WESHARE DONOR MATCH PROGRAM

The holiday season is one of the largest giving seasons for our church. Our online giving provider WeShare is generously providing a donor match program to help us increase recurring giving. Online gifts help reduce costs and our time spent handling other forms of payment.

For every first gift from a new recurring donor that is added between November 1 and December 31, 2021, WeShare will match that first gift, up to $50, with a maximum match of $1,000 for our church. To be eligible for the matching gift, more than one installment must be set-up and the first recurring gift must be transacted by December 31, 2021.

We appreciate your generosity and your support of our church. We prayerfully ask that you consider helping us meet this goal by creating your recurring online gift today.

Visit our WeShare site or reach out to the

Merry Christmas

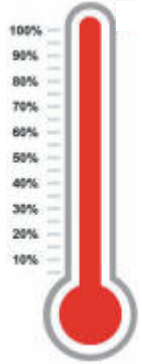

Understanding Holy Days of Obligations & Sunday/Weekend Obligations

By common agreement among the bishops of the Province of Boston (ME, NH, VT, MA), Catholics once again are obligated to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation as of June 20, 2021.

- Saturday, December 25—Christmas. Masses celebrated on Saturday evening, December 25, must use the Mass texts and readings for Christmas. Individuals can fulfill the obligation to attend Mass on Christmas anytime from the evening of Friday, December 24, through the evening of Saturday, December 25. Individuals can fulfill the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday, December 26, anytime from the evening of Saturday, December 25 (even though the Mass texts will be for the Nativity), through Sunday evening, December 26. Individuals must satisfy both obligations, one to attend Mass for Christmas, and another to attend Mass for Sunday.
- In 2022, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, January 1, falls on a Saturday. By decision of the USCCB, there is no obligation to attend Mass on January 1 when it occurs on a Saturday or on a Monday.

Parish raises $40,304.00 in Offertory Recovery Campaign.

On October 13, 2020 Parishioners' of St. John Vianney Parish were invited to engage in their life of faith. Parish offertory had declined by 12.47% and thus the Parish Offertory Campaign was launched with a goal of $39,333.00. Your overwhelming response is a living example of the way you live the Gospel truth in your daily life. Thank you for your generous support and encouragement.

Mask Notice

In the light of increasing COVID-19 transmission in nearly all counties in Maine, Bishop Deeley is directing parishes to strongly urge all persons attending Mass to wear a mask for their own protection. This is not a mandate.

It is strongly urged.

Vaccination and the Catholic Church Information

The Diocese of Portland is providing a number of different resources to explain the importance of receiving the COVID-19 vaccine as an act of protecting and preserving the common good. To view the resources, visit www.portlanddiocese.org/BacktoMassResources.

Returning to Mass FAQs

What is the Eucharist?

The term “Eucharist” refers both to the eucharistic sacrifice — the Mass — and the sacramentally transformed bread and wine that, by the words of Christ and the invocation of the Holy Spirit, become Christ's body and blood. Catholics ordinarily receive holy Communion during the Mass because the Mass is both the sacrificial memorial in which the sacrifice of the cross is perpetuated and the sacred banquet of communion with the Lord's body and blood.

Why are Catholics normally obligated to attend Mass?

As Catholics, we are invited by God to gather together in community and participate fully in the Sunday Eucharist, which is the “source and summit of the Christian life.”

Participation in the communal celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is a testimony of belonging and of being faithful to Christ and to his Church” (Catechism no. 2182). The Sunday and holy day obligation is not something God asks of us out of his own necessity or need to be worshipped but, rather, a gift to the faithful for our own spiritual well-being, happiness, and eternal salvation.

Does this mean everyone is obligated to go to Mass again?

No. The Church has always recognized that there are “serious” or “grave” reasons that prevent Catholics from attending Mass. Examples include if a person is sick or homebound, caring for such a person, living in or visiting areas of the world where access to Mass is impossible, or working to support one’s family.

I am unsure if I have a “serious reason” to stay home, what should I do?

Anyone who is unsure about their personal situation should speak with a priest.

Why should I come back to Mass after many years?

Perhaps you have been away from the church for a short while or a long while. The reason you are thinking about coming back is because you have come to realize that material things do not bring peace and fulfillment. You have been feeling a pull inside you, hearing a little voice beckoning for you to turn back to the Lord and rejoin the Catholic Church. These are the urgings of the Holy Spirit. We pray that God might provide wisdom and judgment to those considering a return to the Catholic Church and give them the strength to act upon the results of their discernment.

What do I need to do to come to Mass?

Anyone, whether practicing Catholic, inactive Catholic, ex-Catholic, other Christian, or someone not in a church, is welcome to come to Mass. For those who have been away from the Catholic Church or have not participated in Catholic worship, attending Mass is a very spiritual insight into the Catholic faith. All are welcome!

What do I need to do to return to the sacraments (receive holy Communion)?

We should start with the assumption that you have received formation and have received the sacraments of penance and Eucharist (holy Communion). If not, then sacramental preparation would be needed prior to receiving those sacraments. Being away from the practice of your Catholic faith would normally mean that to return to the Communion table one would have to go to confession first. In any event, attending Mass and participating in any of the other rich fare offered by the Church is highly recommended. In many cases, a valid confession would be the only step necessary to begin receiving holy Communion again. The best advice would be to contact your parish office to schedule an appointment with a priest to discuss your specific situation.

What do I need to do about a marriage outside the Church?

If you have married outside the Catholic Church, there are many factors that will determine what will need to happen for you to have your current marriage recognized by the Church and be able to return to the reception of the sacraments such as holy Communion. None of this stands in the way of attending Mass and participating in any of the other worship, educational offerings, or social opportunities offered by the Church. Because of the many possible scenarios, the best advice would be to contact your parish office to schedule an appointment with a priest to discuss your specific situation.

Christmas the Birth of Jesus

T'was the night before Christmas God glanced over the Earth,
 He looked to and fro all over its girth.
 They missed it again he said with a sigh,
 A heavy heart and a tear in his eye.
 I gave them my son so they could be free,
 My greatest gift to them from me.
 They traded me in for a man in red,
 A little tree, and a horse drawn sled.
 How do I save them and make them see,
 My love is complete , my grace is free.
 How do I help them when all they know,
 Is a talking snowman and a box with a bow.
 Maybe next year they will stop and see,
 The biggest gift of Christmas is the little child from me.

Let us never forget, Jesus is the reason for the season!
