January 18, 2021

The parish office will be closed on Monday, January 18th in observance of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Pardon me if I have said this before. I'm always fascinated by the scientific discoveries made in other planets. I remember watching live with my family NASA's Pathfinder mission landing in Mars in 1997, and watching National Geographic and Discovery channel growing up. When I was deciding what I was going to study in college, astronomy was actually one of the main options. However, the idea of staying up all night looking at the stars all the time was not as romantic as it sounded at first. Since man arrived at the moon, and other rockets getting to other planets, the possibility of finding life out of the earth became a real possibility.

When we speak of "finding life", we mean in simple terms, anything other than rocks. Any molecular structure, or any monocellular "thing" would be considered as "alive." As much as all that fascinates me, it also bewilders me. My confusion, if you want to call it that, is how come such beings could be considered "life" or called "alive," while a fetus, which is a much more complex being, is considered by some as "not alive". In other words, how come a monocellular organism is called a "living being," while a multicellular human being, with tissues, organs (and with a heart that beats at 5-6 weeks) would be called only a "blob or a bunch of cells" and not alive?

Now that the elections are "over," we can speak plainly about beginning of life without being misinterpreted as supporting one candidate over the other. This week marks the anniversary of the decision of the Supreme Court known as "Roe v Wade" that allowed abortion in the US. We as Christians, have the right and the duty to defend life. This also includes many other social issues, especially those that recently were in the headlines: racism, sexism, and others.

However, abortion infringes the very first right of human life as stated by the United Nations. It reads, "Human rights are rights inherent to all human beings, regardless of race, sex, nationality, ethnicity, language, religion, or any other status. Human rights include the right to life and liberty, freedom from slavery and torture, freedom of opinion and expression, the right to work and education, and many more." Before we can address the other issues, we must start from the very beginning. Every baby has the right to have his life protected. We hear and read everywhere about the endangered species of animals, and even recently laws were approved here in MA to protect marine life that impacted the livelihood of so many people. However, recently, the State Senate overrode Gov. Baker's veto on the expansion of abortion which unfortunately will also impact negatively so many lives.

The Catholic Church is the leader in social justice. We have the 7 Principles of Catholic Social Teaching that guide us. Care of all creation is our responsibility as we are to be good stewards of all that God has given us. The first principle of Catholic Social Teaching is the dignity of every human being. It is first for a reason.

Let me pause here to say that this is not a judgement to those who are suffering from the aftermath of abortion. Many women and men who have made this choice were under pressure and not given all of the facts they needed to make a decision for life. They felt alone, unsupported and incapable. This is about helping others to make decisions to prevent further death and suffering. Although abortion may seem to be the solution to unsurmountable problems, it only leads to more serious long-term afflictions. No matter what the circumstances, the child conceived, whose life was given by God, has the right to be born.

We know by Divine Revelation that God is with us, He never abandons us, and He will always be on our side, for the good, the bad and the ugly. What a child needs is support from other people. Mom needs to feel loved, not judged. Our mission to "love one another as God has loved us" becomes more imperative in such moments. So what can we do?

There are pregnancy help centers that help those in need. Here in Marlboro we are blessed to have 2 centers, First Concern (508) 305-2493 (<https://firstconcern.org>) and Birthright (508) 481-2055(<https://birthright.org/marlborough>). Pregnancy Help is under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Boston and there are three locations in Natick (508-651-0753), Brighton and Brockton (<https://upholdingthedignityoflife.org>) Many of our parishioners are involved in assisting at these centers. All inquiries and assistance is always anonymous.

For those who have had an abortion, there are healing opportunities available such as Project Rachel (<https://projectrachelboston.com>), confession and/or spiritual counseling. Finally, and most importantly we pray. We will have our next 24hour adoration this week from Thursday 21st at 6pm to Friday 22nd at 6pm. This will conclude with Mass on 22 January 2021 at 6pm. We will have an opportunity to pray for the unborn children, for those who are suffering, for the healing of those who had either an abortion or miscarriage, and to pray for a conversion of hearts of our lawmakers to defend life from conception to natural death.

Remember all of this is not about judging or condemning. On the contrary, it is about mercy and healing. We don't point fingers, we open our arms. Let us open our spiritual arms to welcome our brothers and sisters who may be in need of our help.

God bless,
Fr Steven

Queen of Virgins

The emblem on the cover of the bulletin is the Queen of Virgins. Commonly known in the Christian tradition as a symbol of purity, the lilies in this emblem are symbolizing those faithful who amidst the temptations of this world ended up victorious against them. Above the lilies lies the promise for those who remain pure in this life: the crown of victory, eternal life. Mary is called "Queen of Virgins" not only because she is the greatest of all virgins, but because she is the exemplar of virginity, and the Queen of all who have vowed themselves to the virgin life for the love of God. She is the one who even after giving birth to Jesus remained a virgin, uncorrupted even in the flesh. Mary had chosen to live as a virgin. This was seen, when in her early teens, she responded to the angel's greeting that she would bear a son whom she would call Jesus. Her life was dedicated to giving herself entirely to God. Human love, expressed through the gift of conjugal love, was sacrificed and surpassed as she freely offered herself totally to her Creator in love. Her response, "I do not know man," (Luke 1:34), signals her modest and chaste attitude toward her chosen life and the future as announced by the angel. Her sinless nature and the singular privilege of becoming the mother of God's Son, granted to her by her Creator, lifted Mary's pure virginity to the highest level of humanity next to that of divinity. She is the perfect example of human cooperation with God's love. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word" (cf. 1:38), was not only Mary's perfect fiat to God's request, but a model for all who dedicate their love and life to God by imitating her virginity.

Religious Education

Religious Education registration for Grades 1-8 is closed. In person classes will begin Sunday, January 17th for those students who are switching from homeschool to in person participation only. Second year First Holy Communion registered students will also meet based on prior format selection.

Registration for Confirmation Preparation is forthcoming and an email with the form and meeting dates will be sent to families who are currently in the system. Please stay tuned .

II Domingo Ordinario

Es hermoso este pasaje del Evangelio. Juan que bautiza; y Jesús, que había sido bautizado antes —algunos días antes—, se acercaba, y pasó delante de Juan. Y Juan sintió dentro de sí la fuerza del Espíritu Santo para dar testimonio de Jesús. Mirándole, y mirando a la gente que estaba a su alrededor, dijo: «Este es el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo». Y da testimonio de Jesús: éste es Jesús, éste es Aquél que viene a salvarnos; éste es Aquél que nos dará la fuerza de la esperanza.

Jesús es llamado el Cordero: es el Cordero que quita el pecado del mundo. Uno puede pensar: ¿pero cómo, un cordero, tan débil, un corderito débil, cómo puede quitar tantos pecados, tantas maldades? Con el Amor, con su mansedumbre. Jesús no dejó nunca de ser cordero: manso, bueno, lleno de amor, cercano a los pequeños, cercano a los pobres. Estaba allí, entre la gente, curaba a todos, enseñaba, oraba. Tan débil Jesús, como un cordero. Pero tuvo la fuerza de cargar sobre sí todos nuestros pecados, todos. «Pero, padre, usted no conoce mi vida: yo tengo un pecado que..., no puedo cargarlo ni siquiera con un camión...». Muchas veces, cuando miramos nuestra conciencia, encontramos en ella algunos que son grandes. Pero Él los carga. Él vino para esto: para perdonar, para traer la paz al mundo, pero antes al corazón. Tal vez cada uno de nosotros tiene un tormento en el corazón, tal vez tiene oscuridad en el corazón, tal vez se siente un poco triste por una culpa... Él vino a quitar todo esto, Él nos da la paz, Él perdona todo. «Este es el Cordero de Dios que quita el pecado»: quita el pecado con la raíz y todo. Ésta es la salvación de Jesús, con su amor y con su mansedumbre. Y escuchando lo que dice Juan Bautista, quien da testimonio de Jesús como Salvador, debemos crecer en la confianza en Jesús.

Muchas veces tenemos confianza en un médico: está bien, porque el médico está para curarnos; tenemos confianza en una persona: los hermanos, las hermanas, nos pueden ayudar. Está bien tener esta confianza humana, entre nosotros. Pero olvidamos la confianza en el Señor: ésta es la clave del éxito en la vida. La confianza en el Señor, confiémonos al Señor. «Señor, mira mi vida: estoy en la oscuridad, tengo esta dificultad, tengo este pecado...»; todo lo que tenemos: «Mira esto: yo me confío a ti». Y ésta es una apuesta que debemos hacer: confiarnos a Él, y nunca decepciona. ¡Nunca, nunca! Oíd bien vosotros muchachos y muchachas que comenzáis ahora la vida: Jesús no decepciona nunca. Jamás. Éste es el testimonio de Juan: Jesús, el bueno, el manso, que terminará como un cordero, muerto. Sin gritar. Él vino para salvarnos, para quitar el pecado. El mío, el tuyo y el del mundo: todo, todo.

Brazilian Community Information

Deus chama os homens e as mulheres à santidade.

- Realizar a vocação à santidade não implica seguir caminhos impossíveis de ascese, de privação, de sacrifício; mas significa, sobretudo, acolher a proposta libertadora que Deus oferece em Jesus e viver de acordo com os valores do Reino. Tendo a coragem de viver e de testemunhar, com radicalidade, os valores do Evangelho, mesmo quando a moda, o orgulho, a preguiça, os interesses financeiros, o “politicamente correcto”, a opinião dominante me impõem outras perspectivas.
- Convém ter sempre presente que a Igreja, a comunidade dos “chamados à santidade”, é constituída por “todos os que invocam, em qualquer lugar, o nome de Nosso Senhor Jesus Cristo”. É importante termos consciência de que, para além da cor da pele, das diferenças sociais, das distâncias sociais ou culturais, das perspectivas diferentes sobre as questões secundárias da vivência da religião, o essencial é aquilo que nos une e nos faz irmãos: Jesus Cristo e o reconhecimento de que Ele é o Senhor que nos conduz pela história e nos oferece a salvação.

A vocação realiza-se plenamente em Jesus Cristo, que trouxe para a terra e para toda a humanidade o projeto divino, a Salvação. A mesma vocação continua convocando os batizados e batizadas a se empenharem a favor do projeto divino. Tenho consciência do apelo que Deus, nesta linha, me faz também a mim? Estou disponível e bem disposto para aceitar esse desafio?
