Advent All Year

The heavy leaning on the words watchful and waiting is the theme for Advent has been the thoughts for the last 10 months. The very words of St. Mark, "Be watchful! Be Alert!, you do not know when the time will come." We have been watchful and waiting about the fear of a cough, fever, admittance to the hospital and the virus, and we have been shut inside. Light a candle for this first week of Advent and ask that this light will help you shift your priorities. May we realize that Christmas and Advent may change in our personal celebration, but they won't in the way they can affect our faith if we watch and wait in prayer.

Lord God, help us to wait and look for you with greater hope. Help us to walk in the light of love, peace, forgiveness and understanding. Help us in the darkness to know that we don't need to be in control, but rather have HOPE!!

ARCHDIOCESE OF HARTFORD—From the Archbishop:

1. Sunday Mass is NOW ALLOWED, socially distanced, with masks. Please know the capacity is an honor system, so please come early. This is every other pew at your discretion. Please, if you can move in, so that more might sit in your pew. There will be no singing until the future. If you are willing help with the wiping down of pews and doors, please come with wipes and do so.
2. The ushers will be passing the basket for the collections starting November 22nd. Thank you for your past generosity.
3. All Communion lines should be single-file, with people wearing masks and we begin from the back of church for social distance purposes. Please hold out your hand for Priest to drop the Host in it so as not to touch you. Please also keep two pews between you. This is the most difficult part as only the priest is allowed to give communion. So please be prayerfully quiet and socially distant.

Sharing the Gospel: When you play on a baseball team, you learn how to pay attention. Your coach reminds you and your teammates to stay ready. You learn to watch the ball. Those are good lessons to learn, because Jesus wants you to pay attention, too. Keep your eyes and your mind on Jesus, so you're ready when he comes.

Prayer: Jesus, help me to stay ready for you. Amen.

Mission Play a quick game of baseball. Cheer for one another. End the game with a prayer that you will keep your eyes on Jesus.
