A Reflection on Today's Gospel
From "The Word Among Us"

When the hour came.....(Luke 22:14)

Jesus knew he was entering into a sacred time. Everything he had said and done for three years was leading to the cross. But he also knew that many in Jerusalem would fail to recognize his arrival as their sacred time, as the hour of their salvation.

Today is the beginning of Holy Week. It's the beginning of our own sacred time. For the next seven days, Jesus will appear before us as the suffering Servant of the Lord. Each day we will hear another story that reveals the depth of his love for us. Each day we will see another facet of what it means that he is the lamb of God who has come to take away our sins.

How will you hear these stories? As snippets of ancient history? As echoes of past religious education classes? Or as life-giving testimonies of a God who loved you—who loves you—enough to sacrifice his life for you?

All week long, you have a golden opportunity to ponder the deepest truths of our faith. And not just to ponder them, but to let the Spirit bring them to life for you. You have the opportunity not just to recall that Jesus died for your sins but to know that every sin you have ever committed can be wiped away. You have the opportunity not just to remember that God raised Jesus from the dead but to know that you are destined for eternal life with him.

The hour has come. Jesus is about to offer himself for you. Don't miss out on the grace of this sacred time. Try to carve out a few extra minutes for prayer each day. Or spend a little more time with the word of God. Or just gaze at the cross a little longer. Let the love that Jesus has for you fill your heart and heal your soul.

"Holy Spirit, let the grace of this Holy Week change my heart."

The Paschal candle will burn brightly throughout the Easter season in loving memory of Anthony and Josephine Maiolino and Bill and Grace Curran. Our thanks to Grace and Peter Maiolino for their generous gift to the parish.

Thanks to the kind generosity of so many, the St. Vincent dePaul Society of St. Michael the Archangel Parish has been able to offer support to those in need, even during the difficult days of the Covid pandemic. Going forward, we offer three ways for you to continue supporting the work of the Society. First, if you are able physically to attend Mass, there are tubes at the doors of the Church where you can deposit your donations. In addition to this option, you may leave your offering at the parish center or in the collection basket in an envelope clearly marked "St. Vincent dePaul". Please know that your generosity is appreciated and that, through you, we are able to attend to the needs of our neighbors.

PRAYERS

If you are in need of someone to pray with you, please call Carolanne (617-846-3227) or Margaret (617-764-6952)
