Saint of the Week

Saint Blaise—Patron of throat ailments Feast: February 3

Blaise was a bishop in Sebaste in Armenia (located today in Turkey) who was martyred under Emperor Licinius about the year 316. According to tradition, when persecutions began, Blaise fled to the wilderness near Sebaste. He had been a physician before his election to the episcopacy and in hiding continues a healing ministry, laying hands on the wounded wild animals that came to present themselves to him in his cave. Blaise was eventually found and arrested by Roman soldiers, and as he was escorted to prison, he performed another act of kindness for a woman who was in distress because her pig had been snatched by a wolf. After Blaise prayed with her, the pig was miraculously restored.

It was in prison that Blaise performed the miracle for which he is best known, coming to the aid of a young boy who was choking on a fish bone caught in his throat. Blaise's prayers for the boy brought about a miraculous save, and the boy's mother (the woman whose pig was restored, according to some) brought candles to the prison as a gift of thanks.

The practice of going to Saint Blaise for help with throat ailments dates to the 6th century, and it continues today in the blessing of the throats that is still offered on his feast in many parishes. The carding comb, which was used as an instrument in Blaise's torture, features in pictures of the saint. (Magnificat)

Blessing of the Throats

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window. As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

Immaculate Conception

Question: I’ve heard people call Jesus’ conception by the Holy Spirit being “immaculately conceived.” Is that what the Immaculate Conception is?

Answer: While these two events are often confused, they are not the same thing. We celebrated the conception of Jesus on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. While that was surely miraculous, it isn’t what we refer to as the “immaculate conception.” The Immaculate Conception is Mary’s conception, and we typically celebrate it on December 8th. If the 8th happens to be a Sunday, the Church moves the feast to December 9th. It is a holy day of obligation. Why does the Church consider it so important to celebrate? Mary’s conception is immaculate because she was conceived without original sin. The angel Gabriel acknowledges this when he hails Mary as “full of grace” (Luke 1:28). Scripture scholars identify several theological ideas that confirm this. In the Old Testament, the sacred, pristine Ark of the Covenant held the presence of God. The presence of God is now held within a new “arc” — the womb of Mary. Genesis 3 also prophesies of a woman who would oppose the devil and whose child would crush the devil’s head. Christ is the “New Adam.” This passage sets up Mary, then, as the “New Eve.” Jesus and Mary are the beginnings of a new creation, one we all can participate in through the grace of our baptism. After all, God’s love is more “original” than our sin! ©LPi
