ST. AUGUSTIN'S CHRISTMAS BAZAAR
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 1ST

Save the date for a very exciting day of raffles, games of chance, Christmas crafts and delicious food! Over the years parishioners have created themed gift baskets which generate much interest. Might you consider donating a themed basket to be raffled off?

FR. KRIS' KORNER

Humans, in every period of our existence have honored our deceased loved ones. It is deep within our nature to remember their impact on our lives, to mourn their passing, and to hope to be with them again. On November 1st, All Saints Day, the church honors all those whom the church upholds as official saints - those whom we know "made it" – those whose lives were holy and exemplary. There are a few important requirements for a person to become a saint; most notably, two miracles must take place through the intercession of that person. The miracle is usually a healing which is instantaneous, permanent, and complete while also being scientifically unexplainable. The miracle must be approved by a panel of independent doctors and theologians along with the final approval from the pope himself. After the first verified miracle a person is declared "BLESSED." After a second verified miracle the person is finally honored as a "SAINT."

But how do we honor 'regular' people who pass away? Recently, my Italian cousins had a party to remember and celebrate our deceased loved ones. Of course it dug up some sorrow but sharing their stories helped us to heal. On November 2nd, All Souls Day, our parishes held a very special Concert of Remembrance to help our parishioners heal and to honor their recently departed loved ones. During the month of November, their names are placed on the altar. At the part of the Mass when we remember the dead, I place my hand over the names and pause so that all parishioners can remember their own loved ones. The names of four members of my family are among those on the altar. Let all of us find comfort and hope in Jesus' promise that he will never abandon us and that, through his death and resurrection, we will live in eternal glory together with our loved ones.

How does your family honor its deceased? Do you tell their stories to younger generations? Do you reminisce by looking at old photos? If you are able, do you visit their graves? Why not honor them during every Mass in November? All Souls envelopes were sent out and can also be found at the entrances of the church; if you want to include a donation that is totally up to you. Please honor your loved ones by proudly placing their names on the altar.

A WORD FROM OUR PASTORAL COUNCIL

In light of the closing of St. Anne's Parish in Fall River, Fr. Kris is urging us to be proactive.

You are invited to meet with members of the St. Augustin Parish Council for a parish planning meeting on Tuesday, November 13, at 6:30pm in the church hall. Your help in future planning for parish direction and projects will be greatly appreciated. Be a part of the future; this is all positive! Any questions, call Rick Kelly at 846-6880.

CALLING NEW AND FORMER CHOIR MEMBERS

As the holiday season approaches, Matt (our Music Director) is putting out the call for more people to join the choir. Rehearsals are on Sunday Mornings before the 9:30 Mass. As you know, Matt chooses songs that are familiar and therefore easy to belt out! Please consider joining. Matt is a talented gentleman who is super easy to work with. Cast your fears aside and help us all to Praise the Lord with gusto.
