Pastor's Ponderings...

Dear Saint Joseph and All Saints Parishioners:

Has someone told you before, "Wow! You are so good at that!" Or "I wish I could do that like you can." We are not carbon copies of each other. God has made each of us different and unique. He gave us different gifts and talents so that we complement each other. In fact, if we all had the same gifts and talents, life would be...well, boring.

This weekend's Second Reading from Saint Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians describes how each person receives multitudinous gifts from God which are manifestations of the Holy Spirit alive within us. Some receive the gifts of healing, mighty deeds, prophecy and speaking in tongues. To others God gifts discernment of spirits, interpretation of tongues, etc. These gifts are not only meant to enrich the life of the individual who receives them, they are meant to enrich the life of the Church and should be used to build up the Kingdom of God on Earth.

Before we can use these gifts, however, we must discern which gifts we have received. There is no "hard and fast" way to figure out which gifts you have received. We discern them mostly through prayer, trial, and error. You can test your discernment by using the gift you have recognized and, after a certain time, evaluate the results of your attempt using the following basic rules described by Catholic author Sherry Weddell:

1. Effectiveness: A charism will do what it is supposed to do. If you have a charism of teaching, people will learn.
2. Your Experience: God does not give charisms as a form of penance. Using this gift usually makes you feel energized, satisfied and joyful, as though this is where you belong.
3. Response or Affirmation: It is wonderful when people give you feedback. Lots of positive feedback over time may affirm that you have discerned your gifts correctly.

Peace,
Father Ryan

SAINTS JOSEPH PARISH PRAYER LINE

Call Jeanne Dubois, 231-6240, and she will contact the members of the Parish Prayer Line to pray for your intention.

READ

First Reading:

As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride
so shall your God rejoice in you. (Is 62:5)

Psalm:

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations. (Ps 96)

Second Reading:

But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.
(1 Cor 12:11)

Gospel:

Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee
and so revealed his glory,
and his disciples began to believe in him. (Jn 2:11)

REFLECT

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah used marriage imagery (bridge and groom) to describe the Lord's love for his people, Israel. What do you see as some implications of this marriage imagery?

Second Reading:

Paul taught the Corinthians that the individual gifts of the Holy Spirit are meant to benefit and unify the community of faith. How do you use your spiritual gifts within your faith community?

Gospel:

Jesus turning water into wine at the wedding feast in Cana was one of the first public "signs" he performed revealing his divinity. It also showed Jesus' compassion, sparing the family shame at running short of wine. How do you imagine the family reacted to Jesus' intervention and rescue?
