Roman Catholic Diocese of Portland Latest Recommendations from the Office of Communication

Mask Notice

In the light of increasing COVID-19 transmission in nearly all counties in Maine, Bishop Deeley is directing parishes to strongly urge all persons attending Mass to wear a mask for their own protection. This is not a mandate.

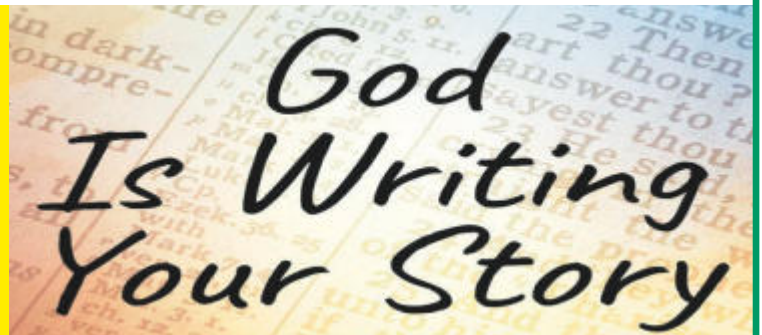

It is strongly urged.

Vaccination and the Catholic Church Information

The Diocese of Portland is providing a number of different resources to explain the importance of receiving the COVID-19 vaccine as an act of protecting and preserving the common good.

Saint of the Week

Saint José Gabriel del Rosario Brochero Feast: January 26

The fourth of ten children born to devout Catholic parents, José grew up on the outskirts of Córdoba, Argentina. He entered the seminary at age sixteen and was ordained ten years later. One of his first efforts as a priest was the care of the sick and dying during a brutal cholera epidemic.

Three years after ordination, José was assigned to the parish of Saint Albert, where ten thousand parishioners were scattered over 1,675 square miles of rugged highland. José served his far-flung flock by riding a mule from place to place. With his sombrero and poncho, he looked more like gaucho, or cowboy, than a priest. Yet, he was ready to say Mass at a moment's notice.

After he led his people on a grueling 125 mile journey to attend the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius in Córdoba, José began to build roads. He was often seen laboring alongside his own parishioners in the work. He convinced the government to finance the construction that opened the way for the postal service and the telegraph. José even sketched plans for the railroad.

José was attentive to the poor, the sick, and the abandoned. After he had embraced and cared for a leper, he contracted the disease himself. The last three years of his life were spent in offered suffering. His final words: "Now I have everything ready for the journey." (Magnificat)

"When we receive holy Communion, we experience something extraordinary - a joy, a fragrance, a well-being that thrills the whole body and causes it to exalt." - St. John Vianney

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Our Parish Library has many wonderful books and DVDs available to be checked out. Learn about Church history and teachings and some of the famous and not-so-famous saints. We have many titles in the "spirituality" category that cover topics such as prayer, death, heaven and practices for living a full Christian life.

The library is located in the rectory, across from the main office. It is open 8am to 4pm, Monday through Thursday.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 23, 2022
