CATHOLIC ADULT FAITH SHARING

Thank you to those who attended our first meeting. This is open to all adults, single, married, men and women and mature teenagers! Our meetings will be held on the first Saturday of each month from 9am to 10am at St. Mary's School Building. This is a wonderful opportunity to grow in your faith in a completely non-threatening environment. Fr. Kris and volunteers keep it lively, informative and engaging.

FR. KRIS' KORNER

Wealth, power, and success generate false security and Jesus most certainly rejects them. Nothing we can ever do or achieve will merit us the rewards of heaven and sorry, Led Zeppelin got it wrong - she can't buy a stairway to heaven. In today's Gospel, a rich man ran up, knelt down before Jesus, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" After a brief conversation, Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement the man's face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Afterwards, Jesus said to his disciples

"It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." There has been a 2000 year controversy over exactly what Jesus meant when he spoke of the eye of a needle; some scholars believe he was talking about the eye of a sewing needle which truly would make it impossible for a camel to pass through, while other scholars believe he was referring to a low, narrow passageway through the fortified walls of an ancient city. A merchant would have to unload all the goods off the camel to allow it access through the narrow way. This could be a warning to those who foolishly try to take their wealth and privilege with them into the next life or to those who try keeping their wealth by leaving it all to their family – thus clutching on to it in some sly way. Or, that they might consider donating some of that wealth to charity so they can leave this world a better place.

I always feel badly for those who are wealthy when we read this passage at Mass. However, Jesus' interpretation of "wealthy" goes far beyond that of just money; it could be anything that convinces us that we don't need to be dependent on God – that somehow, through our own merits, we're responsible for our own successes and perhaps even that we can buy our entrance into heaven.

The words of Jesus, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" provoked great astonishment among the disciples because CONT... He contradicted everything they were ever taught about material goods and wealth as being signs that one was in God's good favor. The pursuit of wealth actually drives a wedge between so many and God, whereas, generosity and philanthropy draw one closer. In my heart I fear there are many among us who have gambled away the riches that await us in heaven and replaced them with the immediate gratifying riches here on earth; how sad to be so deceived. Imagine throwing away eternal happiness in exchange for opulence during one's brief life on this planet. Wouldn't you rather share your riches during this brief time on earth than to be denied life for all eternity!
