Pastoral Reflections from Father Anthony

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

The Son of God not only shared the human condition, but he also shared the fate of the weak. When we contemplate the passion and death of Jesus, we do not see that it is a far-away matter because every day in the world has many, there are innocent Jesus who are still convicted as criminals with injustice, humiliation, hatred, abuse and mistreatment to death. Jesus is on the side of the needy. He is carrying their cross, like them and with them. Thus, when we carry the cross and follow Jesus, we also share in the cross of all humankind

Walking the Way of the Cross with God during Lent will help us to be more receptive with our own cross, more sensitive to the cross of others, and to realize that we are responsible before the other's passions which are happening each day in the world today. Jesus went down to the bottom of human condition, where he wants to sow hope for those who are despairing and to give a new life to those who are suffering by accepting it all with a giving love, thanks to which the cross blossomed and the abyss was full of vitality.

When contemplating the Passion of Jesus, we are not the outsiders. We may find ourselves like Judah, who was chosen, loved, and very close to his Master and witnessed many miracles, hearing many golden words from Jesus. All fell apart when Judas sold Jesus with a betrayal kiss, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?" (Lk 22:48).

We find ourselves like Peter, who was proud of his love for Jesus, and then to easily deny him before a young servant girl, "Before the cock crows today, you will deny me three times" (22:61b). The cock-crow awakening Peter and the forgiving glint of Jesus's eye making Peter cry are still wafting in somewhere in our lives, "He went out and began to weep bitterly" (Lk 22:62).

We find ourselves like Pilate. He is tied up firmly by fear: fear of the rebellion of people, fear of losing his office. He lost his freedom because of the pressure of the yelling crowd, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" (Lk 23:21). He did not have enough ability to release an innocent person. We also find ourselves like Herod, who was curious, eager, waiting for Jesus to do miracles. But he was soon disappointed when he saw him so silent. He was sad because he did not meet the Jesus he wished.

The Passion of the Lord, however, had some bright spots: Simon carried Jesus' cross, and the women followed weeping. The brighter of all was from the good thief. One who was crucified believed in another crucified. He believed that Jesus was innocent and asked Him to remember him, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Lk 23:42). His belief made him become the first person to receive salvation, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise" (Lk 23:43).

So, despite facing with disease, disaster, difficulties, suffering, or many unwanted things, although life is blended with many sadness and sorrow, success, failure, separation or death, we must be determined to keep our deep hope and trust in God. For when we know how to welcome all in love and trust in God, we will find new meaning of life in deaths that are occurring in our daily lives.

In this Mass, let's ask God to increase our faith in order to love only God and our neighbors, welcoming the challenges of life with all our conviction in God so that we may be resurrected with him in every step of life. Amen.

Dancing with the Saints

Join us to learn the basics and fundamentals of Ballroom Dancing. This is a way to bring the church community together and have some fun.

When: March 4th to May 28th , 2022

Day and Time: 7pm to 8:30pm

Where: St John the Baptist Parish Lower church Hall.

In their book, Miracles of the Eucharist, authors Bob and Penny Lord recount a number of Eucharistic miracles from around the world. One in particular took place in a church in the town of Lanciano in Italy. It was in the 700's A.D. that the bread and wine from the Eucharist became actual human flesh and blood. This flesh and blood have been left in their natural state exposed to normal atmospheric conditions and without the addition of any chemical preservatives. They have been tested many times, most recently in 1970, and have been found to be real human flesh and blood type AB.

Anyone interested in, or questioning, the reality of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist will find this to be a very interesting book. It would make a wonderful Easter gift for oneself or for someone who is going through doubt.

Also! If you or a loved one is doubtful, pray to Blessed Carlo Acutis (Model of Holiness) who lived for Christ. There is a website that explains about this young holy man's life who died at the age of 15 in 2006 – www.miracolieuucaristici.org. It is worth taking the time to view, read and listen to!

If you would like to share your own story about belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, please send it to me at gerannjo@yahoo.com or if you do not have a computer you may send in your hand-written testimony to me at the following street address: Gerald Johnston, 41 Goodale Street, Haverhill, MA 01830-4209.

We all need to hear your story. Your article can appear anonymously if you prefer. However, I need to know your name to confirm . Just let me know if you want it to be anonymous. Thank you and God Bless,

Gerry Johnston, Year of the Eucharist Coordinator.

Pregnancy Care Center
