Pastor's Paragraphs

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

There are two things that are noteworthy this weekend. First, this weekend marks the end of the Christmas season as we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. After this weekend, the Christmas decorations will come down and we will return to Ordinary Time.

In celebrating today's feast, we are reminded that Jesus was baptized by his cousin John the Baptist in the Jordan River. Once baptized Jesus began his three-year public ministry.

The second event this weekend is the Open House in the rectory. The Open House is the first celebration of our 150th Anniversary. All parishioners are invited to join us in the rectory after weekend Masses. While at the Open House you can see the Christmas decorations. Also, you can enjoy refreshments from our Hospitality Committee. This is a good opportunity to socialize with other parishioners as well. I hope that you will take a few moments after Mass this weekend and come over to the rectory to say hello!

I'd like to thank our Hospitality Committee for their hard work in hosting the Open House. Also, I'd like to thank our 150th Anniversary Committee for their work as our anniversary year begins. The 150th Anniversary Committee are working on several other events that will be taking place this year. Of particular note, is our 150th Anniversary Mass which will take place with Bishop McManus on Sunday, November 6th. Mark your calendars!

Have a great week!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Bill
