14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. KAJ....

Jesus made "good trouble" when he began to teach in the synagogue in his hometown of Nazareth. He took a stand for what he believed in and received resistance and rejection from many people. They may have resented him for upsetting the status quo and appearing to elevate himself as he was just an ordinary carpenter from a non-traditional family. Many who heard Jesus teaching in Nazareth were astounded.

But, Jesus did not allow this rejection to prevent him from taking a stand for what he believed in. He knew full well that prophets "are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." But, at the same time, he felt disappointed by this rejection, and Mark tells us that he was "amazed at their unbelief."

Christians are going to face resistance when they stand up for what they believe in sometimes from family members and friends closest to them. Being a disciple of Christ does not always lead to love and admiration—it can sometimes result in rejection.

How can we respond to the call of Jesus to bring good news to the poor, as well as justice and mercy and faith? More than anything else, it is important that we work on these issues together. Jesus himself knew this, which is why he left Nazareth and immediately "called the twelve and began to send them out two by two." There is strength in numbers.

Taking a stand for the needy can get a Christian in trouble, but it can be good trouble. More important than success is faithfulness. We put our faith into action when we try to be the hands and feet of Jesus in the world. As disciples of Christ, we can work together in ways that bring good news to the poor as well as justice, mercy and faith. We may get ourselves in trouble, but it will be God's trouble.

This weekend we welcome Fr. Paul Passant who will speak on behalf of the mission work in Turks and Caicos. Please welcome him, and be as generous as possible in the second collection to assist in their works.

As a reminder, beginning next weekend all the Masses will be moved into the Church for the remainder of the summer. I once again thank everyone who has generously donated to the Annual Appeal and/or our Restoration projects. I appreciate all you do for your Parish. There is still an opportunity to support either effort or both. We also need to replace the sound system in the Chapel. Please contact the Parish Center if you are able to assist.

Fr. Gabriel and I wish all a Happy Independence Day. Happy Birthday, America. Wishing you a wonderful weekend if you are spending it with family or friends. Stay safe.

God Bless,
Fr. Kaj

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Sharing the Gospel

People in his hometown did not believe that Jesus could be smart enough to teach in their temples. They did not believe he could heal. So, he went to other towns to teach and heal. If someone says that you are not smart enough or skilled enough, Jesus understands. He will help you. Tell them, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Prayer

Lord, help me say to myself and others, "You can do it, God will help."

Something to Draw

Draw Jesus welcomed by smiling faces as he teaches and heals in your town.

Mission for the Week

If someone is left out of a game, say, "I will play with you."
