+ Dear Friends:

During the All Saints Day Mass last weekend, I spoke about Pope Francis's call for us to notice the "saints next door," the people among us who quietly make our world a better place. If you haven't already, I encourage you to look around this week and take notice of the people in your life who are wonderful examples of faith. They are closer than we think! And please don't underestimate the impact of your own kindness and compassion on others. You may not realize it, but there are people who consider you to be their "saint next door."

I would also like to gently revisit one thought from my homily about the time we spend with Jesus after receiving Him in the Eucharist. The silent meditation after Communion is an important, yet sometimes overlooked, part of the Mass. These quiet moments of adoration and thanksgiving help us connect more deeply with the Lord. Unless you have a pressing need, please remain with us until the end of Mass so that we may maintain a prayerful atmosphere for everyone.

All are welcome to join us this Monday, November 9, from 7 to 8:30 PM in the Elizabeth Room for a presentation on fraud awareness and prevention by fellow parishioner Alan Morley. As a financial crimes expert, Alan will share practical ways to protect yourself and your family from today's increasingly sophisticated scams.

Our annual Elizabeth Eight Awards ceremony will take place on Sunday, November 22, at 1 PM in the church. Please join us as we honor eight members of our community who reflect the spirit of our patron, Saint Elizabeth of Hungary, through their service, leadership, and dedication to our parish.

I hope you enjoyed the October issue of Bread to Roses, which includes parish updates, our 125th Anniversary calendar, and the schedule of Christmas Masses. If you didn't receive a copy or would like to be added to the mailing list, please contact Mary Ann Musto at the Parish Center.

The Wyckoff Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will also be held on Sunday, November 22, at 2 PM at the Wyckoff Reformed Church. This lovely tradition brings together the houses of worship in our town for scripture, prayer, and fellowship. I encourage everyone to attend. Our own Deacon John will deliver a reflection, which I am sure will be insightful and meaningful.

As many of you have heard, Cardinal Tobin's recent surgery went well, and he is making wonderful progress. Please continue to join me in praying for his full recovery.

Finally, it has been one year since my father, Joseph Fichter, went home to God on All Souls Day. I am grateful for the faith he passed on to our family, for the kindness many of you showed him during his time here at Saint E's, and for the support my family and I received after his passing. Please continue to pray for him and for all who have gone before us.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

In Christ's Peace,

Father Stephen
