SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

The prophet Jeremiah preached some 500 years before Christ, at a time when unworthy kings ruled the Jewish people. He looked to the day when God would raise up a good shepherd from the House of David. Later, the Gospel writers emphasized that Jesus was born of the House of David, and Christians have seen him as the fulfilment of this prophecy.

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:13-18

Our second reading is from the letter to the Ephesians. Ephesus was a community made up of Jewish people who had become Christian, and Gentiles who had become Christian. In this part of the letter, the author is addressing Gentiles—people who were once “far off” from the true God, but have “come near”. As a result, both Jews and Gentiles are together as one “new person”, namely the Body of Christ which is the Church.

SANCTUARY CANDLES

During this week of July 18th, the Sanctuary Candles will be burning for the greater glory of God in reparation for forgiven sins for all members of our parish.

This weekend flowers have been placed on our altar in memory of Anthony Struppa lovingly requested by Viola Pucillo.

In Loving Memory

In your charity, please pray for the souls of Dianne Young, Rita Petralia and Peter Fennelly who were buried from St. Michael Parish this past week. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

PRAYERS

If you are in need of someone to pray with you, please call Carolanne (617-846-3227) or Margaret (617-764-6952). “The laws of the Lord are right and those who obey them are happy. The commands of the Lord are just and give understanding to the mind.” Psalm 19:8

GREETINGS AND WISHES FROM FR. ALWIN

Dear Parishioners of St. Michael the Archangel, I hope and pray that everyone is doing well. I write this to thank you all from the bottom of my heart for all the love and support that you showed me this past two years.

As a seminarian, the diaconate assignment will play an important role in his priesthood. In the diaconate assignment, the deacon, the future priest, will learn all the skills needed to be a holy and prayerful priest. I am sure the pastoral skills I learned from Fr. Chris, Fr. Bill, Deacon Jim and the parishioners of St. Michael will make me a holy and joyful priest. And it is my privilege and honor to be part of this vibrant parish of St. Michael this past two years.

It is always a memorable moment when we take a big step in our lives. As you know, I was ordained to the priesthood last May 22. It is one of the most significant moments of my life. I celebrated my first thanksgiving mass at St. John's on May 23. So, being a priest to celebrate the First Thanksgiving Mass is so close to their hearts, and it is also special to me.

Many people worked hard and made my day memorable for me. A special thanks to Fr. Chris, Fr. Bill, Deacon Jim, Vivian, Rick and Leslie for their hard work and for organizing everything nicely. Then I would like to thank the Winthrop Catholic Woman's Club for preparing the wonderful reception after the Mass in the school gym. I also want to thank everyone who attended my First Thanksgiving Mass for your prayerful wishes and gifts.

I thank everyone of the parishioners for their love and support. May God reward you for all that you do for the Church and Her priests.

Though I was ordained without the presence of my parents due to the Covid circumstances in India, your love, support, and prayers made me feel at home. And I am always grateful to St. Michael the Archangel Parish for being a second home for me. Please know that there will be a special place for you all in my heart.

As you know, I am assigned to the Catholic Parishes of Arlington. Please feel free to visit me when you get a chance to come here.

Please continue to pray for me. I also keep you all in my prayers. God bless.

Peace, Fr. Alwin

Congratulations to Brenda Christopher who won the June 29th drawing for the St. Michael Raffle. Next drawing will be on July 29th.
