School of Religious Instruction (SRI)

Hello Dear Friend!

After consulting with Monsignor, we have decided to POSTPONE the RE-opening of SRI to Sunday, February 7th. As always, we must put the safety and well-being of our students and their families first and foremost, as I am sure you agree. I will be hosting ZOOM Prayer Groups on Sundays (more info to follow on this) and will follow up with Second grade parents to invite them to a parent meeting in March. Thank you so much for your prayers and support as we navigate thru these unprecedented times! May God Bless us all!

Mrs. Stacey White

ST. JOSEPH PARISH - HANOVER, PA

Pastor's Column

Tomorrow, Monday, January 18 begins our "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2021". Each year the Church prays for Christian unity during the Octave which precedes the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul celebrated on January 25. Pope Leo XIII announced in 1897, in the encyclical Satis Cognitum, that the Church would especially pray for Christian unity. In its decree on ecumenism, the Second Vatican Council urged the faithful to unite in prayer for this intention..."this Council declares that it realizes that this holy objective—the reconciliation of all Christians in the unity of the one and only Church of Christ—transcends human powers and gifts" (Decree Unitatis Redintegratio). That each one of us and the Church as a whole, including Christians of differing denominations, should pray for Christian unity is not to be considered just as an add on, as something nice to do but really not essential. Rather, it is our duty because Christ wanted us to be one. "And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to thee. Holy Father keep them in thy name, which thou has given me, that they may be one, even as we are one..." (John 17: 11).

The theme for this year was chosen by the Monastic Community of Grandchamp located near lake Neuchatel in Switzerland. The community, founded in the 1930's where a group of Reformed women, searching for a place to pray in solitude in imitation of Jesus Christ, repeatedly gathered and drew a growing group of guest that necessitated a permanent presence. The community continues to welcome guests and retreatants for periods of retreat, silence, healing or in search of meaning. The theme "Abide in my love...You shall bear much fruit" from the Gospel of John, chapter 15, expresses the Grandchamp Community's vocation to prayer, reconciliation and unity in the Church and the human family. The image of branches helps believers understand that they are all diverse as individuals, but brought together in the one Vine, who is Christ alive in the Church. ( From the website of the Graymoor Ecumenical and interreligious Institute as quoted by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops).

This Friday, January 22, is a day we recall with sadness, but now it is also a day of hope. On this day in 1973, the Supreme Court of the United States legalized abortion in our country. Forty-six years later, the pro-life generation is gaining even more momentum and the combined voice of those who stand up for life is growing louder. January 22 is now observed as the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children", (Relevantradio.com). The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops says this day is a day of prayer and penance in all the Diocese of the United States of America, " a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion." Saint John Paul II, in his farewell address during his 1987 apostolic journey to the United States stated, "America, your deepest identity and truest character as a nation is revealed in the position you take towards the human person. The ultimate test of our greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless ones. The best traditions of your land presume respect for those who cannot defend themselves. If you want equal justice for all, and true freedom and lasting peace, then, America defend life!"

On Friday, January 22, we will have Eucharistic Adoration following the 9:00 a.m. Mass concluding at 3:00 p.m. with Benediction. Please join us for this day of prayer.

By the Grace of God, Fr. Lyons

Thank you from the CCW....

Sincere and heartfelt thanks to our wonderfully generous parishioners for supporting our Council of Catholic Women's (CCW) Angel Tree again this year! We are so grateful and humbled to share with you that as a parish we surpassed last year's contributions, regardless that many are participating in Mass virtually! Each year, our donations are measured in weight to credit our organization. This year, we surpassed last year's gifts by approximately 200 pounds - as the total weight of contributions was 882 pounds of gifts this year!!! This is a phenomenal accomplishment! The New Hope Ministry that provides the site where those in need can "shop for their family among your gifts" was very appreciative and grateful for each and every donation! May God bless you all abundantly for your selflessness and generosity to help those in need have a much happier Christmas! Thank you!

Your grateful CCW Group!

Due to the ongoing concerns with Covid-19, the Council of Catholic Women Lenten Retreat, held annually at St. Joseph Parish in Hanover, has been cancelled for 2021. The health and safety of our members is our priority. We look forward to hosting you again in the future. May the Blessed Mother continue to watch over you and your families!

THE YEAR OF SAINT JOSEPH

2020 - DECEMBER 8 – 2021

Joseph found happiness not in mere self-sacrifice but in self-gift. In him, we never see frustration but only trust. His patient silence was the prelude to concrete expressions of trust. Our world today needs fathers. It has no use for tyrants who would domineer others as a means of compensating for their own needs. It rejects those who confuse authority with authoritarianism, service with servility, discussion with oppression, charity with a welfare mentality, power with destruction. Every true vocation is born of the gift of oneself, which is the fruit of mature sacrifice. The priesthood and consecrated life likewise require this kind of maturity. Whatever our vocation, whether to marriage, celibacy or virginity, our gift of self will not come to fulfillment if it stops at sacrifice; were that the case, instead of becoming a sign of the beauty and joy of love, the gift of self would risk being an expression of unhappiness, sadness and frustration.—Pope Francis, With a Father's Heart

Prayer to Saint Joseph by Pope Francis

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,

Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted his only Son;

in you Mary placed her trust;

with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,

show yourself a father

and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,

and defend us from every evil. Amen

PLENARY INDULGENCE DURING THIS YEAR

According to the decree issued by the Apostolic Penitentiary on December 8, 2020, there are fifteen ways to receive an indulgence in the Year of St. Joseph:

- 1) Participate in a spiritual retreat for at least one day that includes a meditation on St. Joseph.
- 2) Pray for St. Joseph's intercession for the unemployed that they might find dignifying work.
- 3) Recite the Litany of St. Joseph for persecuted Christians. Byzantine Catholics have the option of an Akathist to St. Joseph.
- 4) Entrust one's daily work and activity to the protection of St. Joseph the Worker.
- 5) Follow St. Joseph's example in performing a corporal work of mercy. These include feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless, visiting the imprisoned, visiting the sick, and burying the dead.
- 6) Perform one of the spiritual works of mercy, such as comforting the sorrowful, counseling the doubtful, instructing the ignorant, admonishing the sinner, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving injuries, and praying for the living and the dead.
- 7) Pray the rosary together with one's family in order that "all Christian families may be stimulated to recreate the same atmosphere of intimate communion, love and prayer that was in the Holy Family."
- 8) Engaged couples can also receive an indulgence from praying the rosary together.
- 9) Meditate for at least 30 minutes on the Lord's Prayer, because St. Joseph "invites us to rediscover our filial relationship with the Father, to renew fidelity to prayer, to listen and correspond with profound discernment to God's will."
- 10) Pray an approved prayer to St. Joseph on St. Joseph Sunday, the Sunday after Christmas in the Byzantine Catholic tradition.
- 11) Celebrate the feast of St. Joseph on March 19 with an act of piety in honor of St. Joseph.
- 12) Pray an approved prayer to St. Joseph on the 19th of any month.
- 13) Honor Joseph with an act of piety or approved prayer on a Wednesday, the day traditionally dedicated to St. Joseph.
- 14) Pray to St. Joseph on the Feast of the Holy Family on Dec. 27.
- 15) Celebrate the feast of St. Joseph the Worker on May 1 with an act of piety or prayer.
