Points to Prayerfully Ponder

Scripture: "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in.

John 20:2-5

Points to Prayerfully Ponder:
How do I pay homage to our Risen Lord? What are some ways that I show deference to others? How can I better respect authority?

I wish to take this time to thank everyone who helped usher during the Easter masses. Your dedication to this ministry is very much appreciated.
Thank you,
Ray Johns

Pastor's Column

The Lord is Risen! It is Easter Sunday of The Resurrection of The Lord.

No one who experienced that first Easter was prepared for it. There is more belief in the resurrection of Jesus this morning than there was in the entire land of Palestine on the first Easter morning. The reaction of those closest to Jesus, his own disciples, to the news that he was alive make it clear that no one anticipated this at all. If that were not true then the women would have gone to the tomb for a different reason than to bring spices with which to anoint the dead body of Jesus. Peter and Paul would not have been where they were so that they had to run to the tomb when told it was empty. Had they expected Jesus to rise to new life they would have been at the tomb all night waiting for this moment. The universal reaction to the resurrection on the part of the disciples of Jesus was total surprise. It was not even surprise at first. It was disbelief.

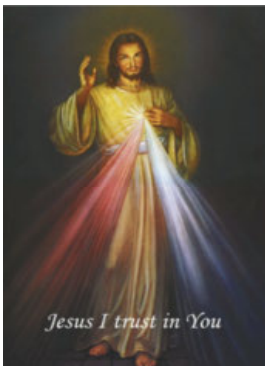

Yet, these same people over the days to come would actually see, speak, and eat with the Risen Lord. The apostles and disciples came to believe in the Resurrected Jesus to the point of giving their lives for this truth rather than deny it. Their message has come down through history to us today in the Holy Bible. It is their story and ours.

Easter is our celebration of what God has revealed to us about the destiny of human beings. We yearn for eternity. None of us wants to die. As Christians we reach for eternity not by our own resources. Rather, we know that Jesus, having assumed our humanity and having died for us, shares with us his victory over death, being the first-born from the dead. The resurrection of Jesus marks the moment when life overcame death.

This year Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated April 24 at 3:00 p.m. in our church. This devotion to God's mercy was strongly promoted by Saint Pope John Paul II. On April 30, 2000 the canonization of Sister Faustina Kowalska was celebrated and the second Sunday of Easter was officially designated as Divine Mercy Sunday. Sister Faustina was blessed with visions and visitations from Jesus and recorded these in her diary which was eventually published.

"As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness and fear, the Risen Lord offers his love that pardons, reconciles and reopens hearts to love. It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept divine mercy!" Saint Pope John Paul II

By the Grace of God, Fr. Lyons
