goliath, even after being told he cannot. David's decision is a testament to his faith and his complete trust in the Lord. The fruits which flow from David's love of God are the strength and courage he needed to fight Goliath. Following David's example, we ought to be reminded that when we encounter evil in our own lives, the evil one cannot do anything to a friend of Christ. As a matter of fact, the devil is very much fearful of a soul who is closely united to Christ. Union with Christ is the effect of charity which is expressed in prayers and sacrifices made by a faithful soul to God. We witness this reality in the lives of countless saints who have gone before us. Their profound love for Jesus echoes these words of Saint Paul, "If God be for us, who is against us?... For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor might, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:31, 38-39). May these words serve as encouragement for us as we always strive to love Christ, to be loved by Him, and to remain in His charity.

...From the Womb to the Tomb

To claim that some human beings do not deserve respect or should not be treated as "persons" is to deny the very idea of inherent human rights.

Such a claim undermines respect for the lives of vulnerable people before and after birth.

Abortion differs from other major social ills... abortion takes place behind closed doors... as in the case of slavery, ending the social injustice of abortion relies mainly on the courage and willingness of persons and institutions not directly involved in abortion, to speak out.

THE 3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Teach me to do Your will, For You are my God; Let Your good Spirit lead me on level ground.” (Psalm 143:10). For the past two weeks, we have been learning more about the Holy Spirit. Psalm 143: 10 beautifully articulates what we should all pray as we continue to deepen our relationships with Him. Remember, God sent the Holy Spirit to us in order to guide us in doing His Will. Before Jesus ascended into heaven, He said “And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever.” (John 14: 26). Read that again... The Holy Spirit is always with us! Last Sunday, Matthew and I taught you all about the fruits and gifts of the Holy Spirit. In total, there are seven gifts and twelve fruits. The gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord. Would you like to know something super duper exciting!? The Holy Spirit has all of these gifts to share with us... all we have to do is ask! The more we get comfortable asking Him for particular gifts, the more fruits we will begin to bear in our own lives! The fruits of the Holy Spirit are charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control, and chastity.

Following Mass tonight, Jamie and Thomas will be leading us in a night on the corporal works of mercy! The corporal works of mercy pertain to the body. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that “The corporal works of mercy consist especially in feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and burying the dead.” (CCC. 2447). Join us tonight to learn more! “The King will answer and say to them, ‘Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me.’” (Matthew 25:40)
