Understanding Holy Days of Obligations & Sunday/Weekend Obligations

By common agreement among the bishops of the Province of Boston (ME, NH, VT, MA), Catholics once again are obligated to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation as of June 20, 2021.

- Saturday, December 25—Christmas. Masses celebrated on Saturday evening, December 25, must use the Mass texts and readings for Christmas. Individuals can fulfill the obligation to attend Mass on Christmas anytime from the evening of Friday, December 24, through the evening of Saturday, December 25. Individuals can fulfill the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday, December 26, anytime from the evening of Saturday, December 25 (even though the Mass texts will be for the Nativity), through Sunday evening, December 26. Individuals must satisfy both obligations, one to attend Mass for Christmas, and another to attend Mass for Sunday.

- In 2022, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, January 1, falls on a Saturday. By decision of the USCCB, there is no obligation to attend Mass on January 1 when it occurs on a Saturday or on a Monday.

Mask Notice

In the light of increasing COVID-19 transmission in nearly all counties in Maine, Bishop Deeley is directing parishes to strongly urge all persons attending Mass to wear a mask for their own protection. This is not a mandate.

It is strongly urged.

Vaccination and the Catholic Church Information

The Diocese of Portland is providing a number of different resources to explain the importance of receiving the COVID-19 vaccine as an act of protecting and preserving the common good. To view the resources, visit

The Light of the Moon

If you own a television that has been turned on at any point in the last month or so, chances are you've caught at least a scene or two of the 1946 classic film "It's a Wonderful Life." If you're not familiar with the movie, it follows the life of George Bailey from childhood through adulthood. A dreamer by nature, George has big plans for himself that involve world exploration and adventure — but family and community obligations keep him tethered to the same spot on the map, leading an altogether ordinary life.

One of the most memorable scenes from that movie is of George dancing with his sweetheart Mary while they sing "Buffalo Gals — Won't you come out tonight/And dance by the light of the moon?"

That lyric always catches my ear. Of course, the moon doesn't have any light of its own. All the moon has is the ability to reflect the light that shines upon it.

The same holds for us, doesn't it? Our stewardship is purely a reflection of the grace granted to us by another. "Upon you the LORD shines," writes Isaiah, "and over you appears his glory." Every good action we will ever take begins in the mind of God. The fact that we have the honor of carrying it out on His behalf is a beautiful gift. It is God that makes our ordinary lives extraordinary.

In the end of the movie, George Bailey realizes that he had a far greater life because, instead of being the hero of his own story, he allowed himself to reflect goodness onto others.

Remember — the magi didn't chart their own course. They merely followed the star.

Return. Renew. Rediscover.

You are invited.

Masks are strongly recommended for all persons in church.

I want to personally invite you to return to Mass in our Maine churches! Effective the weekend of June 19-20, the obligation to participate in Sunday Mass was reintroduced, another step toward a sense of normalcy and the way of life we treasure. As is always the case, the obligation does not apply to those who have serious reasons for not attending in person.

The celebration of Mass as a community, and the special nature of Sunday as a day on which we give thanks to God for his goodness to us, is central to who we are as Christians and Catholics. It is an ancient practice which is at the heart of our faith. In our gathering for Mass, together, we give thanks to God for the gift of salvation and life.

We sometimes hear people say that "I am spiritual, but I don't need to go to church to connect with God." An isolated faith is not what Jesus intended for his followers. We come to know him through our being together, and together, we bring him with us when we depart from the church to share our faith in him with others.

Our gathering provides the venue where we encounter Jesus Christ in ways that bring true meaning to our lives. Celebrating the Eucharist is the primary place in which we are community. It is the source and summit of our faith. Here, Jesus unites us in himself as we receive his body and his blood, and we experience ourselves as Church gathered in Christ. He speaks to us, feeds us, and assures us of his eternal presence. We can only experience his real presence fully when gathered together in the Eucharist.

It has been a long 15 months. We have missed the company of one another. More importantly, I hope we have realized that the loss was not just a case of missing one another; it was the loss of our sense of being Church, of the way in which our gathering as God's people at Mass is not just a nice way to be together, but it is a sacred duty we have to each other and God. Together, we form the Church, and when we worship together at Eucharist, we believe that we will find Jesus in our community.

The diocese has been guided by experts and science in making decisions throughout the pandemic. We have acted with caution and continue to do so. Our use of vaccinations has grown sufficiently to allow us to safely reopen and gratefully welcome people back in our places of worship. There is no substitution to experiencing Christ in person in the Mass.

Please take this invitation to heart. Help those in your life who are hesitant to return to understand why they should come back. In the words of Pope Francis, when we joyfully gather, exchanging smiles and sharing in our faith, the Church becomes "a large and welcoming room where everyone can enter and meet the Lord."

I look forward to seeing you soon!

Bishop Robert P. Deeley, JCD
