Year of the EUCHARIST

My Lord and Creator. Your goodness encourages me to converse with You. Your mercy abolishes the chasm which separates the Creator from the creature. To converse with You, O Lord, is the delight of my heart. In You I find everything that my heart could desire. Here Your light illumines my mind, enabling it to know You more deeply. Here streams of grace flows down upon my heart. Here my soul draws eternal life. O my Lord and Creator, You alone, beyond all these gifts give Your own self to me and unite Yourself intimately with your miserable creature. (Saint Faustina)

Gospel Meditation

September 12, 2021 24th Sunday in Ordinary

We need to get our bearings straight and properly lay life's cornerstone. Otherwise, the rest of our journey will be skewed, and our judgment clouded. We can recall Jesus' famous rebuke of Peter, "You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Even he, as one of Jesus' closest friends struggles with understanding things and grasping the big picture.

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (1881-1955) a renowned and learned French Jesuit priest often has these words attributed to him: "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience." Whether they were actually from his lips, they certainly mimic his thought. These wise words orient us and capture the essence of who we really are.

Many people consider spirituality an option. It is no wonder that they come to this conclusion when they predominantly define themselves using human terms and concepts. Immersed in this world view, they struggle finding any semblance of God because God does not work according to human expectations! This is especially true when suffering and death enter life's picture. If we are only human beings having a spiritual experience, then we wrongly expect our spirituality to serve us as we desire. The human expectation is that my spiritual life is something that is useful in avoiding pain, hardship, and death, not something that gives the courage to live through it!

So, when we protest and get upset with God because our journey is becoming difficult, painful, treacherous, disappointing, and even pointing us toward death, Jesus rebukes us as he did Peter and gently reminds us how to see. It is God who inspires and opens hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, the true meaning of things is understood, and we receive a depth of insight and understanding that is not found following purely human paths. It is not our task to understand God, as God is beyond human understanding. Ours is the joyful privilege of simply resting in God's presence simply because God is God and we are who we are. As spiritual beings having an exciting and adventurous human experience, it is in our DNA to do so. Through prayer we can let go and let be. This is how we lose our lives but then save them.

Reconciliation

Confessions continue to be heard on Saturdays from 10:30am to 12 noon.

Priests will be available at the back door of the Church. (near the sacristy)

The Story of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross

Early in the fourth century, Saint Helena, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine, went to Jerusalem in search of the holy places of Christ's life. She razed the second-century Temple of Aphrodite, which tradition held was built over the Savior's tomb, and her son built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher on that spot. During the excavation, workers found three crosses. Legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when its touch healed a dying woman.

The cross immediately became an object of veneration. At a Good Friday celebration in Jerusalem toward the end of the fourth century, according to an eyewitness, the wood was taken out of its silver container and placed on a table together with the inscription Pilate ordered placed above Jesus' head: Then "all the people pass through one by one; all of them bow down, touching the cross and the inscription, first with their foreheads, then with their eyes; and, after kissing the cross, they move on."

To this day, the Eastern Churches, Catholic and Orthodox alike, celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on the September anniversary of the basilica's dedication. The feast entered the Western calendar in the seventh century after Emperor Heraclius recovered the cross from the Persians, who had carried it off in 614, 15 years earlier. According to the story, the emperor intended to carry the cross back into Jerusalem himself, but was unable to move forward until he took off his imperial garb.

Reflection

The cross is today the universal image of Christian belief. Countless generations of artists have turned it into a thing of beauty to be carried in procession or worn as jewelry. To the eyes of the first Christians, it had no beauty. It stood outside too many city walls, decorated only with decaying corpses, as a threat to anyone who defied Rome's authority—including Christians who refused sacrifice to Roman gods. Although believers spoke of the cross as the instrument of salvation, it seldom appeared in Christian art unless disguised as an anchor or the Chi-Rho until after Constantine's edict of toleration.

The Tree of Life is a fund-raising activity. A beautiful bronze structure is placed in the front vestibule of the church and has become a permanent memorial commemorating not only our parishioners, family, friends, and history from the past, but also those of the present, and into the future. Parishioners and Friends of St. Adelaide are able to “purchase” a leaf on the Tree of Life. The leaf will be engraved with the dedication of the contributor and will serve as a lasting remembrance of that dedication for years to come.

We cordially invite you to view the Tree of Life in the vestibule and consider supporting this initiative. The dedicatory inscription that will be located at the base of the Tree of Life summarizes our deepest aspiration for our parishioners and friends: “Happy is that soul in which Mary, the Tree of Life, is planted. Happier still is the soul in which she brings forth her fruit who is Jesus Christ. Happiest of all is the soul who savors the sweetness of Jesus, the fruit of Mary’s womb and holds fast to Him till death and then beyond to all Eternity Leaf is 3.5 inches wide by 2” high.

A maximum of 4 lines of copy using 5th line as a date is recommended.

Maximum 25 characters per line

If you are currently homeschooling, or would like to know more about how to start homeschooling, there is a local Catholic homeschooling group which offers community, support, and activities for children and parents. CHIME (Catholic Homeschoolers in Massachusetts East) was formed 25 years ago, and during that time has facilitated numerous social, educational, and spiritual opportunities for families in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. CHIME is a parent-led group faithful to Jesus Christ through the Catholic Church and her teachings. If you would like more information, please go to chimehomeschool.com or ask questions through the Contact form page.

End of summer BBQ on Saturday, September 18, (with a rain date of September 25, 2021) after the 4:00 mass.

The BBQ will be held on the upper parking lot. Hot dogs, hamburgers, potato chips, soda and water will be served. Tickets are $5.00 per person or $25 for a family of 5 or more. Children under the age of 7 are free. There will be baked goods and ice cream for sale.

We will also have a 50/50 raffle which will have one drawing. This will yield a much larger prize!

The tickets for the 50/50 are $5.00 each or three for $10.00. Tickets for both the 50/50 and the BBQ are being sold after each Mass thru September 18. The drawing for the 50/50 will be live streamed on the day after the fair. Either Father David or Father Raymond will draw the winning ticket. Good luck to all! We hope to have a great turnout.

Bring your chairs and join us as we gather in fellowship and friendship. We hope a good time will be had by all.

BAKERS WANTED!

Please help us by baking for the church BBQ. We need cookies and brownies.

Please put 4 cookies or brownies into a baggie so we can sell them at the cook-out.

Religious Education 2021/2022

Our season will begin with an Opening Mass and Blessing of Students at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, September 19th.

A detailed schedule along with the at-home materials will be available for pick up before and after Mass on that day.

Just a reminder, in order to help us plan appropriately, we need an accurate count of students. If you have not yet done so, we ask that you please submit your completed registration form as soon as possible. If you need a form, please contact the Parish Center at 978.535.1985.

We continue to monitor COVID 19 changes and restrictions and will adjust our program as necessary.

Saint Ann and Saint Adelaide Collaborative Pastoral Council

Saint Adelaide's and Saint Ann's will be forming a single new collaborative pastoral council this fall, replacing the current parish councils. This is the expectation of the collaborative Archdiocesan initiative known as Disciples in Mission.

The focus of the new Collaborative Council will be on implementing the Disciples in Mission initiative of evangelization, with a particular goal of forming a pastoral plan.

Each parish will have 4 selected parishioners, and the Pastor will appoint 1 additional parishioner from each parish. Thus, the total number of collaborative council members will be 10. The requirements for membership will include two Archdiocesan training sessions for Disciples in Mission, a commitment to monthly collaborative meetings, as well as a commitment to working on the formulation of a Pastoral Plan.

On the weekends of September 18-19 and 25-26, parishioners will be asked to nominate persons to serve on the Collaborative Council. The nominees will be contacted by the Pastor to ensure that they wish to serve on the Council and are willing to actively participate in the work of Council.

Please prayerfully consider being a part of this new Collaborative Council.

The Story of Our Lady of Sorrows

For a while there were two feasts in honor of the Sorrowful Mother: one going back to the 15th century, the other to the 17th century. For a while both were celebrated by the universal Church: one on the Friday before Palm Sunday, the other in September.

The principal biblical references to Mary's sorrows are in Luke 2:35 and John 19:26-27. The Lucan passage is Simeon's prediction about a sword piercing Mary's soul; the Johannine passage relates Jesus' words from the cross to Mary and to the beloved disciple. Many early Church writers interpret the sword as Mary's sorrows, especially as she saw Jesus die on the cross. Thus, the two passages are brought together as prediction and fulfillment.

Saint Ambrose in particular sees Mary as a sorrowful yet powerful figure at the cross. Mary stood fearlessly at the cross while others fled. Mary looked on her Son's wounds with pity, but saw in them the salvation of the world. As Jesus hung on the cross, Mary did not fear to be killed, but offered herself to her persecutors. John's account of Jesus' death is highly symbolic. When Jesus gives the beloved disciple to Mary, we are invited to appreciate Mary's role in the Church: She symbolizes the Church; the beloved disciple represents all believers. As Mary mothered Jesus, she is now mother to all his followers. Furthermore, as Jesus died, he handed over his Spirit. Mary and the Spirit cooperate in begetting new children of God—almost an echo of Luke's account of Jesus' conception. Christians can trust that they will continue to experience the caring presence of Mary and Jesus' Spirit throughout their lives and throughout history.
