As more information develops with regard to COVID-19, all Maine parishes continue to work to ensure the health and safety of all Maine Catholics and the wider community.

Cancellations are unfortunate but necessary as we offer compassion and support to those in high-risk groups by carefully monitoring our current situation and proceeding with caution. As we cooperate with government and medical officials, especially by remaining calm and responding with reason.

We will try and keep parishioners informed via the bulletin and websites.

Opportunity for Spiritual Communion

Due to the streamed Mass schedule, we will be limiting opportunities for outdoor visits to the Blessed Sacrament in the window of the church to Sundays between 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. Visitors are asked to stagger their visitation times and to avoid all contact with others and to maintain a reasonable and safe distance from other non-family-related visitors (at least 10 feet apart), and to limit their visit to 10 or 15 minutes when other people are present. Limited, widely-scattered seating without armrests will be available throughout the courtyard. Outdoor votive candles will also be made available. The church doors will remain locked during this period of adoration for security and public health reasons. The Blessed Sacrament will be removed from the narthex tabernacle and placed back in the church tabernacle outside of the times listed above.

We will continue this weekend adoration practice until Masses are restored.

“Backyard Confessions” at Our Lady’s, Windham

Fr. Lou Phillips will be available to hear confessions from the back porch of his rectory Saturdays from 3:00 to 3:30 until Corona virus restrictions are lifted. From the handicapped parking lot across from the church, penitents can access the back yard of the rectory, one at a time, and approach the porch. Depending upon where the penitent stands, he or she will have the anonymous or face-to-face option. In the event of inclement weather, confessions will be cancelled.

An Easter Message from Fr. Lou

Sometimes, especially at an unprecedented and terribly challenging time like this, we fail to recognize and realize just how much the risen Christ has accomplished in us and in our world. Our human tendency, too often, is to focus on the “half-empty glass.” We concentrate on the negative and sadness of our world: the sin, the strife, the suffering, the hatred. But, in reality, where would our world be today were it not for Christ and good people of faith? What Easter so loudly proclaims is that the world is not a booby-trapped battleground, but rather the sacrament of God’s presence. Christ has indeed redeemed the world, but unfortunately the world doesn’t seem to know it. This realization should urge us to go out (but practicing social distancing, of course!) and proclaim the risen Christ even louder. If we have any personal experience of freedom, love or joy because of Christ, we need to share it with others in whatever creative and innovative ways we can find today. The challenge of Easter is to win the world through the love of Christ manifested in us. And that is a good working definition, I think, of “evangelization.” The last words I use each Sunday to conclude the Mass are: “Go out and proclaim the Gospel of the Lord.” We can still do that—we just need to find unique ways to do that today.

Let’s keep in mind, particularly this year, that Easter is more than just one Sunday. Easter is a 7-week, 50-day festival of joy that lasts through the evening of Pentecost Sunday on May 31. We all hope and pray that we can meet again together in church by Pentecost Sunday. But if not, we will still be an “Easter people.” Regardless of what we are now experiencing, this is the season of new life: of springtime and blossoms and sprouting leaves and greening grass. Your garden, your back yard, your window to the outside world is a sacrament of God’s Easter presence. Hope. Our Church says to us: “This is a perfect time of year to celebrate life—life eternal.” Let the Pascal Candle, burn brightly in our three cluster churches for the next 50 days to remind us of the gift of life, and may it enkindle in our hearts joy and peace, and this year above all, hope.

On behalf of myself and Fr. Cartwright, may you and your loved ones experience a joy-filled Easter. Please be assured of our continued prayers.

Cordially in Christ.

Please join our Sebago Lakes Region Parishes’ live-streamed celebration of Easter Sunday on Saturday, April 11 at 8:00 p.m. or Sunday, April 12 at 8:00 a.m. using the link below.
