Director of Family Ministries in the Secretariat for Catholic Life & Evangelization

The Diocese of Harrisburg seeks someone with a desire to help others live the Catholic faith to the fullest, who is interested in strengthening marriages and families and wants our youth to develop strong relationships with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If this describes you, we invite you to join a mission-oriented team of individuals who work "to proclaim the goodness of God and to make truly present and active the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ to all people through the power of the Holy Spirit." The Secretariat for Catholic Life and Evangelization (CLEV) is seeking a Director of Family Ministries who is ready to enrich our team with his or her talents and dedication. The Director reports to the Secretary of CLEV and will have direct responsibility for Diocesan family ministries programs, which includes marriage and youth. This person serves as the main point of contact and support to parish and ministry offices for strategic planning, implementation, and ongoing development in these areas. He or she may also be asked to assist the Secretary in supporting prison, hospital, and college/university chaplaincies as well as our multicultural apostolates. Prospective candidates can visit www.hbgdiocese.org/careers for full details of responsibilities and job requirements. Please send résumé and cover letter to employment@hbgdiocese.org. Application closing date is January 28, 2022.

Thank You!

I want to take this time to thank everyone who helped usher during our Christmas masses this year. Due to our current situation, I know it was not easy. Your time was greatly appreciated.

- Ray Johns

Pastor's Column

Each weekday this week the church asks us to remember a particular saint. On Monday is St. Francis de Sales (1567-1622). The life of this outstanding and highly influential bishop, spiritual director, author, preacher and Doctor of the Church spans the turbulent decades following the protestant Reformation. He had a doctorate in both civil and canon law and was ordained a priest in 1593 and immediately dedicated himself to the re-evangelization of Chablais, which had become almost entirely Calvinistic. He won many converts to the Church. At the age of 32 he was ordained an auxiliary bishop and later became the Bishop of Geneva. Francis was the co-founder, with St. Jane Frances de Chantal, of the Visitation nuns.

The Conversion of St. Paul is celebrated as a Feast Day on Tuesday. The importance of the conversion of the "Apostle to the Gentiles" is evident from the three accounts given in the Acts of the Apostles (9: 1-30; 22: 3-21; 26: 9-20). The biblical account of what happened to Paul on the road to Damascus describes the radical change that took place: "He who was formerly persecuting us is now preaching the faith he tried to destroy: (Gal 1: 11-24). As Saul, a zealous Pharisee, he persecuted the Church and so played before and after his conversion an important role in the history and development of the early Church.

St. Timothy and St. Titus is an obligatory memorial on Wednesday. These two were companions of St. Paul. Timothy was born of a Greek father and a Jewish mother. He was converted to Christianity by St. Paul on his first missionary journey and accompanied Paul on his second and third journeys. He was the head of the Church at Ephesus. Titus came from a pagan family and he also converted to Christianity during Paul's first missionary journey. He accompanied Paul and Barnabas to the Council at Jerusalem. Paul assigned Titus as head of the Church in Crete.

St. Angela Merici (1474-1540) was born in Brescia in northern Italy and left orphan at the age of fifteen. She gave up the family inheritance and joined the Franciscan Tertiaries in order to live in poverty. She attracted a group of devout laity, members of the nobility and persons of humble station in life, and in 1535 she founded a religious institute under the patronage of St. Ursula (Ursulines). She wanted them to be consecrated to God and dedicated to the service of their neighbor, but remaining in the world and living a celibate life in their own homes. She thus anticipated the secular institutes that flourished in modern times.

St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) is an obligatory memorial on Friday. He was born at the castle of Roccasecca, near Montecassino, Italy, the son of the Count of Aquino and a mother of German descent. As a child he was educated by the Benedictines and studied at the University of Naples, where he encountered the Dominicans and joined their ranks at the age of 18. Thomas had a thirst for knowledge and truth and so continued his studies in Paris and then in Cologne, where he studied under St. Albert the Great. For ten years, 1259-1269 he was at the service of Pope Urban IV. From 1269-1272, again in Paris, he wrote his commentaries on various works of Aristotle and the greater part of his famous Summa Theologiae.

By the Grace of God, Fr. Lyons

Bad Pun: The patron saint of copying people on email is St. Francis of a Cc.

Points to Prayerfully Ponder

Scripture: Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

Psalm response, see John 6:63.

Points to Prayerfully Ponder:

How often do I read the Bible? Since the word of God is wise and sustaining, why do I delay reading more Scripture? What can I do to become a better reader and student of Scripture?
