Responding to the word this week

Living God, thank you for your generosity in my life. I don't always remember it. I don't always feel it. And I mourn for those who do not know you, who have not been overwhelmed by your love, who seem to walk all alone without seeing your support. They have no wine. I love them. It is for them I pray; it is for their sake that I wrestle with you. Show yourself to them.

And yes, I will get going, too. Help me. Show yourself through me. I know that I have much more loving and serving to do on this earth before I am done. I am willing to do it. Through your grace, God, well, let's go make some wine! ... Or maybe some tea?

Amen!

Message From Father Jacobs

"Everyone's tired now. You frequently hear, 'I can't do this anymore. I'm done' — then five minutes later, someone picks them right up and they're back to where they were."
 — Barbara O'Neill, emergency department nurse at Bristol Hospital

So many of us are tired now. The on-going pandemic continues to bring about physical problems, and all too often mental problems along with it. Loneliness, isolation, depression, anxiety, stress and sometimes even a sense of hopelessness. We can, often times, make a positive difference in the lives of one another. Susan Lemkuil recently shared this story with me:

One day a man was walking along the beach when he noticed a boy picking something up and gently throwing it into the ocean. Approaching the boy, he asked, "What are you doing?" The youth replied, "Throwing starfish back into the ocean. The surf is up and the tide is going out. If I don't throw them back, they'll die." "Son," the man said, "don't you realize there are miles and miles of beach and hundreds of starfish? You can't make a difference!" After listening politely, the boy bent down, picked up another starfish, and threw it back into the surf. Then, smiling at the man, he said, "I made a difference for that one."

During these difficult times, we too, can make a difference in picking someone up and helping them return to where they were.

May the only negative things in 2022 be your Covid Tests!!

January is Human Trafficking Prevention Month Prayer to End Human Trafficking

God of Light, we pray for all the people - men, women and children - hidden in the darkness of modern day slavery. Help us shine Your light into the homes, streets, factories and brothels in our own neighborhoods and around the world where people are enslaved. The darkness is as light to you, O Lord No person in any corner of the world is hidden from Your sight. Help us shine Your light. Amen. (Source: Catholic Relief Services.)
