Pastor's Column

I heard from Father William R. Thompson, Pastor of Saint Joseph Church in Central City, Kentucky. If you recall we recently made an effort to help them in tornado relief. Father Thompson wrote the following in his first three paragraphs of his letter to me. "Many Blessings to you and your parish this Christmas Season. Over the last week, St. Joseph in Central City received generous support from your parish community. It is with humble gratitude that I write today on behalf of our community acknowledging the good that you all have accomplished. To date, we have received $9,245.00 in donations for tornado relief in our small community."

"There are many kind notes of encouragement from your parishioners that bring hope and joy. The generous gifts will go to the local Muhlenberg Disaster Relief fund and to the individual families needing assistance as they rebuild."

"Currently, we are moving through the various stages of crisis. The parish is filled with supplies for people in need. I am reminded of the prophet Elijah and his encounter with God on the mountain. It was not in the storms that God's voice was heard, but in the silent whisper. Likewise, in our local community it is in the silent moments that God continues to reveal Himself to His people. The generous support of your parishioners is one such avenue that God reveals his abundant goodness. On behalf of our parish and the local community, I extend our gratitude and prayers for you all." (Thanks to Shara Heacock who was raised in the area of Central City, Kentucky, and who brought their need for help to my attention. Thank you, the people of St. Joseph Parish here in Hanover, for your generosity to our brothers and sisters in St. Joseph Parish in Kentucky.)

The Week of Prayer For Christian Unity is from January 18-25, 2022. The theme is "We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship Him" (cf. Matthew 2:2). It was selected by the Middle East Council of Churches and originates from the churches in Lebanon. Present times in Lebanon are extremely difficult and economically disastrous. All this combined with the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic have made the situation quite stressful. The power of prayer in solidarity with those who suffer is a demonstration of Christian unity and a sign of communion.

Fr. Miller plans to be with students from Delone Catholic High School at the March For Life in Washington D.C. on Friday, January 21. We will be in communion with them as we celebrate Eucharistic Adoration in our church from 9:30 a.m., beginning with the recitation of the Holy Rosary after the 9:00 a.m. Mass and concluding at 3:00 p.m. with Benediction. If you are unable to attend the March For Life please join us in prayer and adoration.

By the Grace of God, Fr. Lyons

Bad Pun: I saw an ad for burial plots and thought: "That's the last thing I need."

Did you know . . . that Saint Joseph Church has an extensive free lending library with an impressive collection of inspirational, motivational, and relevant books? In the Church library, just steps away from the main church entrance, you will find books by such popular authors as Thomas Merton, Henry J. M. Nouwen, and Bishop Fulton J. Sheen. Topical categories include saints, prayer, Jesus, family, popes, healing, and Chicken Soup. Books may be signed out for 30 days on the sign-out sheet provided. Many Bibles are also available, and donated books are gratefully accepted. Stop by after mass (or any time) and see what the Church library has to offer you. It may be our best-kept secret, but we hope that will change with your patronage. By the way, there are FREE books located at the rear entrance to the Church, to the right of the main altar. No check out is necessary.

Reminder...If you, or anyone you know, is hospitalized and would like to see a Priest while in the hospital, please remember to call the parish office to let us know. The hospital does not contact us to let us know when parishioners are hospitalized; therefore, we have no way of knowing when someone would like a Priest to visit unless you contact the Parish Office, 717-637-5236. Thank you!

Cancer Support Group

The next meeting of St. Joseph's Cancer Support Group will be held on Monday January 24, beginning at 6:30 PM in the large conference room of the Admin building. Tom and Patty Strunck will be our guests for the evening. They will share the cancer journey of their daughter, Mary, with us. Please join us as all current cancer patients, survivors, and support persons are welcome to an evening of prayer, discussion, and fellowship.

The Movie "Chosen" at St. Joseph

The "Chosen" is a multi-season dramatization of the Gospels of Jesus Christ. It has been airing for two years, and is currently in production of Season 3. The program, produced with the blessings of the Catholic Church, has been received with critical praise. It has already changed many lives. It portrays the human side of Jesus as His 3-year ministry unfolds before the viewer's eyes. We will be showing Season 2, Episode #2 on Tuesday January 18, beginning at 6:30 PM in the Fr. Gotwalt Administration Building (parish office). Each episode is approximately 45 minutes in length and will be followed by a discussion of the episode. ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND!

Points to Prayerfully Ponder

Scripture: When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you."

John 2:2-5

Points to Prayerfully Ponder:

In what ways do I ignore requests from God and others? How can I become more aware of those around me who may be in need? What steps can I take to show my trust in God?
