PASSION (PALM) SUNDAY

First Reading: Isaiah 50: 4-7

Chapters 40-55 of the book of Isaiah contain the message of a prophet who spoke to God's people during their exile in Babylon. Several times the prophet speaks about a servant who will one day deliver God's people. Because the servant is portrayed as suffering, Christians have traditionally identified Jesus with this suffering servant.

Second Reading: Philippians 2: 6-11

In the years following Christ's death and resurrection, Christians began to develop the prayers and hymns that would become part of their rituals. In today's passage from the letter to the Philippians, Paul appears to be quoting an early Christian hymn celebrating the dying and rising of Christ.

PARISH APPRECIATION DINNER

Once again, St. John's will be having an Appreciation Dinner in May. Invitations will be in the mail to people actively involved in one or more Parish Ministries. If you know of someone who should have received an invitation, but did not, please call the rectory at 617-846-7400. Sometimes names are inadvertently dropped from the parish list, sometimes letters are lost in the mail.

Congratulations to Felice and Maria Iantosca who are celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary this week. They were married on April 20, 1969.

Novena to St. Anthony of Padua

The Novena to St. Anthony of Padua will be said every Tuesday after the 9:00am Mass through Tuesday, June 11th.

Prayer of St. Anthony

*O God, send forth your Holy Spirit into my heart that I may perceive,
into my mind that I may remember and into my soul that I may meditate.
Inspire me to speak with piety, holiness,
tenderness and mercy.
Teach, guide and direct my thoughts
and senses from beginning to end.
May your grace ever help and correct me
and may I be strengthened now
with wisdom from on high,
for the sake of your infinite mercy.
Amen*

For your personal petitions, votive candles are installed in both the upper church in front of the Blessed Mother and at the rear of the lower chapel next to the petition book. These candles will burn for four hours. Any donation is appreciated.

Catholics Can Always Come Home

Do you know a Catholic who for one reason or another has not been actively practicing his/her faith? Have you felt something missing in you life? Have you been thinking you might return to full and active participation in the church someday? If your answer is yes, this may be the time and opportunity to invite non-active Catholics or yourself to return to your church and to your faith. The church misses you! Won't you consider joining us in our faith journey by renewing your faith and understanding of the church? Please call the parish at 617 846-7400 for more information.

IS THERE ANYONE SICK AMONG YOU?

This question found in the New Testament letter to James gives the response that the sick should call for the priests of the Church who are to pray over and anoint the sick with oil in the name of the Lord. Never hesitate to ask for prayer and the Sacrament of the Sick prior to surgery or when diagnosed with a serious illness. The Sacrament is not looked on as "The Last Rites" but as a powerful instrument of God's healing presence.

Home Visit

If you know of someone who is unable to attend Mass due to age or health problems and would like to receive the Eucharist, please have them call the rectory at 617-846-7400 to arrange a home visit.

JUST TO LET YOU KNOW

After Palm Sunday Masses, the book "Why I LOVE being Catholic" will be available for parishioners to take home—for free! Matthew Kelly shares the answers of people like you to three simple questions: 1. Why do you love being Catholic? 2. What is your favorite memory as a Catholic? 3. As a Catholic, what are your hopes for the future? Those answers are well worth reading (and even passing along to a family member or friend!).

WAY OF THE CROSS FOR LIFE

On Good Friday morning, you are invited to join a peaceful Pro-Life procession in the spirit of Lent and make the Stations of the Cross at five churches in East Boston.

The procession will begin at Most Holy Redeemer Church at 9:00am on Good Friday, April 19, 2019. For more information, contact Sebastian Martelli 617-893-7777.

ANNUAL PALM SUNDAY CONCERT

You are invited to the 34th Annual Ecumenical Palm Sunday Concert, Sunday, April 14th at 7:30pm at Immaculate Conception Church in Malden. Area church choirs and soloists with organ will perform "The Seven Last Words of Christ" by Dubois. A reception will follow in the Parish Hall. For more information 781-324-4941.

Our Men and Women in the Service

*All powerful God,
watch over all our dear ones
who serve this day in the military.
Hold them safely in the palm of Your hand.
Walk with them in Your strength.
Bring comfort when they are troubled;
hope when they are weary.
Remind them of our love.
Merciful Lord,
bring a lasting peace into our midst.
Heal our hearts and help all nations
find ways to live in harmony
so that blood is shed no more.
We ask this in the name of Christ Jesus,
Prince of Peace.
Amen.*

=====
“Just as God is compassionate toward you in a threefold way, so ought you to show compassion toward others in three ways. God’s compassion is gracious, spacious and precious. God’s compassion is gracious, that is, grace filled, because it purifies the soul of vice....God’s compassion is spacious because with the passage of time it extends itself to good works....God’s compassion is precious in the joys of eternal life.”

St. Anthony of Padua
