Pastoral Reflections from Father Anthony*3rd EASTER SUNDAY

Peter's life was in full swing. He went from one mistake to another. When Jesus was arrested and convicted, Peter denied him three times. He denied him not because he did not love him but because he was too weak. Before the death of Jesus, Peter was scared and found a way to save himself. But when remembering Jesus' words and lovingly forgiving glint, Peter cried and sobbed like a baby with tears of repentance. His life was torn between weakness and fearlessness, between completeness and incompleteness, between far and near, between heaven and earth. His heart was in darkness looking for the light, in repentance seeking forgiving love. His life had confidence but he stumbled. He strived forward but met failure. In the fall and weakness of human condition, Peter always had a sincere heart and an ardent love for God.

The story of this Sunday's Gospel talks about a dark night at the Sea of Tiberias. The Risen Lord brought Peter's life from the dark night toward a wanderer's life of hardships for the kingdom of heaven. His mission to follow Christ started from here. Seven disciples went fishing. They spent the whole night without catching any fish. The Risen Jesus came and gave them an unusual catch of fish.

After that catch of fish, Jesus asked Peter: "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs" (Jn 20:15). God asked three times, and three times Peter identified his love for him. Those three answers were to baptize his past. Jesus gave his Church to him.

Then Jesus said to him: "When you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go" (Jn 21:18). John's Gospel explained this road clearly: "He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God" (Jn 21:19).

Then the Lord said to him, "Follow me" (Jn 21:19b). Just waiting for a such call, Peter immediately hit the road to carry out the mission Jesus gave him. From that moment, the glorious historical pages of the early Church were written by the Apostle with the burning love for God.

Thus, love is the fundamental condition to be able to fulfill the mission God entrusted to us because love makes life and is for life. Indeed, without love, our work, no matter how successful, is just adorned and polished for ourselves. Thus, when people are falling in love, they are willing to sacrifice their life for each other and overcome all difficulties and challenges to come together because love makes life and is for life, and that is the proof of a true love, "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (Jn 15:13).

Thus, St. Augustine is right when he said, "Ubi amatur, non laboratur." That means that when falling in love, people do not care about trials or hardship. It is the same for God. If we do not love God or love him too little, prayer is boring. Going to church is a burden. Carrying the cross is torture. If we really love God, we love to pray, we are happy to come to church. So, to become a true disciple, the necessary thing to have is the love of God.

So, let us pray that we will always love God with all our hearts, so that we may meet him in those around us, through our concern, love, tolerance and understanding we show to others. Amen.

Year of the EUCHARIST

In their book, Miracles of the Eucharist, authors Bob and Penny Lord recount a number of Eucharistic miracles from around the world. One in particular took place in a church in the town of Lanciano in Italy. It was in the 700's A.D. that the bread and wine from the Eucharist became actual human flesh and blood. This flesh and blood have been left in their natural state exposed to normal atmospheric conditions and without the addition of any chemical preservatives. They have been tested many times, most recently in 1970, and have been found to be real human flesh and blood type AB. Anyone interested in, or questioning, the reality of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist will find this to be a very interesting book. It would make a wonderful Easter gift for oneself or for someone who is going through doubt.

Also! If you or a loved one is doubtful, pray to Blessed Carlo Acutis (Model of Holiness) who lived for Christ. There is a website that explains about this young holy man's life who died at the age of 15 in 2006 – www.miracolieucharistici.org. It is worth taking the time to view, read and listen to!

If you would like to share your own story about belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, please send it to me at gerannjo@yahoo.com or if you do not have a computer you may send in your hand-written testimony to me at the following street address: Gerald Johnston, 41 Goodale Street, Haverhill, MA 01830-4209.

We all need to hear your story. Your article can appear anonymously if you prefer. However, I need to know your name to confirm. Just let me know if you want it to be anonymous. Thank you and God Bless,

Gerry Johnston, Year of the Eucharist Coordinator.
