Points to Prayerfully Ponder

Scripture: "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

John 13:34-35

Points to Prayerfully Ponder:

What are some concrete steps I can take to be more loving? How will anyone truly know that I am a follower of Christ? What areas of my life are reflecting hate and or indifference?

PRAYERS FOR THE MEN
AND WOMEN WHO SERVE
IN OUR ARMED FORCES.

Pastor's Column

The Latino Community held a concert on May 2, and a portion of their proceeds were dedicated to the parish. I decided to allot those funds, $283.00, for tuition assistance for Latino students to attend St. Joseph School. At the school open house on Sunday, March 27, at 1:00 p.m. six Latino students enrolled in our school for next year. We hope to increase that number.

Thanks go out to the Knights of Columbus council #871 and St. Joseph Cub Pack for their work in hosting a Mother's Day Breakfast last Sunday morning. Dave Zinn helped coordinate this effort between these two parish groups to make their partnered effort a success. As Dave said in an email to his brother Knights, "Our Cub Pack leaders volunteer and work with our youth week to week. Their hours of enthusiastic effort are hard to even compile at the end of a program year." Of course, it is also rare that the Knights are not mentioned in the weekly parish bulletin for the many good works in which they are constantly involved. The breakfast was very good and well attended. I think the moms appreciated it also.

"In July 2010, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) launched a national 'If You See Something, Say Something' campaign – a simple and effective program to raise public awareness of indicators of terrorism and terrorism-related crime and to emphasize the importance of reporting suspicious activity to the proper state and local law enforcement authorities" (U.S. Department of Homeland Security). Unfortunately, this effective campaign slogan applies to us as parishioners of St. Joseph Church. While we can come to church in peace and pray in peace we have to be aware these days of something that just doesn't look right. It could be in the parking lot. It could be suspicious behavior outside or inside the parish buildings. If one of the priests is around bring it to his attention. If not a priest then bring it to the attention of an usher. Their team leaders have been instructed to call the local police in these situations to let these professional law enforcement personnel handle it.

Regarding suspicious activity I know of a case in which a parishioner, this did not happen at St. Joseph Church, discovered three men in a church on a Saturday afternoon, not praying but walking and looking around the church. One of the men was drawing the interior of the church on a pad. Once they saw the parishioner in the church they immediately left. This is an example of suspicious activity. Parish personnel were notified, who then called the police. Thankfully nothing came of it, and the police were grateful they were notified.

Why do I bring this up now? Last week we were alerted by diocesan personnel that across the nation people had threatened to disrupt Catholic Masses on Mother's Day weekend protesting the possibility of the Roe vs. Wade decision, allowing abortion, being overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court. (Writing this on Mother's Day afternoon I am not aware of any disruption of Masses this weekend in the Diocese of Harrisburg.) We need not be afraid to come to church. Just be aware of what doesn't seem normal or looks out of place. "If You See Something, Say Something."

By the Grace of God, Fr. Lyons

Kentucky Mission Summary, May 2022

To fully see God's blessings, one need only to have open eyes and ears and a receptive heart. Nowhere was this more evident than on the recently completed Kentucky mission trip by Eric Wilson (local contractor), Joe Murphy (AVBM), Rick Winand, and Deacon Tom (St. Joseph's). They found tremendous fulfillment 'working in the vineyard'. Seeing the impoverished conditions of eastern Kentucky (Harlan County, Appalachia) was enough motivation to work diligently, without complaint, with some long hours and fatigued bodies. The week was too brief as there was a common desire to accomplish more. The local folks with their southern drawl were welcoming and funny, accommodating and giving. They did not lament the lives that were theirs, nor did they ever suggest that God had forsaken them. They live to honor God, openly and with self-less love, through words and deeds. They are an inspiration to all who live haughty lives, to those who desire to increase their material possessions only to impress others. Yes! plans are being laid for a return trip in 2023, God-willing, for the Appalachia vineyard remains to be harvested and humbly improved. Please know, dear Friends, that your prayers were answered each day. God's grace, protection, guidance, and strength enabled the team to humbly assist where called. A very special note of THANKS to our benefactors whose financial support enabled the team to be witnesses in faith to our brothers and sisters in Harlan County. It is a beautiful tribute to the love of God that can be seen, heard, and received.

Corpus Christi Men's Retreat

The Corpus Christi Men's Retreat is quickly approaching. This annual retreat on the beautiful campus of Mount Saint Mary's University has proven to be a very rewarding and faith enriching activity for the thousands and thousands of men who have attended over the years. The 2022 retreat is scheduled for Friday, August 5, to Sunday, August 7. The 2022 retreat master will be Fr. Larry Richards, from the Diocese of Erie (Pa). Fr. Richards has led many retreats and authored numerous books that have helped bring people into a closer relationship with Christ. The theme of this year's retreat is "Love Your Enemies." The Corpus Christi Retreat organizers are hoping to have 400 men participate this year, and the retreat remains open to the entire Diocese of Harrisburg. Individuals that plan on attending the retreat are strongly encouraged to register as soon as possible. The cost of the retreat ranges from $200 to $250 depending on what building on the campus you wish to stay at. The cost of the retreat includes two nights lodging and six meals. A $60 deposit is due at registration, with the remainder of the retreat fee due upon arrival at Mount Saint Mary's on August 5th. Reservations for the retreat need to be made by July 10th. Please contact parish retreat coordinator Craig Redding for more information and/or to register. Craig can be contacted by phone (717) 637-6928 or by e-mail, credding@yapinc.org.

Thank you.

Our Communities
Live the Faith

Catholic Life and Evangelization programs that enhance and grow married life, minister to those in prison and promote pro-life initiatives are supported by the Diocesan Annual Campaign. Catholic Charities and their many services, like counseling to homeless shelters to support for those struggling to maintain sobriety, are also made possible because of support to the DAC. Our collective efforts support all in our faith community when they are most in need.

Learn more and make your gift at www.hbgdiocese.org/DAC.

Pentecost Collection

The Diocese of Harrisburg was blessed to sponsor 19 Seminarians for priestly formation this past year. But these men need your help. Please pray for them, so that they may be formed as good and holy priests. If you are able, please also financially support their formation through the Pentecost Collection the weekend of June 5. The cost to educate one candidate for the priesthood is approximately $40,000 per year. This cost goes beyond the classroom, as the Seminarians are provided room, board, healthcare, and other nominal expenses. Please support our future priests through the Pentecost Collection. Gifts can be made using the special parish envelope or online at www.hbgdiocese.org/pentecost-collection.
