Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...heed the voice of the Lord, your God, and keep His commandments and statutes," Moses reminds us that we know the commandments. They are "already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." Simply put, it is to love God and love your neighbor! The Good Samaritan in the gospel parable knew in his heart what he needed to do for the wounded stranger. Living by that commandment is a challenge we strive to live each day. At the end of each day, ask yourself where and to whom did I show love, mercy and kindness. What grace do I need to love God and others tomorrow? Trust and the grace will be given!

Synodality: Walking Together

Many thanks to the parishioners who completed the 118 Surveys and the 39 parishioners who attended one of the three Listening Sessions.

Our complete report of the surveys and Listening Sessions was sent to Pope Francis, Cardinal Sean O'Malley and Reverend Paul Soper who is the Director of the Office of Pastoral Planning for the Archdiocese of Boston.

Copies of the report will be available this weekend in the foyer of the Church and Chapel. All are welcome to take a copy, read it and then return it to the church so that others may have the opportunity to read it.

This completes Saint Christine's participation in Phase I of the World Wide Synod. All the responses of the people of God from Phase I will help usher in Phases 2 and 3.

Many excellent suggestions regarding the revitalization of Saint Christine's Parish were included in our parishioners responses and are in the report.

Special thanks to Saint Christine's Staff, Nelson Pidgeon, Norm Shacochis and Bridgette Anderson of Powder Horn Press.

Dt 30:10-14

Moses tells the people that God's commands and statutes are all that is needed to please God! Moses tells all that God laws have always been near us! He tells the Israelites that God is not "up in the sky", nor "cross the sea", but "near to you". He tells them that God's commandments are in their hearts, close enough to be carried out. Do you keep God's commandments in your heart?

Moses said to the people:

"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul. For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you. It is not up in the sky, that you should say, 'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' Nor is it across the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?' No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

Psalm

Ps 19:8, 9, 10, 11

Like Moses in the first reading, the psalmist has the His commandments in your heart, given to us by the Spirit. The fear (or respect) of the Lord endures forever. The Lord's ordinances (laws) are true for us all, guiding us on his intended path. Can you recall the two commandments that Jesus says fulfills all the laws?

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul; the decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the command of the LORD is clear, enlightening the eye. his tremendous deeds among the children of Adam.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the ordinances of the LORD are true, all of them just.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold; sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb.

R. Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

Col 1:15-20

Notice that some of our creed comes from this verse. Jesus has been with us forever, being the example for us to follow, the head of His church. Also, recall that 'thrones and dominions', etc. refer to other creations, like angels, both good and bad! He has room in heaven for everyone who has been created, all part of his plan! You may want to refer to John 1:1-11,14 Can you see Jesus' plan for you and your family?

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Gospel

Lk 10:25-37

The Scribe knew the Greatest Commandment, basically to love God, but he had difficulty with the second, to love your neighbor. He did not know who his neighbor was. Jesus uses the parable of the "Good Samaritan" to answer him. Now Samaritans were sworn enemies to the Jews at the time. How could a hated enemy be a neighbor? We must learn that the laws are made to get along with each other and not just to be kept, but to make life within the world of our neighbors. Who is your neighbor?

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test him and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Some thoughts...Perhaps you have heard of Fred Rogers. He is better known as "Mr. Rogers" and he once had a television show called "Mr. Rogers' Neighborhood." for many years, a favorite with younger children. Every show began the same way. Mr. Rogers would enter his home, take off his jacket and shoes, and put on a sweater and comfortable tennis shoes while singing his theme song "Won't You Be My Neighbor." The song started out like this... 'It's a beautiful day in this neighborhood! A beautiful day for a neighbor! Would you be mine? Could you be mine?' And it ended like this...'Won't you be my neighbor? Won't you please, won't you please? Please, won't you be my neighbor?'

When Mr. Rogers died several years ago, he had millions of "neighbors" all over the world and, although he was quite famous, he never thought of himself as a TV star. He said, "I always thought I was a neighbor who just came in for a visit." Mr. Rogers knew what it meant to be a good neighbor.

"Who is my neighbor?" the lawyer asked Jesus. To answer this question, Jesus told a story about a man who was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho when he was attacked by robbers. They beat him, took his money, stripped him of his clothes, and left him beside the road to die. A priest came by and when he saw the man, he crossed over to the other side of the road and continued on his way. A little while later, a Levite who worked in the temple came along. He also saw the man lying there and passed by on the other side of the road.

Finally, a man from Samaria came along, and when he saw the man, he stopped to help him. He put medicine on his wounds and wrapped them with bandages. That isn't all. He took the man to an inn and took care of him. The next day, he gave the innkeeper some money and told him to take care of the man. "Give him anything he needs. If it costs more than I have given you, I will pay you the next time I am here."

Then Jesus asked, "Which of these three men was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by the robbers." The lawyer answered, "The one who helped him." "You are right," said Jesus, "now you go and do the same."

The world is full of people today who are in desperate need of a neighbor. "Won't you be my neighbor?" they ask. Just as the good Samaritan in the story helped the one in need, Jesus says to you and me, "Go and do the same."

Front Porch with God

Me: Hi Father...sorry I'm a little late today

God: No problem my friend. You're here. That's all that matters to me. What's going on today?

Me: Well, the "love your neighbor as yourself" and the Good Samaritan piece. That's hard to do. Sometimes I mean.

God: Yes it is. I know it is like that for you. For every-one of you. But I can not soften that up for you, sorry.

Me: Well, sometimes other people make it really hard to like them, or to want to help them.

God: But why should those feelings prevent you from helping out as a "Good Samaritan"? You don't like someone but you can still help them.

Me: They're not going to appreciate my help in that situation! Let someone who they like help them.

God: Whoa!! Hold on. First, you don't know that, you just assume that. Secondly, even if they don't appreciate it, you still did what I asked of you. To love your neighbor, to be a good Samaritan. I did not ask you to help only when you would be appreciated or only your friends.

Me: I know, I know. But ...I don't know. It seems like we've had this discussion before

God: Oh, we have. Many times. And I feel safe in predicting there will many more of these discussions

Me: So I just keep messing it all up

God: Maybe so, but look what I keep doing

Me:maybe I need more help than I want to admit

God: Yeah, most do. That's why we keep praying together, that's why I am always here for you

Me: Praying?

God: Any time you and I are talking, it's praying. Keep that in mind please.

Me: Okay..... Is it ice cream time yet?

God: Any time is ice cream time! I know the perfect flavor based on what we've talked about today. Let's get you some Rocky Road.
