“We pray for all those affected by the novel coronavirus, those in the service of providing health care, and the common good,” said Bishop Deeley. “May we find strength in the community the Lord gives us. May it remind us of His presence in our lives. And may we always know that trusting in the Lord Jesus will help us bring God’s mercy and love into the world through our care for one another.”
A public announcement will be made when the temporary suspension of Masses concludes. “Bishop Robert Deeley

As more information develops with regard to COVID-19, all Maine parishes continue to work to ensure the health and safety of all Maine Catholics and the wider community.

Cancellations are unfortunate but necessary as we offer compassion and support to those in high-risk groups by carefully monitoring our current situation and proceeding with caution. As we cooperate with government and medical officials, especially by remaining calm and responding with reason.

We will try and keep parishioners informed via the bulletin and websites.

Opportunity for Spiritual Communion
Blessed Sacrament in Tabernacle at Our Lady’s
Due to the streamed Mass schedule, we will be limiting opportunities for outdoor visits to the Blessed Sacrament in the window of the church to Sundays between 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m.

Visitors are asked to stagger their visitation times and to avoid all contact with others and to maintain a reasonable and safe distance from other non-family-related visitors (at least 10 feet apart), and to limit their visit to 10 or 15 minutes when other people are present. Limited, widely-scattered seating without armrests will be available throughout the courtyard. Outdoor votive candles will also be made available. The church doors will remain locked during this period of adoration for security and public health reasons. The Blessed Sacrament will be removed from the nartex tabernacle and placed back in the church tabernacle outside of the times listed above.

We will continue this weekend adoration practice until Masses are restored.

Depending upon where the penitent stands, hero she will have the anonymous or face-to-face option. In the event of inclement weather, confessions will be cancelled.

Dear Friends,

When our Lord entered Jerusalem in glory on that fateful day 2000 years ago, the people put out the “red carpet” for Him—not an actual red carpet, of course. Rather, they used what they had in plentitude: a carpet of palm branches to pave the way, and they waved the palm branches that they clutched in their hands to enthusiastically welcome the son of god to their city of Jerusalem.

God became human. God entered the stuff of our lives. And the Church continues this pattern by using things that appeal to our senses to help us connect with God: ashes on Ash Wednesday, holy water, holy oils, the blessed palm on Passion Sunday. All sacred “stuff” because our God entered the “stuff” of our lives.

Unfortunately, we won’t be blessing any palms in this year’s celebration of Passion Sunday, what we’ve come to call “Palm Sunday,” because we won’t be able to process with them, nor can we distribute them so that you can place blessed palms in your home after Mass. But, just like the people of Jesus’ day used what they had on hand to welcome the Lord into their lives, so can we use what we have. Now, if we lived in Florida, we could all cut down our own palm branches and decorate our homes with them. But, there are no palm trees in our Maine backyards. However, this is the “Pine Tree State.” And this is Palm Sunday. So, while we have no palms, we do have plenty of pine branches out there. And perhaps we can substitute them this year. I’m suggesting that we celebrate “Pine Sunday” this year. Let’s use what we have, and it will be enough.

So, in place of blessed palms, maybe you’d like to go outside and snip off a branch or wo from a pine tree, and then put it somewhere in your home where you will occasionally see it. It doesn’t have to be a showy place—just somewhere in your home where you will see it. Perhaps behind a wall crucifix or religious painting, or it can be placed on your kitchen table which can also be a sacred space. And when you see it in the days and months ahead, remember what we are all remembering and celebrating this Sunday: our Lord’s Sacred Passion and Death. Let the pine branch remind you throughout the year ahead of God’s sacred presence in our world and in our lives.

Please join our Sebago Lakes Region Parishes’ live-streamed celebration of Passion Sunday on Saturday, April 4 at 4:00 p.m. or Sunday, April 5 at 8:00 a.m. using the link below.
