January 3, 2021

Father Steve, Father Jack, Father Brian, Father Tom, and the Staff at Saint Christine's wish all our parishioners peace, health, love and joy in the New Year.

Dear Friends,

As the saying goes, "All good things must come to an end." With the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord next week, the Church will conclude the Christmas season. All of the lights and decorations will be taken down.

According to Pope John Paul II, the Christmas season ends on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2. With all due respect to the late Pope, the liturgical books tell us that the Christmas season ends on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who were so generous with your gifts, cards and expressions of Christmas joy. I speak on behalf of the Parish Staff: we are most appreciative of your kindness, generosity, and good wishes for a joyous Christmas and Happy New Year.

I would also like to thank everyone who made the Advent and Christmas seasons a time of prayerful reflection on the great events of our salvation: the Cantors, Ushers, Lectors, and the crew of volunteers and staff who worked long and hard for Advent and Christmas. The Church was beautifully decorated again this year. It takes a lot of planning, preparation and organization to achieve what you see. Thank you so much for all of your help and hard work.

Last but not least, I would like to thank each and every one of you, our very dedicated and loyal parishioners. A parish exists to serve the people and to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Your presence and support makes St Christine's Parish a place of great joy. Together, we make up the Body of Christ as part of the wider church of Boston and the world. As a parish, we are called to be the local expression of Christ's love for all people. You especially expressed that love with your generous donations to the Giving Tree Program. Your goodness and generosity were truly amazing and inspiring. Thank you for your participation and your presence.

As we continue this New Year, may we continue to grow in Faith, Hope and Love. May we deepen our faith in Jesus Christ as we await His coming again in glory.

Love, Father Steve

WEEKLY SCRIPTURES & THOUGHTS
For the Parish Family of Saint Christine

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD
JANUARY 3, 2021

Reading

Is 60:1-6

Isaiah shows us how Jerusalem (the Jews) will be the light of all the world. Here the world is bestowing riches onto Jerusalem. How we, as the world, give gifts to the kingdom of God?

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

Psalm

Ps 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13.

This is a psalm of Solomon. He tells of the Messiah and how kings will pay homage to him. How are we to pay homage to him? Can the answer be in the last stanza?

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; He shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

Reading

Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6

In Paul's letter to the church at Ephesus, he says that God's kingdom is for all the world, not just the Jews. Like the Jews, what must we do to be coheirs of the promise of Christ Jesus?

Brothers and sisters:

You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Mt 2:2

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mt 2:1-12

Here's the fulfillment of the first reading and the psalm. The Epiphany, the manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles as represented by the Magi, is an example of how God's kingdom is for us all. What must we give to the baby Jesus?

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?"

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet:

And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel."

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child.

When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

Some Thoughts... If I were going to go to visit someone in another town or city, I might first ask someone who knew how to get there to give me some directions. They could give me some general directions and tell me what roads they would recommend that I take. The next thing I would do would be to look it up on a map. The map would show me exactly how to get there. As I traveled, I would keep looking at the map so that I would know exactly where I was and where I was going. If I followed the directions that I had received and used the map to guide me, I would surely find my way.

After Jesus was born, some wise men heard that a King had been born. They wanted to find the King so that they could worship and honor him. They went to Jerusalem and asked some priests there if they knew where to find the King. The priests knew where Jesus was to be born, because they had been told by the prophet Micah, so they told the wise men that they would find the new King in Bethlehem. As you know, the wise men did not have a map to guide them to Bethlehem, but they had something even better. God gave them a star to guide them. So the wise men followed the directions that the priests had given them and followed the star that God gave them and it led them right to Jesus. When they found him, they gave him gifts and bowed down and worshiped him.

Wise men today are still seeking for Jesus. We don't look for him in Bethlehem, because he is no longer there. He is on his throne in heaven. We don't need a map to help us find him -- we don't even need a star to help us find him. We can find our way to Jesus by reading God's Holy Word! The Bible is our map and our star that leads us to Jesus.

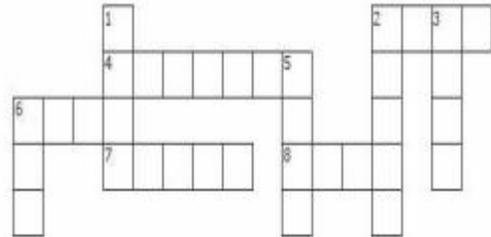

Dear Lord Jesus, we seek you today because we want to worship you and crown you as our King. We are thankful for the Bible which we have been given to lead us to you. Amen.

Here's a couple of ways to help remember that Jesus is here., and will be. Complete the Crossword below—
