Pastoral Reflections from Father Anthony

5TH EASTER SUNDAY

No one can live in the world without love. Love is something very sacred, so it is hard to find a perfect definition of love. So, humanity has always been trying find a true definition of love.

St. John said, "God is love" (1 Jn 4:8). Today's Gospel said, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (Jn 13:34). These are the last words of Jesus about love that still sting us. He here does not remind us to love outsiders, but he requires his disciples to love one another. Loving one another becomes the new commandment because he asks them to love one another as he loved them.

The key issue here is to feel his love for us or not? Before proclaiming this new commandment, Jesus washed the feet of his disciples, including Judas. He bent down at Judas' feet to show his love. He then dipped the morsel that was given to Judas as a final loving beckon (Jn 13:26). But in vain, Judas did not change his mind. He still went out to do what he wanted, "So he took the morsel and left at once" (Jn 13:30). Jesus knew the fate that awaited him. He would love to the end by giving his life on the cross, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him" (Jn 13:31).

There are many signs that one recognizes a Christian: wearing a cross around the neck, making a sign of the cross before eating, and so on. But according to Jesus, the hallmark or identity of the Lord's disciples is the love that they have for each other: sympathy, forgiveness, collaboration, sacrifice, sharing, dialogue and so on. Among the disciples, there are so many differences and barriers. If we cannot overcome them, it is considered that our mission has been broken and our religious life will be torn into pieces.

Unfortunately, there is no unity among Christians, because of the difference in color, culture, political views, and so on. Indeed, there is disagreement between Catholicism and the Orthodox Church, between Catholics and Protestants, and between Catholics and Muslims. The world today is like a desert absent from love. There are lovers who are not willing to sacrifice for their loved ones and some who sacrifices but does not love. So, the family is still not a true loving nest, and the world still has unfair situations happening such as war and hatred, and people just want to love themselves but are not willing to share with others.

Therefore, loving each other does not mean looking together in one direction, but looking at our neighbor to see what they need to help when possible. If they are suffering, comfort; disappointed, bring hope; tired of living, making life lovely.

May every Christian become a beautiful oasis inviting everyone to come. To do so, we ask the Father to send the Holy Spirit upon us, so that we may dare to deny ourselves, seeking the truth everywhere and in everyone, especially in those who have different views, through listening to each other with our hearts, understanding each other even in their differences without prejudice, and trusting each other's goodwill. Thanks to that, we can overcome petty pride, selfishness, prejudices and cooperate with each other in building the Kingdom of God on earth so that all Christians can recite the Lord's Prayer, celebrate Easter together and celebrate one liturgy together. May God bless each one of us. Amen.

Year of the EUCHARIST

In their book, Miracles of the Eucharist, authors Bob and Penny Lord recount a number of Eucharistic miracles from around the world. One in particular took place in a church in the town of Lanciano in Italy. It was in the 700's A.D. that the bread and wine from the Eucharist became actual human flesh and blood. This flesh and blood have been left in their natural state exposed to normal atmospheric conditions and without the addition of any chemical preservatives. They have been tested many times, most recently in 1970, and have been found to be real human flesh and blood type AB. Anyone interested in, or questioning, the reality of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist will find this to be a very interesting book. It would make a wonderful Easter gift for oneself or for someone who is going through doubt.

Also! If you or a loved one is doubtful, pray to Blessed Carlo Acutis (Model of Holiness) who lived for Christ. There is a website that explains about this young holy man's life who died at the age of 15 in 2006 – www.miracolieucaaristici.org. It is worth taking the time to view, read and listen to!

If you would like to share your own story about belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, please send it to me at gerannjo@yahoo.com or if you do not have a computer you may send in your hand-written testimony to me at the following street address: Gerald Johnston, 41 Goodale Street, Haverhill, MA 01830-4209.

We all need to hear your story. Your article can appear anonymously if you prefer. However, I need to know your name to confirm. Just let me know if you want it to be anonymous. Thank you and God Bless, En su libro, Milagros de la Eucaristía, los autores Bob y Penny Lord relatan una serie de milagros eucarísticos de todo el mundo. Uno en particular tuvo lugar en una iglesia en el pueblo de Lanciano en Italia. Fue en el año 700 d.C. que el pan y el vino de la Eucaristía se convirtieron en carne y sangre humana. Esta carne y esta sangre han sido dejadas en su estado natural expuestas a las condiciones atmosféricas normales y sin la adici3n de conservantes químicos. Se han probado muchas veces, la más reciente en 1970, y se ha descubierto que son de carne y sangre humana real tipo AB.

Cualquier persona interesada o que cuestione la realidad de la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Sagrada Eucaristía encontrará que este es un libro muy interesante. Sería un maravilloso regalo de Pascua para uno mismo o para alguien que está pasando por dudas.

¡También! Si usted o un ser querido tiene dudas, ore al Beato Carlo Acutis (Modelo de santidad) que vivió para Cristo. Hay un sitio web que explica sobre la vida de este joven santo que murió a la edad de 15 años en 2006: www.miracolieuucaristici.org. ¡Vale la pena tomarse el tiempo para ver, leer y escuchar!

Si desea compartir su propia historia sobre la creencia en la Presencia Real de Jesús en la Eucaristía, envíemela a gerannjo@yahoo.com o, si no tiene una computadora, puede enviar su testimonio escrito a mano a en la siguiente direcci3n: Gerald Johnston, 41 Goodale Street, Haverhill, MA 01830-4209. Todos necesitamos escuchar tu historia. Su artículo puede aparecer de forma anónima si lo prefiere. Sin embargo, necesito saber su nombre para confirmarlo. Solo déjame saber si quieres que sea anónimo. Gracias y Dios te bendiga,
